Subject:	Proposal for a Regulation on the European Union Agency for Criminal Justice Cooperation (Eurojust) [First reading] - Partial General approach

I. INTRODUCTION

1. On 17 July 2013 the Commission presented a proposal for a Regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council on the European Union Agency for Criminal Justice Cooperation.
2. The United Kingdom and Ireland have not notified their wish to take part in the adoption and application of the proposed Regulation as provided under Article 3 of the Protocol on the position of the United Kingdom and Ireland in respect of the area of freedom, security and justice, annexed to the Treaty on European Union and to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union.

3. In accordance with Articles 1 and 2 of the Protocol on the position of Denmark, annexed to the Treaty on European Union and to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, Denmark does not take part in the adoption of the proposed Regulation and will not be bound by it or subject to its application.

4. The aim of the Commission's proposal is to increase Eurojust's efficiency by establishing a new governance model. It also aims to improve its operational effectiveness through homogeneously defining the powers and status of National Members.

5. The proposed Regulation is subject to the ordinary legislative procedure. The European Parliament has yet to adopt its position on the proposal.

6. The European Data Protection Supervisor delivered his opinion on the Commission proposal on 5 March 2014.

II. STATE OF PLAY

7. The Working Party on Cooperation in Criminal Matters (COPEN) started examining the text at its meeting on 19 September 2013 under the LT Presidency with a general exchange of views on each Chapter. The various Chapters of the draft Regulation were then examined by the COPEN article by article under the LT, EL and IT Presidencies, followed by Presidency compromise proposals based on the written contributions of delegations, the outcome of COPEN meetings and the consultations with various stakeholders including Eurojust. In total 16 meeting days were dedicated to the examination of the text.

8. During the Hellenic Presidency, Ministers endorsed an alternative governance model which is designed to allow the College to focus primarily on operational matters by designating the preparation of all non-operational matters to a new Executive Board. This model was further developed during the Italian Presidency with a view to reaching agreement on this model and other key parts of the text.

9. In this regard, the Presidency has prepared a revised text on Chapters I-III and V-IX with the exception of the provisions relating to the European Public Prosecutor's Office (EPPO) and Data Protection to form a Partial General Approach of the Council.
10. Chapter IV on Data Protection and the provisions dealing with confidentiality and security rules on classified and non-classified sensitive information (Articles 59 and 62 respectively) are also excluded from the text of the partial general approach largely because the draft Regulation of the European Parliament and the Council on the European Union for Police Cooperation (Europol) has yet to be agreed and is of relevance to the Eurojust proposal.
11. The decision not to include the provisions relating to the EPPO was taken as the proposal on the Regulation for the establishment of the EPPO has not been sufficiently advanced to determine the exact nature of the future relationship with Eurojust.
12. These issues and the remaining Recitals will be further negotiated by COPEN in the context of developments with the draft Regulations on Europol and EPPO as well as the data protection package.
13. The changes in the text of the draft Regulation compared to the Commission's proposal are marked in bold italics and ~~strike through~~. Deleted text is marked (...) Text outside the scope of the Partial General Approach is marked in [...] with a corresponding footnote.
14. At Coreper on 26 November 2014 a number of general and specific scrutiny reservations were lifted. Remaining reservations are indicated in footnotes.

III. CONCLUSION

15. The text of the partial general approach was examined by Coreper on the 26th November. The Presidency now invites the Council to agree the text of the partial general approach as contained in the Annex.
