|  | 5. Where an authorised representative considers that there is a non-compliance mentioned in the paragraph 4, the authorised representative shall ask the manufacturer to remedy the non-compliances. The manufacturer shall thereon stop the placing on the market and ask other economic operators involved in the distribution to stop their commercial activities, until the authorised representative regards the infringements as remedied. Where the non-compliances are not remedied within one month whilst products possibly continue to be made available on the market, the authorised representative shall be allowed to terminate his contract with the manufacturer and thereof inform the national competent authorities of the Member States where the products are placed on the market and the national competent authority of his own place of business. The latter shall coordinate joint actions of all competent authorities, unless the national competent authorities agree on another national competent authority to coordinate. | 5. | 545        | 4. The Commission shall assess the conformity of construction products standards established by the European standardisation organisations with the relevant standardisation requests, with this Regulation and with other Union law. The Commission shall publish or publish with restrictions in the Official Journal of the European Union the list of references of accepted conforming construction products standards that have been made available at an affordable price. Where a reference to a standard cannot be published otherwise in the Official Journal, the Commission is empowered to supplement this Regulation by delegated acts adopted in accordance with Article 86 to modify the respective standards for purposes of legal effects under this Regulation. | deleted | deleted  |                 |
