The SCA took note of the outcome of the examination of the Article 43(3) proposal set out in document 10579/11 and of the Presidency suggested amendments included in document 10699.

On the issue of the non-opinion procedure the SCA:

- having heard the explanations provided by the Council Legal Service, noted the Commission's opposition to the suggested inclusion of a reference to the non-opinion procedure in the text;
- also noted that the suggested inclusion of such a provision is not unanimously supported by delegations.

On the issue of the scope the SCA:

- noted views expressed by delegations;
- agreed to come back to this issue at a later stage.

On the issue of the proposed transfer of competence in Articles 7 and 8 of the proposal the SCA:

- noted a significant number of delegations oppose the proposed transfer of competence;
- requested the Commission to reflect and to address the concerns of those delegations.
