FREEDOM OF ESTABLISHMENT

List provided for in Article 17(4) of the Framework Agreement

INTRODUCTION

Framework Protocol 1 shall apply, unless otherwise provided for in this Annex, where the EU legal acts referred to in this Annex contain notions or refer to procedures which are specific to the EU legal order, such as:

- recitals;
- the addressees of the EU legal acts;
- references to territories or languages of the EU;
- references to rights and obligations of EU Member States or their public entities, undertakings or individuals in relation to each other; and
- references to information and notification procedures.

SECTORAL ADAPTATIONS

The following sectoral adaptations shall apply to San Marino in the light of its specific geographical situation. The following arrangement shall be reviewed every 10 years.

I

Nationals of EU Member States may reside in San Marino only once they have obtained a residence permit from the authorities of San Marino. Such nationals have the right to obtain that residence permit, subject only to the restrictions specified below. No such residence permit shall be necessary for stays of less than 3 months, provided no employment or other permanent economic activity is taken up, nor for persons providing cross-border services in San Marino.

The conditions concerning nationals of EU Member States cannot be more restrictive than those which apply to third-country nationals.

II

1. Long-term residence permits

The number of new residence permits for stays of more than 12 months ("long-term residence permits") available each year to nationals of EU Member States who are engaged in an economic activity in San Marino must be determined in such a way that the annual net increase in the number of such nationals residing in San Marino is no lower than 3 % of the number compared to 1 January of the year before. Residence permits issued to persons naturalised in the course of the year shall be deducted from the basis on which the increase for the next year is calculated. Long-term residence permits issued in excess of the minimum number shall not be counted against the increase due the following year.

2. Short-term residence permits

The authorities of San Marino shall grant residence permits for stays of 12 months or less ("short-term residence permits") to nationals of EU Member States who are engaged in an economic activity. Nationals of EU Member States who are in possession of a short-term residence permit and who are engaged in an economic activity must be included in the quota referred to in point 1. Such nationals may remain in San Marino under the conditions laid down in Directive 2004/38/EC after the expiry of the short-term residence permit, within the limits of the quota under which they entered San Marino. A permit allocated under the quota shall be re-allocated when the person to whom it was allocated changes his or her residence to another country. The number of short-term permits available for the purpose of engaging in an economic activity shall not deviate by more than 10 % from the average of the preceding 5 years.

3. Right of residence for persons not engaged in any economic activity

An additional annual quota of 1 % of the basis referred to in the second sentence of point 1 shall be reserved for nationals of EU Member States wishing to take up residence on the basis of Article 7(1), point (b), of Directive 2004/38/EC. No quota shall apply to nationals of EU Member States who wish to take up residence on the basis of Article 7(1), point (c), of that Directive.

The authorities of San Marino shall grant residence permits in a manner that is non-discriminatory.

III

Family members of nationals of EU Member States residing legally in San Marino shall have the right to obtain a residence permit of the same validity as that of the person on whom they depend. Such family members shall have the right to take up an economic activity, in which case they will be included in the number of residence permits granted to economically active persons in accordance with sectoral adaptation II. However, the conditions in sectoral adaptation II may not be invoked to refuse such family members a residence permit in the event that the annual number of permits available to economically active persons is filled.

IV

The right of permanent residence provided for in Chapter IV of Directive 2004/38/EC shall apply to: (1) nationals of EU Member States who resided in San Marino legally and in accordance with the conditions set out in Directive 2004/38/EC before the application of this Agreement; (2) nationals of EU Member States who are resident in San Marino on the basis of a residence permit granted on the basis of this sectoral adaptation; and (3) nationals of EU Member States residing in San Marino legally and in accordance with the conditions set out in Directive 2004/38/EC who are not covered by points (1) and (2). Nationals of EU Member States who have a right of permanent residence under the conditions laid down in Directive 2004/38/EC shall no longer be counted in the number of valid residence permits.

V

Applicants for a residence permit shall receive a written reply by the end of the second month from the date of submission of the application. Unsuccessful applicants shall have the right to a reasoned refusal in writing. Unsuccessful applicants shall have the same legal remedies as citizens of San Marino as regards administrative decisions.

The right of residence of nationals of EU Member States shall be evidenced by the issuing of a residence document which meets the requirements of Article 6 of Regulation (EU) 2019/1157.

The right of residence of family members of nationals of EU Member States who are not nationals of an EU Member State shall be evidenced by the issuing of a residence card which meets the requirements of Article 7 of Regulation (EU) 2019/1157.

VI

San Marino shall be required to communicate to the EU all the information necessary to verify compliance with this sectoral adaptation.
