of ...

amending Implementing Regulation (EU) No 282/2011 as regards information requirements for certain VAT schemes

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union,

Having regard to Council Directive 2006/112/EC of 28 November 2006 on the common system of value added tax¹, and in particular Article 397 thereof,

Having regard to the proposal from the European Commission,

Whereas:

- (1) For the proper functioning of the deemed-supplier model, for electronic interfaces such as marketplaces, platforms, portals or similar means that facilitate the supply of short-term accommodation rental services or passenger transport services by road, as referred to in Article 28a of Directive 2006/112/EC, it is necessary to specify certain elements of the rule.
- (2) It is necessary to define the term ‘facilitate’ in order to provide taxable persons who facilitate, through the use of an electronic interface such as a marketplace, platform, portal or similar means, the supply of short-term accommodation rental services or passenger transport services by road with legal certainty as to whether the deemed-supplier rule applies to those taxable persons. Certain providers, including those that provide the listing or advertising of such services, should be explicitly excluded from the rule because they do not enter into direct competition with traditional, non-digital sectors.
- (3) Taxable persons who facilitate, through the use of an electronic interface such as a marketplace, platform, portal or similar means, the supply of short-term accommodation rental services or passenger transport services by road should not be held responsible for payment of any value added tax (VAT) due when they act on information provided by the underlying supplier, if those taxable persons can demonstrate that they could not reasonably have known that that information was incorrect.

- (4) For the purpose of determining the place of supply of a facilitation service provided to a non-taxable person through the use of an electronic interface such as a marketplace, platform, portal or similar means, taxable persons should be able to easily identify the status of the recipient of the facilitation service. In order to facilitate such identification and to reduce the administrative burden on taxable persons, a taxable person should regard the recipient of the facilitation service as a taxable person where an identification number for VAT purposes is provided and as a non-taxable person where no such number is provided, unless that taxable person has information to the contrary.
- (5) It should be clarified that, with regard to short-term accommodation rental services and passenger transport services by road, the special scheme for small enterprises provided for in Directive 2006/112/EC can apply only to the taxable person deemed to have supplied those services.
- (6) A one-stop shop ('OSS') simplification scheme for taxable persons making cross-border transfers of certain own goods was introduced into Directive 2006/112/EC by Council Directive (EU) 2025/...²⁺. In order to implement that specific scheme in the overall framework of the VAT special schemes provided for in Title XII, Chapter 6, of Directive 2006/112/EC, specific rules pertaining to VAT identification, conditions for exclusion, VAT returns and record-keeping obligations should be set out in Council Implementing Regulation (EU) No 282/2011³.

² Council Directive (EU) 2025/... of ... amending Directive 2006/112/EC as regards VAT rules for the digital age (OJ L, ..., , ELI: ...).

⁺ OJ: Please insert in the text the number of the Directive contained in document ST 15342/24 and complete the corresponding footnote.

- (7) As the OSS simplification scheme introduced is comprehensive and encompasses cross-border movements of goods covered by call-off stock arrangements, those arrangements have been removed from Directive 2006/112/EC. The implementing provisions pertaining to call-off stock arrangements are no longer required and should therefore be deleted from Implementing Regulation (EU) No 282/2011.
- (8) Under Article 242a of Directive 2006/112/EC, taxable persons who facilitate, through the use of an electronic interface such as a marketplace, platform, portal or similar means, the supply of goods or services to a non-taxable person within the Community in accordance with Title V of that Directive are obliged to keep records of those supplies. However, information is required only in respect of supplies of goods or services that are facilitated by the electronic interface and is not required in cases where the deemed-supplier rule applies. In order to support the fight against VAT fraud, such information relating to underlying suppliers should also be included in the mandatory set of information to be kept by deemed suppliers who are registered to use the special OSS simplification schemes. Those additional data elements should allow for a comparison of information reported by platforms with payment data on cross-border transactions available in the central electronic system of payment information established pursuant to Chapter V, Section 2, of Council Regulation (EU) No 904/2010⁴, which entered into force on 1 January 2024.

⁴ Council Regulation (EU) No 904/2010 of 7 October 2010 on administrative cooperation and combating fraud in the field of value added tax (OJ L 268, 12.10.2010, p. 1, ELI: <http://data.europa.eu/eli/reg/2010/904/oj>).

- (9) Following the introduction into Directive 2006/112/EC of an obligation for taxable persons transferring goods of another taxable person to inform the owner of the goods that their goods are being or will be transferred, it should be clarified which specific data are to be communicated to the owner of the goods.
- (10) The elements of Directive 2006/112/EC which require amendments to Implementing Regulation (EU) No 282/2011 are to be transposed by Member States into national legislation by 30 June 2028. Therefore, it is necessary for the amendments to that Regulation to be applicable from 1 July 2028.
- (11) Implementing Regulation (EU) No 282/2011 should therefore be amended accordingly,

HAS ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

Article 1

Implementing Regulation (EU) No 282/2011 is amended as follows:

(1) the following articles are inserted:

2. A taxable person shall not be considered to facilitate a supply of short-term accommodation rental services or passenger transport services by road where all of the following conditions are met:
 - (a) that taxable person does not set, either directly or indirectly, any of the terms and conditions under which the supply is made;
 - (b) that taxable person is not, either directly or indirectly, involved in authorising the charge to the customer in respect of the payments made;
 - (c) that taxable person is not, either directly or indirectly, involved in the provision of that supply.

3. Article 28a of Directive 2006/112/EC shall not apply to a taxable person who only provides one or more of the following:

 - (b) the listing or advertising of short-term accommodation rental services or passenger transport services by road;
 - (c) the redirecting or transferring of customers to other electronic interfaces where short-term accommodation rental services or passenger transport services by road are offered for sale, without any further intervention in the supply.

For the application of Article 28a(1) of Directive 2006/112/EC, the taxable person supplying the services shall provide their identification number for VAT purposes or the identification number allocated to them in accordance with Article 362 or 369d of that Directive, as referred to in Article 28a(1), point (a), of that Directive, and the declaration referred to in Article 28a(1), point (b), of that Directive to the taxable person facilitating the supply only once, unless there is a change in their activity as a taxable person.

Where a passenger transport service by road takes place in more than one Member State, the taxable person supplying the service shall provide to the taxable person facilitating the supply the identification number for VAT purposes allocated to them by each Member State in which the transport takes place, or the identification number allocated to them in accordance with Article 362 or 369d of Directive 2006/112/EC.

Article 9d

For the application of Article 28a of Directive 2006/112/EC, where, on the basis of information provided by the person supplying the underlying services, a taxable person does not act as the deemed supplier, that taxable person shall not be held liable for the payment of the VAT due where it is subsequently found that that taxable person should have been deemed to be the supplier, provided that all of the following conditions are met:

- (a) the taxable person is dependent on information provided by the supplier of the services;
- (b) the information provided by the supplier of the services is erroneous;
- (c) the taxable person can prove that they did not and could not reasonably have known that that information was erroneous.

Article 9e

For the purpose of determining the place of supply of a facilitation service as referred to in Article 46a of Directive 2006/112/EC, the taxable person shall regard the person to whom that service was supplied as a non-taxable person where that person to whom that service was supplied does not provide a VAT identification number, unless that taxable person has information to the contrary.

Article 9g

Where a taxable person is deemed to have received and supplied the services referred to in Article 28a of Directive 2006/112/EC themselves, the supply of those services may be subject to the special scheme provided for in Title XII, Chapter 1, of that Directive if that taxable person meets the conditions for that special scheme.

The supply of the services referred to in Article 28a of Directive 2006/112/EC provided to a taxable person who is deemed to have received and supplied those services themselves shall not be subject to the special scheme provided for in Title XII, Chapter 1, of that Directive.’;

(4) in Article 23, paragraph 2 is replaced by the following:

‘2. Where, in accordance with Article 54(1), second subparagraph, and Articles 58 and 59 of Directive 2006/112/EC, a supply of services is taxable at the place where the customer is established, or, in the absence of an establishment, where the customer has their permanent address or usually resides, the supplier shall establish that place based on factual information provided by the customer, and verify that information by normal commercial security measures such as those relating to identity or payment checks.’;

(5) in Article 24b, first paragraph, the introductory wording is replaced by the following:

‘For the application of Article 54(1), second subparagraph, or Article 58 of Directive 2006/112/EC, where the activities are streamed or otherwise made virtually available to a non-taxable person, or where telecommunications, broadcasting or electronically supplied services are supplied to a non-taxable person.’;

 - (c) changes the Member State of identification in accordance with Article 57f.

Any corrections to the final VAT return and previous VAT returns arising after the submission of the final VAT return shall be discharged directly with the tax authorities of the Member State of consumption concerned or the Member States from and to which the goods were dispatched or transported.

2. In respect of each taxable person on whose behalf an intermediary is acting, the intermediary shall submit the final VAT returns and any late submissions of previous VAT returns, and the corresponding payments, where relevant, to the Member State which was the Member State of identification at the time of deletion or change where that intermediary:

(b) changes the Member State of identification in accordance with Article 57f(2).

Any corrections to the final VAT return and previous VAT returns arising after the submission of the final VAT return shall be discharged directly with the tax authorities of the Member State of consumption concerned or the Member States from and to which the goods were dispatched or transported.’;

(27) Article 63c is amended as follows:
