Proposal for a

COUNCIL DECISION

on the financial contributions to be paid by the parties to the European Development Fund to finance that fund specifying the ceiling for 2024, the annual amount for 2023, the amount of the first instalment for 2023 and an indicative and non-binding forecast for the expected annual amounts of contributions for the years 2025 and 2026

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

1. CONTEXT OF THE PROPOSAL

• Reasons for and objectives of the proposal

The proposal covers:

– The ceiling amount of the contributions for 2024;

– The annual amount of the contributions for 2023;

– The amount of the first instalment of the contribution for 2023;

– Non-binding forecast for the expected annual amounts of contributions for the years 2025 and 2026.

The 11th EDF and other EDF funds that are still open (that is to say the Ninth and 10th EDF) are managed under the following set of rules:

(a) the current Partnership Agreement between the members of the African, Caribbean and Pacific ('ACP') Group of States on one side, and the European Community and its Member States on the other side (the 'ACP-EU Partnership Agreement') as last amended[1];

(b) the Internal Agreement between the Representatives of the Governments of the Member States of the European Union, meeting within the Council, on the financing of European Union aid under the multiannual financial framework for the period 2014 to 2020, in accordance with the ACP-EU Partnership Agreement and on the allocation of financial assistance for the Overseas Countries and Territories to which Part Four of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union applies[2] (the 11th EDF 'Internal Agreement');

(c) Council Regulation (EU) 2018/1877 on the Financial Regulation applicable to the 11th European Development Fund[3] (the '11th EDF Financial Regulation').

(d) Decision No 1/2022[4] of the ACP-EU Committee of Ambassadors of 21 June 2022 to amend Decision No 3/2019[5] of the ACP-EU Committee of Ambassadors to adopt transitional measures pursuant to Article 95(4) of the ACP-EU Partnership Agreement to further extend the application of the provisions of the ACP-EU Partnership Agreement until 30 June 2023, or until the entry into force of the new Agreement, or the provisional application between the Union and the ACP States of the new Agreement, whichever comes first;

(e) Council Decision (EU) 2020/2233 concerning the commitment of the funds stemming from reflows under the ACP Investment Facility from operations under the 9th, 10th and 11th European Development Funds[6];

(f) Council Decision (EU) 2022/1223[7] concerning the allocation of funds de-committed from projects under the 10th and 11th European Development Funds for the purpose of financing actions addressing the food security crisis and economic shock in African, Caribbean and Pacific (ACP) countries following Russia's war of aggression against Ukraine.

The documents referred to in points (a) to (f) contain multi-annual commitments by the parties to support the EDF treasury financially. The 11th EDF Financial Regulation provides for regular contributions to be made by the parties to the EDF treasury against pre-determined financial commitments. Regular contributions are triggered by technical Council Decisions that reflect the implementation of financial commitments previously decided.

Some of the headings in the explanatory memorandum are therefore not applicable to regular contribution calls such as this one.

2. LEGAL BASIS, SUBSIDIARITY AND PROPORTIONALITY

• Legal basis

In accordance with Article 19(2) of the 11th EDF Financial Regulation, the Council must decide on this proposal at the latest by 15 November 2022.

Proposal for a

COUNCIL DECISION

on the financial contributions to be paid by the parties to the European Development Fund to finance that fund specifying the ceiling for 2024, the annual amount for 2023, the amount of the first instalment for 2023 and an indicative and non-binding forecast for the expected annual amounts of contributions for the years 2025 and 2026

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union,

Having regard to the Internal Agreement between the Representatives of the Governments of the Member States of the European Union, meeting within the Council, on the financing of European Union aid under the multiannual financial framework for the period 2014 to 2020, in accordance with the ACP-EU Partnership Agreement and on the allocation of financial assistance for the Overseas Countries and Territories to which Part Four of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union applies[8] and in particular Article 7(2) in conjunction with Article 14(3) thereof,

Having regard to the Council Regulation (EU) 2018/1877[9] of 26 November 2018 on the financial regulation applicable to the 11th European Development Fund, and repealing Regulation (EU) 2015/323[10], and in particular Article 19(2) thereof,

Having regard to the proposal from the European Commission,

Whereas:

(1) In accordance with the procedure laid down in Articles 19 to 22, and in particular Article 19(2) , of Council Regulation (EU) 2018/1877, the European Commission is to present a proposal by 15 October 2022 specifying the ceiling amount of the contribution for 2024, the annual amount of the contribution for 2023, the amount of the first instalment of the contribution for 2023 and an indicative, non-binding forecast for the expected annual amounts of contributions for the years 2025 and 2026.

(2) In accordance with Article 46 of Regulation (EU) 2018/1877, the European Investment Bank ('EIB') is to send to the Commission its updated estimates of commitments and payments under the instruments it manages.

(3) Pursuant to Article 20(1) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1877 calls for contributions are to first use up the amounts provided for in previous European Development Funds ('EDF'). Therefore a call for funds pursuant to Regulation (EU) 2018/1877, for the EIB and for the Commission should be made.
