Recommendation for a

COUNCIL DECISION

to authorise the Commission to open negotiations on behalf of the European Union for the conclusion of the Fisheries Agreement with the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the Kingdom of Norway

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in particular Article 43 in conjunction with Article 218 paragraphs 3 and 4,

Having regard to the recommendation from the Commission¹,

Whereas,

- (1) After the withdrawal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland (hereafter: United Kingdom) from the European Union a number of fish stocks in the North Sea can no longer be considered as stocks shared bilaterally between the European Union and the Kingdom of Norway only. These stocks occur in Union waters and in the waters under the sovereignty and jurisdiction of the United Kingdom and of the Kingdom of Norway,
- (2) In accordance with Article 63(1) of the United Nations Convention of the Law of the Sea², and considering the overall relationship between the European Union, the United Kingdom and the Kingdom of Norway, it is important to cooperate in securing continued responsible fisheries to ensure the long-term conservation and sustainable exploitation of marine living resources,
- (3) For this purpose, the European Union should seeks to conclude a fisheries agreement with the United Kingdom and the Kingdom of Norway,
- (4) Negotiations should therefore be opened with the United Kingdom and with the Kingdom of Norway, with a view to conclude the fisheries agreement between the European Union and the United Kingdom and the Kingdom of Norway,

ANNEX

DIRECTIVES FOR THE NEGOTIATION OF A FISHERIES AGREEMENT WITH THE UNITED KINGDOM OF GREAT BRITAIN AND NORTHERN IRELAND AND THE KINGDOM OF NORWAY

I. GENERAL CONTEXT AND PURPOSE OF THE FISHERIES AGREEMENT

After the withdrawal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland (hereafter: United Kingdom) from the European Union a number of fish stocks in the North Sea can no longer be considered as stocks shared bilaterally between the European Union and the Kingdom of Norway only. These stocks occur in Union waters and in the waters under sovereignty and jurisdiction of the United Kingdom and of the Kingdom of Norway.

In accordance with Article 63(1) of the United Nations Convention of the Law of the Sea³, the European Union, the United Kingdom and the Kingdom of Norway should agree upon the measures necessary to co-ordinate and ensure the conservation and development of the stocks concerned in the North Sea.

For this purpose, the European Union seeks to conclude a fisheries agreement (the Agreement) with the United Kingdom and the Kingdom of Norway.
