Statement by the Commission The Commission disagrees with the addition of Articles 79(3), 91, 100 and 191(4) TFEU as legal bases for the conclusion of the Framework Agreement with Korea. A similar issue is already pending before the Court of Justice in relation to the Partnership and Cooperation Agreement with the Philippines. Statement by Austria, Romania and Spain Austria, Romania and Spain hold the view that Council decisions in accordance with Article 218 TFEU always concern an agreement in its entirety. A splitting into several decisions which refer to individual articles of an agreement is legally not viable. Statement by the Czech Republic The Czech Republic holds the view that Council decisions adopted in accordance with Article 218 TFEU throughout the process of concluding the so-called mixed agreements should relate to individual agreements in their entirety. A splitting into two decisions, each of them referring to different articles of an agreement, does not seem to be necessary and could lead to cumbersome procedures. The Czech Republic notes that the established practice has been to conclude only one Council decision relating to an agreement as a whole. With respect to the Case C-377/12 European Commission against Council of the European Union, pending before the Court of Justice of the European Union, we consider the modification of this practice as premature.

Statement by the United Kingdom

The United Kingdom considers that, with the exception of Article 207 TFEU, the citation of the specific substantive legal bases in the Council Decisions on conclusion does not indicate the exercise of any exclusive external competence by the EU in relation to any matters covered by these legal bases in respect of this Agreement.

Statement by the Council The Council unanimously endorses the method envisaged by the Commission for the calculation of the United Kingdom correction, which is exposed in detail in the Commission working document as set out in doc. 9858/14. The Council agrees unanimously that the above calculation method fully respects the present Decision, as well as the conclusions of the European Council of 7 and 8 February 2013 and the agreement reached at the European Council of 27 and 28 June 2013.

Statement by Belgium, France, Hungary, Italy, Luxembourg, Poland, Portugal and Spain

The Member States, underwriters of this statement, underline that the preamble of the Decision on the system of own resources of the European Union does not entirely reflect the conclusions of the European Council of 7 and 8 February 2013.

These Member States consider that these conclusions are an important move forward in the negotiations of the own resources legislative package. According to these conclusions, which reflect the common general position of the Member States, no reference to the conclusions of the European Council in Fontainebleau of 1984 was to be made, nor any assessment on the appropriateness of corrections benefitting specific Member States. Therefore, taking into account the profound change of the EU and its budget since 1984, the text of recital 3 of the Decision, which was introduced in the current own resources decision on the basis of the December 2005 European Council conclusions, does not prejudice the forthcoming discussions about the review of the own resources system.

Council Regulation (EU, Euratom) No 608/2014 of 26 May 2014 laying down implementing measures for the system of own resources of the European Union OJ L 168, 07.06.2014, p. 29–38	5600/14	Qualified majority	All Member States in favour
