Origine:	Secrétariat général du Conseil
Destinataire:	Comité des représentants permanents
Objet:	Proposition de règlement du Parlement européen et du Conseil modifiant le règlement (CE) n° 1224/2009 du Conseil et modifiant les règlements (CE) n° 768/2005, (CE) n° 1967/2006, (CE) n° 1005/2008 du Conseil et le règlement (UE) 2016/1139 du Parlement européen et du Conseil en ce qui concerne le contrôle des pêches - Préparation du trilogue

I. INTRODUCTION

1. La Commission a transmis le 30 mai 2018 la proposition susmentionnée au Parlement européen et au Conseil.¹ La proposition a été présentée au Conseil « Agriculture et pêche » le 18 juin 2018. Avant cela, le Conseil a adopté le 17 octobre 2017 des conclusions sur un rapport spécial de la Cour des comptes européenne intitulé « Contrôle des pêches de l'UE : des efforts supplémentaires sont nécessaires ».²
2. Le régime de contrôle de la pêche de l'Union est en majeure partie établi par trois règlements du Conseil : (1) sur le régime de contrôle de la pêche de l'Union de 2009 (« règlement contrôle »)³; (2) sur la pêche illicite, non déclarée et non réglementée de 2008 (« règlement INN »)⁴ et (3) sur l'Agence européenne de contrôle des pêches (AECF) de 2019

- (« règlement sur l’AECF »)⁵. Certains autres règlements contiennent des règles spécifiques supplémentaires relatives au contrôle des pêches⁶.
3. La proposition de la Commission modifiant ces règlements constitue la première révision importante du système de contrôle de la pêche de l’Union depuis la dernière réforme qui a eu lieu en 2009. La plupart des modifications concernent le règlement « contrôle ». L’un des principaux objectifs de la réforme est la création d’un système de contrôle de la pêche plus efficace et plus efficient grâce à des règles, procédures et instruments améliorés, simplifiés et modernisés.
 4. Le Comité économique et social européen a rendu son avis le 12 décembre 2018⁷. Le Comité européen des régions a décidé de ne pas émettre d’avis le 1 octobre 2018.
 5. Le Parlement européen a adopté des amendements à la proposition de la Commission le 11 mars 2021 et a renvoyé le dossier à la commission de la pêche (PECH) en vue des négociations interinstitutionnelles.⁸
 6. Les présidences croate, allemande et portugaise ont investi de considérables efforts dans l’élaboration de l’orientation générale (OG) qui a été adoptée au cours de la présidence portugaise, le 28 juin 2021. Tous les États membres ont soutenu l’orientation générale, sauf la Pologne, qui s’est opposée au texte, et la Finlande qui s’est abstenue.

II. NÉGOCIATIONS INTERINSTITUTIONNELLES

7. Les négociations interinstitutionnelles ont débuté en juillet 2021. Les institutions sont convenues de diviser la proposition de la Commission en 19 « séquences » thématiques et de les traiter dans l'ordre de leur numérotation (voir annexe 1). La numérotation a été choisie en vue de faciliter les négociations. L'ordre a été suivi jusqu'à présent, à l'exception de la séquence 15, que les institutions ont souhaité aborder après la séquence 9. Des discussions sur d'éventuelles modifications supplémentaires concernant l'ordre des séquences sont en cours.
8. Au cours de la présidence slovène, 12 réunions techniques interinstitutionnelles et quatre trilogues politiques ont eu lieu. Les institutions ont examiné de manière approfondie les séquences 1, 2, 3, 5, une partie de la séquence 6 et ont procédé à un premier échange de vues sur la séquence 4. Le 1^{er} décembre 2021, le Coreper a approuvé un mandat révisé présenté par la présidence slovène et couvrant les séquences 1 à 6. Sur la base de ce mandat révisé, lors du trilogue du 7 décembre 2021, la présidence slovène a pu confirmer au Parlement européen les accords provisoires conclus dans le cadre des négociations interinstitutionnelles sur un nombre important de dispositions des séquences 1, 2, 3 et 5 et plusieurs dispositions de la séquence 6.
9. Au cours de la présidence française, 23 réunions techniques et trois trilogues politiques ont eu lieu à ce jour. Deux réunions techniques supplémentaires sont prévues d'ici à la fin du mois de juin et d'autres pourraient être organisées, toujours en juin, pour permettre de faire avancer les travaux. Le dernier trilogue sous la présidence française est prévu le 21 juin. Les discussions menées sous la présidence française ont porté sur quelques lignes encore en discussion des séquences 1 et 3 et sur les séquences 4, 6, 7, 8, 9 et 15. Lors du trilogue du 31 mai 2022, la Commission a attiré l'attention des co-législateurs sur ses « lignes rouges », indiquant qu'elle envisagerait de retirer la proposition si elle estimait que les accords entre le Conseil et le Parlement représentaient un pas en arrière par rapport au règlement actuel. La présidence a rendu compte au Coreper des résultats des trilogues qui se sont tenus depuis le début du semestre les 16 février, 6 avril et 1^{er} juin 2022. La présidence a également informé régulièrement le groupe « Politique de la pêche » de l'état d'avancement des réunions techniques interinstitutionnelles.

III. PREPARATION DU PROCHAIN TRILOGUE

10. Afin de préparer le trilogue du 21 juin, la présidence a présenté, le 9 juin, au groupe « Politique de la pêche » ses suggestions pour le mandat concernant quelques dispositions des séquences 1, 3, et sur les séquences 4, 6, 7, 8, 9 et 15⁹. Le 14 juin, la présidence a présenté au groupe « Politique de la pêche » une version révisée du mandat proposé, en tenant compte des observations orales et écrites de plusieurs délégations¹⁰. Un grand nombre de délégations ont exprimé leur soutien pour une très grande majorité des dispositions figurant dans le mandat révisé, mais ont également indiqué une préférence pour l'orientation générale concernant des sujets spécifiques, notamment certaines dispositions des séquences 9 et 15 (exemption des navires de moins de 9 mètres concernant le suivi à distance, seuil d'équipement des navires concernant les instruments de surveillance électronique à distance). Plusieurs délégations ont noté que leur examen de la proposition de révision du mandat était toujours en cours. Le 15 juin, la présidence a présenté une proposition légèrement révisée du mandat afin de répondre davantage aux préoccupations des États membres. Elle figure à l'annexe 2 de la présente note.

11. Sur la base de ce mandat, la présidence défendra en principe l'orientation générale du Conseil pour la plupart des dispositions. Toutefois, la présidence cherche à disposer d'une certaine flexibilité afin de répondre à certaines des préoccupations les plus importantes du Parlement européen et d'accepter plusieurs textes de compromis préparés au cours des négociations interinstitutionnelles – et acceptables pour le Parlement européen et la Commission – comme suit¹¹:

a) Sur le règlement de l'AECP (« séquence 1 ») ¹² :

- i. accepter le texte proposé pour le considérant relatif à la composition du conseil d'administration de l'AECP¹³.

b) En ce qui concerne les licences et autorisations visées dans le règlement de contrôle (« séquence 3 ») :

- i. approuver la définition de « l'autorisation de pêche »¹⁴;

¹² Toutes les références aux lignes dans les paragraphes suivants sont les références aux lignes figurant dans l'Annexe 2 à cette note.

¹³ Ligne 119a dans le tableau figurant dans l'Annexe 1.

- ii. confirmer l'accord sur plusieurs dispositions sur lesquelles le Coreper avait accordé une certaine souplesse, notamment sur les autorisations¹⁵ et sur l'introduction d'un considérant et un paragraphe sur la fin de l'utilisation des engins de pêche¹⁶.
- c) Sur le thème de la pêche sans navire de pêche (« séquence 4 ») :
- i. approuver un considérant et une définition de la notion de « pêche sans navire »¹⁷ et une disposition générale sur la pêche sans navires de pêche¹⁸;
 - ii. confirmer l'accord sur une disposition relative à un système d'autorisation ou à un autre système alternatif d'enregistrement¹⁹.
- d) Sur les programmes nationaux de contrôle (« séquence 6 ») :
- i. approuver le considérant et la définition modifiés sur la portée des règles de la politique commune de la pêche²⁰ ;
 - ii. approuver le considérant sur les compétences de la Commission concernant l'adoption, par voie d'actes délégués, des exemptions à l'obligation d'arrimage séparé des captures²¹, ainsi qu'accepter que les règles sur l'arrimage séparé s'appliquent aux navires de pêche (et pas aux navires de capture)²² ;
 - iii. confirmer l'accord sur la disposition prévoyant que les coûts d'opération des observateurs de contrôle seraient imputés aux États membres, tandis que ces derniers auront la possibilité de demander aux opérateurs de participer à ces coûts²³ ;
 - iv. confirmer l'accord sur plusieurs dispositions relatives à la conduite des inspections combinant les amendements du Parlement et les modifications du Conseil²⁴, ainsi que sur les obligations de l'opérateur et du capitaine²⁵ ;
 - v. concernant les inspections, confirmer l'accord sur le considérant relatif aux infractions détectées²⁶, ainsi que sur les bases de données électronique pour les rapports d'inspection et de surveillance, en précisant que l'AECP y aura accès

- en conformité avec l'Article 110 du règlement contrôle²⁷, tout comme sur la disposition concernant les inspections sur le territoire des États membres²⁸, la possibilité pour les inspecteurs de l'Union de participer aux formations dans le domaine du contrôle et des inspections²⁹ et le mention explicite des exemples d'informations auxquelles les inspecteurs auraient l'accès³⁰;
- vi. pour ce qui est des programmes nationaux de contrôle, accepter l'accord sur leur mise à jour annuelle si nécessaire³¹, et leur notification à la Commission dans un délai de 3 mois³² ;
 - vii. sur les rapports annuels, approuver l'accord sur le délai du 30 juin pour la publication, par les États membres, des rapports sur leurs sites internet et les éléments qui devraient figurer dans ce rapport³³, ainsi que l'obligation de la Commission de publier un rapport compilé sur la base de ceux-ci³⁴.
- e) Sur la digitalisation des déclarations de captures de pêche (« séquence 7 »),
- i. approuver le considérant sur le numéro unique d'identification de la sortie de pêche, à utiliser également en cas de pêche sans navire³⁵ ;
 - ii. concernant le journal de bord, accorder la flexibilité d'introduire un considérant sur le journal de bord simplifié³⁶ et certaines informations à y inclure, notamment sur les rejets³⁷, et espèces sensibles (ainsi que le considérant)³⁸ ;
 - iii. concernant la soumission électronique du journal de bord, accepter que les navires de moins de 12m devraient envoyer l'information avant le débarquement³⁹ et flexibilité visant à accepter l'obligation que les États membres demandeurs devraient utiliser le système développé par la Commission⁴⁰ ;

- iv. confirmer l'accord sur la disposition concernant les délais raccourcis pour la notification préalable⁴¹, et accorder une flexibilité par rapport aux captures réalisées après l'envoi de la notification⁴² ;
 - v. accorder une flexibilité visant à prendre en considération l'amendement du Parlement consistant à préciser que l'accès au port ne pourrait pas être refusé dans certains cas précis de force majeure⁴³ ;
 - vi. concernant la notification préalable de débarquement dans des ports des pays tiers, confirmer l'accord sur le délai général de 48h⁴⁴ et le fait qu'il ne pourrait, en tout état de cause, pas être inférieur à 2 heures⁴⁵, et accorder une flexibilité sur la disposition concernant les inspections dans les pays tiers en cas de non-respect des règles de la politique commune de la pêche (référence aux règles applicables en haute mer⁴⁶) ;
 - vii. confirmer l'accord visant à maintenir la proposition initiale de la Commission sur le critère de longueur de navires de 10m déclenchant l'obligation de soumettre la déclaration électronique de transbordement⁴⁷ ;
 - viii. accorder une flexibilité concernant les dispositions⁴⁸ sur la transmission électronique de la déclaration de débarquement ;
 - ix. pour ce qui est de la récupération des engins perdus, accorder la flexibilité de faire référence aux dispositifs d'agrégation et bouées⁴⁹, et confirmer l'accord sur la publication annuelle d'une compilation des informations sur les engins perdus par la Commission⁵⁰ ;
- f) Sur la pesée (« Séquence 8 ») :
- i. Flexibilité d'accepter une disposition selon laquelle les produits de la pêche capturés par les navires de l'Union, mais débarqués dans les pays tiers, doivent être pesés et que la responsabilité de cette pesée relève du capitaine et non des Etats membres, le tout en tenant compte des règles fixées par les Etats tiers⁵¹ ;

- ii. confirmer l'accord sur les exemptions visant à peser les produits de la pêche au débarquement (sur la base d'un plan de sondage), à bord ou après transport vers le territoire des Etats membres ;
 - iii. accorder une flexibilité visant à trouver un accord sur le seuil déclenchant l'obligation de produire une note de vente pour les particuliers achetant directement des produits de la pêche, avec un seuil minimum de 10 kg, et ajouter une dispositions spécifique sur les stocks dont les quotas sont exprimés en nombre d'individus⁵² ;
 - iv. accorder une flexibilité visant à augmenter la distance entre le lieu de débarquement et un autre lieu déclenchant l'exemption de ne pas devoir disposer d'un document de transport, de 20 km à 35 km au maximum⁵³.
- g) Sur le système de surveillance des navires (« VMS ») (« Séquence 9 ») :
- i. accorder la flexibilité visant à prévoir dans le règlement lui-même la possibilité, pour les navires de moins de 12 mètres, d'utiliser des dispositifs de suivi mobiles (et de ne pas laisser cette possibilité à la discrétion des États membres)⁵⁴;
 - ii. en vue d'un compromis et afin de garantir l'accord du Parlement concernant une exception à l'utilisation du VMS pour les navires de plus petite taille, accorder une flexibilité visant à proposer des critères différentes pour les navires de petite taille qui relèveraient de cet exception, en particulier une longueur inférieure du navire, par exemple 8 mètres au lieu de 9 mètres⁵⁵, et une zone géographique d'application différente, avec une distance à la côte de 4 ou 3 milles nautiques au lieu de 6 milles nautiques⁵⁶;
 - iii. accorder une flexibilité visant à proposer au Parlement européen une disposition exigeant des États membres qu'ils rendent compte chaque année de l'utilisation de l'exemption pour les petits navires et exigeant de la Commission qu'elle réexamine l'exemption à l'issue d'une période donnée⁵⁷ ;

- iv. en ce qui concerne le système d'identification automatique (AIS), accorder une flexibilité visant à rappeler, dans le règlement « contrôle », certaines obligations énoncées dans la directive 2002/59/CE⁵⁸.
- h) Sur le contrôle de l'obligation de débarquement (« séquence 15 ») :
- i. accorder une flexibilité pour parvenir à un accord sur une longueur inférieure à 24 mètres (par exemple 18 mètres, mais pas moins), pour les navires qui doivent être équipés du système de surveillance électronique à distance (« REM ») sur la base d'une analyse de risque qui démontre un risque « haut » (et pas « grave »), et préciser que le REM devrait être constitué de caméras embarquées ou d'instruments avec une efficacité équivalente⁵⁹ ;
- ii. confirmer l'accord sur l'obligation de la Commission de réexaminer l'efficacité de la surveillance électronique à distance et de préparer un rapport à soumettre au Parlement et au Conseil⁶⁰ .

Par rapport à toutes les séquences faisant l'objet de l'annexe 2, la présidence souhaite également obtenir une flexibilité visant à parvenir à un accord global sur toutes les dispositions où les institutions ont des vues divergentes sur le choix à retenir entre les actes d'exécution et les actes délégués. Avant l'accord final, la présidence soumettra cette proposition d'accord global aux délégations.

IV. CONCLUSIONS

Le Comité des représentants permanents est invité à permettre à la présidence de mener des négociations avec le Parlement européen et à :

- approuver le mandat proposé par la présidence pour les séquences 1, 3, 4, 6, 7, 8, 9, et 15, tel qu'il figure à l'annexe 2 de la présente note ;
- indiquer les marges de manœuvre en ce qui concerne les questions présentées au point 11(g) et (h) de la présente note.
