COMMISSION DELEGATED REGULATION (EU) .../...

of 6.7.2026

amending the regulatory technical standards laid down in Delegated Regulation (EU) 2017/392 as regards the information a Central Securities Depository is to provide to its competent authority for the review and evaluation process referred to in Article 22(1) of Regulation (EU) No 909/2014

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

1. CONTEXT OF THE DELEGATED ACT

Regulation (EU) No 909/2014 ('CSDR')¹ harmonises the conduct of securities settlement in the Union and the rules governing central securities depositories (CSDs). Notably, it establishes a periodic review and evaluation process according to which CSD competent authorities shall review the arrangements, strategies, processes and mechanisms implemented by a CSD with respect to compliance with the CSDR and evaluate the risks to which the CSD is, or might be, exposed or which it creates for the smooth functioning of securities markets or stability of the financial markets.

The CSDR, as it stood before the entry into force of Regulation (EU) 2023/2845 ('CSDR Refit')², mandated the European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA) to develop draft regulatory technical standards (RTS) specifying the information that CSDs were to provide to competent authorities for the purposes of the CSD review and evaluation, and the information that competent authorities were to provide to each other and to relevant authorities in the context of the CSD review and evaluation. These RTS were set out in Delegated Regulation (EU) 2017/392³.

CSDR Refit introduced certain amendments to the CSD review and evaluation process, in particular by (i) reducing the mandatory frequency of the review and evaluation from at least every year to at least every three years, (ii) strengthening the process for consulting CSD relevant authorities and (iii) extending the range of authorities receiving the results of the review and evaluation. In light of these changes, CSDR Refit also included mandates for ESMA to revise the existing regulatory and implementing technical standards on review and evaluation. The implementation of the above would contribute to further organising and streamlining the process for the exchange of information between CSDs and their competent or relevant authorities, hence reducing the occurrence of 'ad hoc' requests. The overall amount of reporting for CSDs would thus remain broadly the same or be slightly reduced.

Against this background, the CSDR, as amended by CSDR Refit, empowers the Commission to adopt, following submission of draft RTS by ESMA, and in accordance with Articles 10 to 14 of Regulation (EU) No 1095/2010 establishing ESMA⁴ ('ESMA Regulation'), a Delegated Regulation specifying the information to be provided by (i) CSDs to competent authorities,

² Regulation (EU) 2023/2845 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 13 December 2023 amending Regulation (EU) No 909/2014 as regards settlement discipline, cross-border provision of services, supervisory cooperation, provision of banking-type ancillary services and requirements for third-country central securities depositories and amending Regulation (EU) No 236/2012 (OJ L, 2023/2845, 27.12.2023).

(ii) competent authorities to other authorities, and (iii) competent authorities to one another, in the context of the review and evaluation process.

On 20 February 2025, ESMA submitted to the Commission draft RTS amending the existing RTS on review and evaluation set out in Delegated Regulation (EU) 2017/392.

2. CONSULTATIONS PRIOR TO THE ADOPTION OF THE ACT

In accordance with Article 10(1), third subparagraph, of the ESMA Regulation, ESMA carried out a public consultation on the draft amending RTS on CSD review and evaluation from 9 July 2024 to 9 September 2024. The Securities and Markets Stakeholders Group set up in accordance with Article 37 of the ESMA Regulation was also consulted on the draft amending RTS.

Together with the draft amending RTS, and in accordance with Article 10(1), third subparagraph, of the ESMA Regulation, ESMA submitted its impact assessment, including its analysis of the costs and benefits of the draft amending RTS, and a detailed report on how the outcome of the public consultation has been taken into account. This analysis is available in the Final Report on the draft amending RTS⁵.

In particular, respondents to the consultation were concerned about the introduction of additional 16 sets of data required under Article 41 of Delegated Regulation (EU) 2017/392. In their view, this would increase the amount and complexity of the information to be provided by CSDs. They recommended to review the reporting proposals in light of the principle of proportionality, ensuring consistency and avoiding duplications with other reporting requirements, and improving the structure and clarity of the draft amending RTS. They also explained that IT developments and adaptations of processes and queries would be necessary to deal with the new reporting requirements. They also claimed that, in order to implement those changes, at least one year would be necessary from the entry into force of the amending RTS.

ESMA noted that most of the additional requirements are not new since they relate to CSDs' ongoing compliance and reporting to different authorities. In ESMA's view, their introduction in the Delegated Regulation would ensure harmonisation of reporting requirements across the EU. However, in order to address the concerns raised, ESMA (i) provided further specific justifications for the sets of data introduced in the draft amending RTS that were to date already requested on an ad hoc basis by competent authorities and (ii) deferred the application of certain new requirements by one year in order to facilitate IT adaptations.

3. LEGAL ELEMENTS OF THE DELEGATED ACT

The right to adopt a Delegated Regulation is provided for under Article 22(10) of the CSDR. Under this provision, the Commission is empowered to adopt a Delegated Regulation specifying: (i) the information the CSD is to provide to the competent authority for the purposes of the review and evaluation; (ii) the information that the CSD's competent authority is to supply to other authorities when sharing the results of the review and evaluation; and (iii) the information that the competent authorities responsible for supervising different CSDs within the same group are to supply to one another when performing the review and evaluation.

⁵ The Final Report can be found at ESMA74-2119945925-2089 Final Report on the Draft technical standards on review and evaluation under CSDR

The amending Delegated Regulation introduces the following modifications to Delegated Regulation (EU) 2017/392:

- Article 40(2) of Delegated Regulation (EU) 2017/392 on the information to be provided by CSDs to competent authorities is amended to require CSDs to provide a summary of the key changes since the previous review, in the form of a report addressing a minimum list of topics that cover the core elements of the structure and functioning of the CSDs from a supervisory perspective. These elements include the group structure, management and shareholders, CSDs' activities and services, outsourcing and links.
- Article 41 of Delegated Regulation (EU) 2017/392 on the periodic information to be provided by CSDs to competent authorities for each review period is amended to require certain additional information items to be provided by CSDs. These include a number of information items on changes in the CSDs' risk management framework, in terms of legal risk, general business risk and operational risk. Moreover, information requirements are introduced on the CSDs' progress in addressing the outstanding findings and recommendations by their competent authority.
- Article 42 of Delegated Regulation (EU) 2017/392 is amended to further specify the statistical data to be provided by CSDs for each review and evaluation, particularly with respect to cross-border activities, including information on the jurisdictions of the CSDs' participants or issuers and the governing law of the securities for which they provide core services.
- Article 44 of Delegated Regulation (EU) 2017/392 on the information to be supplied to the authorities referred to in Article 22(7) of the CSDR is amended to reflect the broader range of authorities to which information on the review and evaluation shall be provided and to reflect the strengthened role of relevant authorities in the review and evaluation process pursuant to CSDR Refit.
- Article 45(2), point (a), of Delegated Regulation (EU) 2017/392 on the exchange of information between the competent authorities referred to in Article 22(8) of the CSDR is amended to refer to the risks the CSDs may create for the stability of financial markets, to reflect the changes brought by CSDR Refit in the wording of Article 22(1) of the CSDR.

As the amending Delegated Regulation specifies further the requirements for CSDs to report relevant information, which might lead to changes to CSDs' reporting structure, the application of certain requirements is deferred by one year to provide CSDs with enough time to undertake the necessary changes.

of 6.7.2026

amending the regulatory technical standards laid down in Delegated Regulation (EU) 2017/392 as regards the information a Central Securities Depository is to provide to its competent authority for the review and evaluation process referred to in Article 22(1) of Regulation (EU) No 909/2014

(Text with EEA relevance)

THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union,

Having regard to Regulation (EU) No 909/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 July 2014 on improving securities settlement in the European Union and on central securities depositories and amending Directives 98/26/EC and 2014/65/EU and Regulation (EU) No 236/2012⁶, and in particular Article 22(10), third subparagraph thereof,

Whereas:

- (1) The amendments introduced to Regulation (EU) No 909/2014 by Regulation (EU) 2023/2845 of the European Parliament and of the Council⁷ require amending certain provisions of Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2017/392⁸ accordingly.
- (2) Considering the strengthening of the role of relevant authorities and, where applicable, of the authorities referred to in Article 67 of Directive 2014/65/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council⁹ in the review and evaluation process foreseen by Regulation (EU) No 909/2014, competent authorities should transmit to those authorities the information necessary to fulfil their role, which has been extended beyond the functioning of the securities settlement systems operated by the central securities depository (CSD) to compliance with Regulation (EU) No 909/2014 and other requirements of Union law as regards the functioning of the securities settlement

⁸ Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2017/392 of 11 November 2016 supplementing Regulation (EU) No 909/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council with regard to regulatory technical standards on authorisation, supervisory and operational requirements for central securities depositories (OJ L 65, 10.3.2017, p. 48, ELI: http://data.europa.eu/eli/reg_del/2017/392/oj).

systems. In light of the longer review period of three years introduced by Regulation (EU) 2023/2845, CSDs should be required to report to competent authorities certain new information items. It is also necessary to make the reporting requirements laid down in Article 22(1), (7) and (8) of Regulation (EU) No 909/2014 more predictable, to reduce the administrative burden for both CSDs and competent authorities and reduce ad hoc information requests.

- (3) To ensure minimum harmonisation, to enable competent authorities to compare information received, and to foster supervisory convergence, CSDs should provide their competent authority with a summary of the key changes they have made to their arrangements, strategies, processes and mechanisms with respect to compliance with Regulation (EU) No 909/2014 since the most recent review of those arrangements, strategies, processes and mechanisms by their competent authority. Due to the new longer minimum frequency for the review and evaluation laid down in Article 22(1), third subparagraph, of Regulation (EU) No 909/2014 and taking into account the new elements highlighted by the supervisory experience developed since the introduction of the review and evaluation process, that report should cover more detailed information on the changes that occurred during the relevant review period on the core elements of the structure and functioning of the CSD from a supervisory perspective. Those core elements should include the group structure of the CSD, its management and shareholders, its activities or services, and the termination of services and links. A number of information items on the changes in the CSD's risk management framework, in terms of legal risks, general business risks and operational risks, should be included in the set of periodic information that is to be provided to the competent authorities for the review and evaluation.
- (4) Since CSDs can provide their services cross-border, in other Member States and in third countries, the review of the arrangements, strategies, processes and mechanisms implemented by a CSD with respect to compliance with Regulation (EU) No 909/2014, and the evaluation of the risks to which the CSD is, or might be, exposed or which it creates for the smooth functioning of securities markets or stability of the financial markets, should cover such cross-border activities. CSDs should therefore provide their competent authorities with statistical data on their cross-border activities, including the jurisdictions of their participants or issuers and the governing law of the securities for which they provide core services. That information will enable authorities to thoroughly understand the operational, legal, and liquidity risks associated with the cross-border provision of services by CSDs.
- (5) To ensure that competent authorities are able to monitor whether CSDs properly identify, rate, and manage their legal risk exposure, CSDs should inform their competent authorities about any changes to their legal management framework in the course of the review period.
- (6) To ensure that CSDs comply at all times with the conditions for authorisation, their progress in addressing any outstanding findings and recommendations from the competent authorities should be closely monitored. CSDs should inform their competent authorities about measures taken to address those outstanding findings and recommendations, as part of the review and evaluation process referred to in Article 22(1) of Regulation (EU) No 909/2014. In particular, CSDs that have obtained a risk rating from a third-party in accordance with Article 32 of Delegated Regulation (EU) 2017/392 should periodically report any changes in the risk rating of the CSD that occurred during the review period.

- (7) While CSDs remain liable for any issues that arise in relation to outsourced activities or services, such activities or services may have a direct impact on the management of securities settlement systems. To ensure that the outsourcing contracts adequately provide for oversight and proper control of the outsourced functions by CSDs, CSDs should periodically inform their competent authorities about major changes in those contracts during the review period.
- (8) Deferred net settlement entails credit and liquidity risks. CSDs should therefore periodically inform their competent authorities about the way in which those credit and liquidity risks are managed.
- (9) Under Article 70(7) of Delegated Regulation (EU) 2017/392, CSDs are required to periodically review their operational objectives to incorporate new technological and business developments. It follows that CSDs, to enable competent authorities to properly perform the review and evaluation referred to in Article 22(1) of Regulation (EU) No 909/2014, should also inform their competent authorities about the outcome of such review and in particular about the processes and activities that contribute to the delivery of the services that CSDs provide and the IT systems that support them.
- (10) Operational risk is one of the main risks that CSDs face on an ongoing basis. CSDs should therefore inform their competent authorities about the operational risks faced during the review period and the procedures they have followed to mitigate those risks. For the same reason, CSDs should periodically inform their competent authorities about the outcome of their tests on, and reviews of, their operational arrangements, policies and procedures with users.
- (11) Pursuant to Articles 6 and 7 of Regulation (EU) No 909/2014, CSDs are required to promote early settlement on the intended settlement date, to monitor settlement fails of transactions, and to establish procedures to facilitate the settlement of transactions that are not settled on the intended settlement date, by means of cash penalties, settlement fails reporting and eventually, mandatory buy-in. Therefore, and to enable competent authorities to monitor any changes that CSDs implement in that area during the review period for the review and evaluation referred to in Article 22(1) of Regulation (EU) No 909/2014, CSDs should provide periodic information on developments that occurred in relation to the measures they put in place to prevent and address settlement fails.
- (12) To ensure that CSDs have the capacity to take timely action when there is a default of one or more of its participants, the rules and procedures to ensure that such action is taken should periodically be tested and reviewed. To enable competent authorities to identify the risks to which CSDs might be exposed, CSDs should inform their competent authorities about the outcome of such testing and review.
- (13) Under Article 80 of Delegated Regulation (EU) 2017/392, CSDs are required to periodically review and update their business continuity policy and the disaster recovery plan. To enable competent authorities to properly perform the review and evaluation referred to in Article 22(1) of Regulation (EU) No 909/2014, CSDs should provide their competent authorities with the result of those periodic reviews and updates.
- (14) CSDs may use measures or tools to condition the delivery of securities to the payment of the cash leg operated outside its system for free of payment settlement instructions. Given the relevance of those measures or tools for the securities settlement system, CSDs should inform their competent authorities about their implementation during the review period.

- (15) The introduction of new information requirements may lead to changes in CSDs' reporting structure. To provide CSDs with enough time to undertake such changes, the date of application of certain provisions should be deferred by one year.
- (16) Delegated Regulation (EU) 2017/392 should therefore be amended accordingly.
- (17) This Regulation is based on the draft regulatory technical standards submitted to the Commission by the European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA.)
- (18) ESMA has conducted open public consultations on the draft regulatory technical standards on which this Regulation is based, analysed the potential related costs and benefits and requested the advice of the Securities and Markets Stakeholder Group established in accordance with Article 37 of Regulation (EU) No 1095/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council¹⁰,
