Subject:	EVALUATION REPORT ON THE NINTH ROUND OF MUTUAL EVALUATIONS - 9th round of Mutual Evaluations on mutual recognition legal instruments in the field of deprivation or restriction of liberty - REPORT ON GREECE

Last paragraph on page 37 of doc. 14170/1/21 REV1 should read as follows:

“The Supreme Court, sitting as a judicial council, rules within 8 days of the lodging of the appeal. Most appeals are rejected for specific reasons (i.e. lack of double criminality or lack of proportionality, or for procedural reasons), but before issuing a refusal, there is occasionally a consultation with the foreign authority, through a direct contact made by the public prosecutor, suggested by the court. There are never direct any contacts between the national court and other courts in the MSs.”
