STATEMENT BY THE FRENCH DELEGATIONDéclaration de la France
à annexer au procès-verbal du Comité spécial agriculture du 20 novembre 2017

La France avait souhaité une plus grande ambition concernant l'utilisation des adjuvants, synergisants et co-formulants dans la production biologique. Elle peut accepter le texte final en considération du fait qu'il sera toujours possible d'interdire au niveau national l'utilisation de certaines substances si celles-ci ne respectent pas les principes et objectifs de la production biologique.

La France demande à la Commission d'assurer le suivi de la mise en œuvre de l'article 9(3) et de son impact sur la production biologique. S'il s'avère que la mise en œuvre de l'article 9(3) deuxième alinéa est de nature à affecter l'intégrité du secteur biologique, la Commission devra proposer au Conseil et au Parlement européen une modification réglementaire appropriée.

Enfin, la France souhaite rappeler qu'elle reste attachée à ce que la mise en œuvre au niveau européen et national du règlement réponde pleinement aux objectifs poursuivis par celui-ci, notamment quant à la robustesse du système de contrôle. Elle rappelle par ailleurs ses déclarations jointes au PV des CSA du 27 février et du 29 mai 2017.

Statement of France

to be annexed to the Summary record of the Special Committee on Agriculture on 20th November

France wished for a more ambitious text regarding the use of safeners, synergists, co-formulants and adjuvants in organic production. France can accept this final draft considering that it will still be possible to prohibit at a national level the use of certain such products if those products do not respect the principles and objectives of the organic production.

France asks the Commission to monitor the implementation of Article 9(3) and its impact on organic production. If it turns out that the implementation of Article 9 (3) is likely to affect the integrity of the organic sector, the Commission shall consider proposing to the Council and the European Parliament an appropriate modification of the Regulation.

Finally, France reiterates its concern for an implementation at a national and European level of the regulation which will fully comply with the objectives of organic production, especially regarding to the control system. France also recalls its previous statements annexed to the Summary records of the Special Committee on Agriculture meetings on 27th February and 29th May 2017.
