With a view to the meeting of the Visa Working Party of 19 February 2024, delegations will find in the Annex the revised Presidency compromise proposal on the abovementioned proposal.

Old changes compared to the Commission's proposal are marked in underlined for additions and ~~striketrough~~ for deletions. New changes are marked in bold underlined for addition and ~~bold~~ ~~striketrough~~ for deletions.

Proposal for a

REGULATION OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL
amending Regulation (EU) 2018/1806 as regards the revision of the suspension mechanism

THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in particular Article 77(2), point (a) thereof,

Having regard to the proposal from the European Commission,

After transmission of the draft legislative act to the national parliaments,

Acting in accordance with the ordinary legislative procedure,

Whereas:

- (1) Regulation (EU) 2018/1806 of the European Parliament and of the Council¹ lists the third countries whose nationals are to be in possession of visas when crossing the external borders of the Member States and those whose nationals are exempt from that requirement for stays of no more than 90 days in any 180-day period.
- (2) The mechanism for the temporary suspension of the exemption from the visa requirement for the nationals of a third country listed in Annex II to Regulation (EU) 2018/1806 ('the suspension mechanism') should be strengthened for the Union to have at its disposal a more efficient safeguard aimed at preventing a wider range of irregular migration, public policy and security risks arising from the third countries listed in that Annex II, as well as the abuse of the visa exemption through the operation of investor citizenship schemes by those third countries.

¹ Regulation (EU) 2018/1806 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 14 November 2018 listing the third countries whose nationals must be in possession of visas when crossing the external borders and those whose nationals are exempt from that requirement (OJ L 303 28.11.2018, p. 39).

- (3) In particular, the use of the suspension mechanism should be facilitated by broadening the possible grounds for suspension, adapting the relevant thresholds and procedures, and strengthening the Commission's monitoring and reporting obligations.
- (4) The Union has concluded a number of agreements on the short-stay visa waiver with countries listed in Annex II to Regulation (EU) 2018/1806 ~~which may include different grounds for suspension or different procedures than the ones set out in the suspension mechanism, and may conclude further of those agreements in the future. As the Union respects international agreements and, thus, is bound by these agreements, the relevant different provisions set out in those agreements should be applied instead of the relevant provisions of the suspension mechanism this Regulation should apply without prejudice to the relevant provisions on grounds for suspension and procedures set out in agreements on short stay visa waiver between the Union and a third country listed in Annex II.~~ In case such an agreement has been concluded and where the Union deems necessary to suspend the visa-free regime for the third country concerned, the agreement should be suspended through the adoption of a Council decision. Additionally, it will be necessary to provide for the suspension of the exemption at the level of Union law, by means of the suspension mechanism.
- (4a) Other grounds amounting to risks or threats to the public policy or internal security, such as terrorist offences and activities of organised criminal groups, should also be taken into account. Among these other grounds document security should also be given special consideration. The suspension mechanism may be triggered in case of a significant risk or imminent threat to the public policy or internal security of Member states. When assessing said risk or imminent threat, terrorist offences and activities of organised criminal groups should be taken into account.
- (5) In its conclusions of 22 October 2021, the European Council rejected any attempts by third countries to instrumentalise migrants for political purposes and invited the Commission to propose any necessary changes to the Union's legal framework and concrete measures to ensure an immediate and appropriate response to hybrid threats in line with Union law and international obligations. Therefore, it should be possible to trigger the suspension mechanism in case of risks or threats to the public policy or internal security of the Member States arising from hybrid threats such as situations of state-sponsored instrumentalisation of migrants aimed at destabilising or undermining society and key institutions.
- (5a) Special consideration should also be paid to deficiencies in document security, as it is essential that the travel and (breeder) identity documents issued by countries listed in Annex II for travel purposes to the territory of Member States can be fully trusted and not easily falsified or counterfeited.

- (6) Investor citizenship schemes operated by third countries listed in Annex II to Regulation (EU) 2018/1806 allow visa-free travel to the Union to third-country nationals that would otherwise be visa required. Under an investor citizenship scheme, citizenship is granted in return for pre-determined payments or investments without any genuine link to the third country concerned. While the Union respects the right of sovereign countries to decide on their own naturalisation procedures, visa-free third countries should be deterred from using visa-free access to the Union as a tool for leveraging individual investment in return for their citizenship. To prevent visa-free access to the Union being used for this purpose, it should be possible to suspend the visa exemption for a third country which chooses to operate such investor citizenship schemes, whereby citizenship is granted without any genuine link to the third country concerned.
- (7) Where the visa policy of a third country listed in Annex II to Regulation (EU) 2018/1806 is not aligned with the visa policy of the Union as regards the list of third countries whose nationals are required to be in possession of a visa when crossing the external borders of the Member States, this could result in irregular migration to the Union, in particular where the concerned third country is in close geographic proximity to the Union. Therefore, it should be possible to trigger the suspension mechanism where, following an assessment, the Commission concludes that there is a risk of a substantial increase in the number of third-country nationals, other than nationals of that third country, who arrive legally in the territory of that third country and then irregularly enter the territory of the Member States.
- (7a) Regulation (EU) 2018/1806 determines the third countries whose nationals are subject to, or exempt from, the visa requirement. Some of the criteria used for the purpose of exemption from the visa requirement are reflected in the grounds for suspension in other provisions of that regulation, thereby ensuring a link between the criteria for granting visa exemption and the grounds for suspension. The revised suspension mechanism should therefore also provide for the possibility to suspend the visa-free regime in case of a significant and abrupt deterioration in the Union's external relations with a third country listed in Annex II, in particular when it relates to human rights and fundamental freedoms.
- (7b) The short-stay visa waiver agreements concluded with countries listed in Annex II to Regulation (EU) 2018/1806 may include different grounds for suspension than the ones set out in the suspension mechanism. Consequently, the Union should be able to use these grounds to suspend the visa-free regime, also at the level of Union law. However, the use of the grounds for suspension set out in short-stay visa waiver agreements should be limited to the scope of application of such agreements.

- (8) The thresholds to trigger the suspension mechanism in case of a substantial increase in the number of nationals of a third country refused entry or found to be staying in the Member State's territory without a right to do so, or in the number of asylum applications from the nationals of that third country for which the recognition rate is low, or in the number of serious criminal offences linked to the nationals of that third country, should be subject to a case-by-case assessment by the Commission. In particular, the Commission should be able to assess whether there are specific circumstances, in the cases notified by Member States or under its own analysis, which would justify the application of lower or higher thresholds than those indicated in relevant provisions of Regulation (EU) 2018/1806. The Commission's assessment should take into account, for example, the number of unauthorised crossings of the external borders of the Member States, unfounded asylum applications or criminal offences in proportion to the number and size of Member States affected and the impact of those numbers on the overall migratory situation, functioning of the asylum systems or internal security of the Member States affected, as well as actions taken by the third country concerned to remedy the situation.
- (9) For the purpose of notifying to the Commission the circumstances that may amount to a ground for suspension, Member States should be able to take into account reference periods longer than two months in order to identify not only sudden changes in the relevant situation, but also longer-term trends that may justify the use of the visa suspension mechanism.
- (10) Whenever it considers it necessary, or upon request by the European Parliament or by the Council, the Commission should report on the outcome of its systematic monitoring of the visa-free regimes with all the third countries listed in Annex II to Regulation (EU) 2018/1806, on the basis, inter alia, of data from EU IT systems, such as the EES and ETIAS, and agencies. The report should focus on those third countries which, according to the Commission's analysis, present specific problems that, if not addressed, may lead to trigger the suspension mechanism. In particular, the Commission should consider reporting on countries which have been newly listed in Annex II without undergoing a visa liberalisation dialogue, where it considers it necessary and in particular in the first years following the entry into force of the visa exemption for those countries.
- (11) Where a decision to temporarily suspend the visa exemption for a third country has been taken, there should be an adequate timeframe for the enhanced dialogue between the Commission and the concerned third country aimed at remedying the circumstances that led to the suspension. For this purpose, the duration of the temporary suspension decided by a Commission implementing act should be 12 months in a first phase, with a possibility to extend it by a further 24 months with a delegated act in a second phase. Where no solution is found before the end of the period of validity of the delegated act and the Commission presents a legislative proposal to transfer the concerned third country from Annex II to Annex I of Regulation (EU) 2018/1806, the Commission should adopt a delegated act extending the temporary suspension until the entry into force of the adopted proposal.

- (12) ~~The Commission should adopt immediately applicable implementing acts where, in duly justified cases related to the triggering of the suspension mechanism, imperative grounds of urgency require expedited action, in particular where the urgency of the matter requires it, for example to prevent any abuse of visa-free travel causing a mass influx of third-country nationals arriving irregularly in the territory of the Member States or a serious damage to the public policy or internal security of Member States, the Commission should adopt implementing acts in accordance with Article 5 in conjunction with Article 3(3) and (5) of Regulation (EU) 182/2011. Such provisions allow, in particular, to impose shorter time limits to the competent committee to deliver its opinion.~~

~~Imperative grounds of urgency could require expedited action in duly justified cases, in particular to prevent any abuse of visa-free travel causing a mass influx of third-country nationals arriving irregularly in the territory of the Member States or a serious damage to the public policy or internal security of Member States. Taking into account the politically sensitive nature of the suspension for the Member States and the Union itself, in particular for their external relations, implementing powers to adopt such expedited action should be conferred to the Council to be exercised without delay, acting on a proposal of the Commission.~~

- (13) The temporary suspension should be lifted at any time where the circumstances that led to the suspension are remedied before the end of the period of the suspension. To this end, the Commission should adopt, respectively, an implementing act before the end of the period of suspension set out in the relevant implementing act, and a delegated act before the end of the period of suspension set out in the relevant delegated act. Where the temporary suspension is introduced by a Council implementing decision, the Commission should make a proposal for a Council implementing act to lift the temporary suspension.

Article 1

Regulation (EU) 2018/1806 is amended as follows:

(1) Article 8 is replaced by the following:

“Article 8 Suspension mechanism

1. The suspension mechanism may be triggered by a notification of a Member State to the Commission in accordance with Article 8b, or on the basis of the Commission’s own analysis in accordance with Article 8c.

2. In cases where an agreement on the short-stay visa waiver between the Union and a third country listed in Annex II has been concluded, ~~includes provisions on different grounds or procedures for suspension, those provisions shall be applied instead of Articles 8a, 8e and 8f of this Regulation shall apply without prejudice to the relevant provisions on grounds for suspension and procedures set out in the agreements on short-stay visa waiver between the Union and a third country listed in Annex II.~~

(2) the following Articles are inserted:

(ii) hybrid threats;

4. For the purposes of paragraph 1, point (c), a decrease in cooperation on readmission with a third country listed in Annex II shall mean a substantial increase, substantiated by adequate data, in the refusal rate of readmission applications submitted by a Member State to that third country for its own nationals or, where a readmission agreement concluded between the Union or that Member State and that third country so provides, for third-country nationals having transited through that third country.

Article 8c
The Commission's monitoring and own analysis

1. The Commission shall monitor the existence of the grounds for suspension referred to in Article 8a(1) on a regular basis.

With particular regard to the third countries which have been listed in Annex II as a result of the successful conclusion of a visa liberalisation dialogue conducted between the Union and that third country, the Commission shall also monitor the continuous compliance with the specific requirements, which are based on Article 1 and which were used to assess the appropriateness of granting visa liberalisation.

2. Where the Commission, taking into account the relevant data, reports and statistics, has concrete and reliable information on the existence of any of the grounds referred to in Article 8a(1) it shall inform the European Parliament and the Council of its analysis, and Article 8e and Article 8f shall apply.

Article 8d
Reporting

1. The Commission shall report to the European Parliament and to the Council on the monitoring conducted in accordance with Article 8c(1) with regard to the third countries which have been listed in Annex II as a result of the successful conclusion of a visa liberalisation dialogue conducted between the Union and that third country, at least once a year and for a period of seven years after the date of entry into force of visa liberalisation for those third countries, ~~and thereafter~~ After that period ~~whenever the Commission shall report whenever it considers it to be necessary, or upon request by the European Parliament or by the Council.~~ The report shall focus on the third countries which the Commission considers, based on concrete and reliable information, as no longer complying with certain specific requirements, which are based on Article 1 and which were used to assess the appropriateness of granting visa liberalisation.
2. The Commission shall also report, whenever it considers it to be necessary, or upon request by the European Parliament or by the Council, on third countries listed in Annex II other than the ones referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article.

Article 8e
Implementing acts

1. Where, on the basis of the examination referred to in Article 8b(4), or the analysis referred to in Article 8c(2), and taking into account the consequences of a suspension of the exemption from the visa requirement for the overall external relations of the Union and its Member States with the third country concerned, including the political context or economic matters at stake, while working in close cooperation with that third country to find alternative long-term solutions, the Commission decides that action is needed, or where a simple majority of Member States have notified the Commission of the existence of circumstances referred to in Article 8a(1), points (a), (b), (c), ~~(d)~~, ~~(i)~~ (e), ~~or~~ (f), (h) or (i), the Commission shall adopt an implementing act temporarily suspending the exemption from the visa requirement for the nationals of the third country concerned for a period of 12 months.

The suspension shall apply to certain categories of nationals of the third country concerned, by reference to the relevant types of travel documents and, where appropriate, to additional criteria. When deciding to which categories the suspension is to apply, the Commission shall, based on the information available, include categories that are broad enough in order to efficiently contribute to remedying the circumstances that led to the suspension, while respecting the principle of proportionality and non-discrimination in line with Article 21 of the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union. That implementing act shall fix the date on which the suspension of the exemption from the visa requirement is to take effect.

The Commission shall ~~adopt~~ submit the draft implementing act referred to in the first subparagraph to the Committee referred to in Article 11(1) after receiving the notification referred to in Article 8b(1a) and

- (a) within one month of:
 - (ai) receiving the notification referred to in Article 8b(1);
 - (bii) informing the European Parliament and the Council of its analysis referred to in Article 8c(2); or
 - (eiii) receiving the notification from a simple majority of Member States of the existence of grounds referred to in Article 8a(1), points (a), (b), (c), ~~or~~ (d)(i), (e), ~~or~~ (f), (h) or (i);
- (b) within two months of receiving the notification by a Member State referred to in Article 8b(1a).

The implementing acts referred to in the first subparagraph shall be adopted in accordance with the examination procedure referred to in Article 11(2).

2. On duly justified imperative grounds of urgency, the Commission shall adopt immediately applicable implementing acts in accordance with the procedure referred to in Article 11(4), temporarily suspending the exemption from the visa requirement for the nationals of the third country concerned for a period of 12 months. By derogation to paragraph 1, Article 8b and Article 8c(2), the following provision applies in duly justified cases where the urgency of the matter requires it.

Where the Commission has concrete and reliable information on the existence of any of the grounds referred to in Article 8a(1) and decides that swift action is needed, the Commission shall adopt an implementing act temporarily suspending the exemption from the visa requirement for all or certain categories of nationals of the third country concerned for a period of 12 months. That implementing act shall fix the date on which the suspension of the exemption from the visa requirement is to take effect.

The implementing acts referred to in the second subparagraph shall be adopted in accordance with the examination procedure referred to in Article 11(2). The chair of the committee provided for in Article 11(1) shall make use of the exceptions provided for in Article 3(3) and (5), second subparagraph of Regulation (EU) 182/2011.

- 3~~2~~. During the period of suspension, the Commission shall establish an enhanced dialogue with the third country concerned with a view to remedying the circumstances in question.
- 4~~3~~. Where the circumstances that led to the temporary suspension of the exemption from the visa requirement are remedied before the end of the period of validity of the implementing acts adopted pursuant to paragraphs 1 and ~~1a~~ 2, the Commission shall adopt an implementing act to lift the temporary suspension in accordance with the examination procedure referred to in Article 11(2).
- ~~4. Where imperative grounds of urgency require expedited action, implementing powers shall be conferred on the Council. The Commission, according to Commission's own analysis, or after receiving a notification from a simple majority of Member States, shall submit within one week a proposal for a Council implementing act temporarily suspending the exemption from the visa requirement for the nationals of the third country concerned for a period of 12 months, and the Council shall decide on it without delay.~~
- ~~5. Where the circumstances that led to the temporary suspension of the exemption from the visa requirement are remedied before the end of the period of validity of the implementing act adopted pursuant to paragraph 4, the Commission shall make a proposal for a Council implementing act to lift the temporary suspension.~~

Article 8f
Delegated acts

1. Where the grounds referred to in Article 8a persist, the Commission shall adopt, at the latest two months before the expiry of the 12-month period referred to in Article 8e(1) and (1a 4), a delegated act in accordance with Article 10, amending Annex II to temporarily suspend the application of that Annex for a period of 24 months for all nationals of the third country concerned. That amendment shall be made by inserting a footnote next to the name of the third country in question, indicating that the exemption from the visa requirement is suspended with regard to that third country and specifying the period of that suspension. The delegated act shall take effect from the date of expiry of the implementing act referred to in Article 8e(1) and (1a 4).
2. Without prejudice to the application of Article 6, during the period of suspension, the nationals of the third country concerned shall be required to be in possession of a visa when crossing the external borders of the Member States.
