of 10.9.2026

establishing rules related to the procedure for granting the special incentive arrangement for sustainable development and good governance (GSP+) under Regulation (EU) 2026/1395 of the European Parliament and of the Council on applying a generalised scheme of tariff preferences and repealing Regulation (EU) No 978/2012

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

1. CONTEXT OF THE DELEGATED ACT

The European Union (EU) has granted trade preferences to developing countries through the Generalised Scheme of Tariff Preferences (GSP scheme) since 1971. It is part of its common commercial policy, in accordance with the general provisions governing the EU's external action.

The new GSP Regulation (EU) 2026/1395 was adopted on 17 June 2026. It maintains the key features of the previous GSP Regulation (No 978/2012) and updates it where necessary. In order to ensure legal certainty and stability of the new GSP scheme, the related procedural rules should also be similarly maintained and updated where necessary to reflect new elements in the GSP Regulation.

Article 9(1) and Article 10 of the GSP Regulation establish the requirements for the granting of the tariff preferences under the special incentive arrangement for sustainable development and good governance (GSP+). The establishment of procedural rules on the submission of the requests for GSP+ has been conferred by the European Parliament and the Council on to the Commission.

2. CONSULTATIONS PRIOR TO THE ADOPTION OF THE ACT

In line with paragraph 4 of the Common Understanding on delegated acts between the European Parliament, the Council and the European Commission, appropriate and transparent consultations, including at expert level, have been carried out on this delegated act, in particular through meetings of the GSP Expert Group on 10 and 30 June 2026.

3. LEGAL ELEMENTS OF THE DELEGATED ACT

Article 10(7) of the GSP Regulation empowers the Commission to adopt a delegated act to establish rules related to the procedure for granting GSP+ in particular with respect to deadlines and the submission and processing of requests.
