70.	1. Member States shall, jointly or individually, either nominate or establish a body or bodies as their national supervisory authority in order to assume the tasks assigned to such authority by this Regulation.	1. Member States shall, jointly or individually, either nominate or establish a body [...] as their national supervisory authority in order to assume the tasks assigned to such authority by this Regulation.	1. Member States shall, jointly or individually, either nominate or establish a body or bodies as their national supervisory authority in order to assume the tasks assigned to such authority by this Regulation.	PCY insists on Commission's initial provision: 1. Member States shall, jointly or individually, either nominate or establish a body or bodies as their national supervisory authority in order to assume the tasks assigned to such authority by this Regulation. EP insists that "or bodies" should be deleted.

				EP counterproposal: 3. Without prejudice to paragraph 1, the national supervisory authorities shall be legally distinct and independent from any other public or private entity, in particular from any operational stakeholders , in terms of their organisation, functioning, budgeting, financing , legal structure and decision-making,
73.	The national supervisory authorities shall also be independent in terms of their organisation, funding decisions, legal structure and decision-making from any air navigation service provider.	The national supervisory authorities shall also be independent in terms of their organisation, functioning, budgeting, financing , legal structure and decision-making from any air navigation service provider or any other entity falling within the scope of their supervision.	The national supervisory authority shall [...] be independent [...] from any air navigation service providers, in organisational, hierarchical and decision-making terms, in particular by avoiding conflicts of interest with those service providers. That independence shall not prevent that authority and those service providers from being part of the same civil service, public entity or administration.	PCY proposes to merge lines 72 and 73 but EP cannot accept: “That independence shall not prevent that authority and those service providers from being part of the same civil service, public entity or administration.”
