In document 14166/22 INIT, EP amendment 6 in row 114a should read as follows:

“Member States which do not have seaports and which have no ro-ro passenger ships or craft flying their flag that fall within the scope of this Directive may derogate from the provisions of this Directive, as long as the above-mentioned requirements are fulfilled. Any Member State that intends to avail itself of such derogation shall notify the Commission at the latest on [Please insert a date: date of transposition of the Directive]. Any subsequent change shall also be communicated to the Commission. Such a Member State may not allow ro-ro passenger ships that fall within the scope of the Directive to fly its flag or may not open its national ship register to that ship until that Member State has transposed and implemented this Directive.”
