Statement by Belgium, Denmark, Luxembourg, The Netherlands and Sweden

Belgium, Denmark, Luxembourg, The Netherlands and Sweden support the conclusion of a bilateral agreement with China on the protection of agricultural geographical indications, wines and spirits. Belgium, Denmark, Luxembourg, The Netherlands and Sweden appreciate the progress that has been made in improving the bilateral trade relations with China with regard to agricultural products, wines and spirits.

Belgium, Denmark, Luxembourg, The Netherlands and Sweden have noted with concern however that the draft agreement could be read as implying that in the future EU legislation protecting geographical indications might be extended in scope of protection to geographical indications of non-agricultural products and therefore stress that international agreements protecting certain geographical indications cannot anticipate or prejudge any decision as regards the expansion of the scope of EU legislation in this regard.
