36. Proposal for a Directive of the European Parliament and of the Council amending Directive 2009/65/EC on the coordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to undertakings for collective investment in transferable securities (UCITS) as regards depositary functions, remuneration policies and sanctions (UCITS V) (First reading)

17094/13 EF 248 ECOFIN 1094 CODEC 2784 SURE 25

17095/13 EF 249 ECOFIN 1095 CODEC 2785

"Exemption of central securities depositaries from sub-custody rules

The Review of UCITS directive (UCITS V) represents a very important piece of legislation complementing the Alternative Investment Managers Directive (AIFMD). UCITS V cannot be seen in isolation and we should very carefully scrutinize the interplay between UCITS V, AIFMD and currently negotiated the Draft Regulation on Central Securities Depositaries (CSDR).

For reasons expressed during negotiations the Czech Republic is concerned regarding the compromise text of Recital 16 of UCITS V dealing with the exemption of central securities depositaries from sub-custody rules. We expect that this Recital can be revisited during the negotiations with the European Parliament in order to achieve a more appropriate solution.

It is essential to align the wording of the Recital 16 of UCITS V with the wording of the complementary Recital 41 in AIFMD to ensure legal consistency across different pieces of legislation governing collective investment schemes. Any other approach would put UCITS into an enormous disadvantage to the detriment of UCITS investors because of significant restrictions on UCITS investments.

Concentration rules

According to the UCITS Directive, the limits on investments of UCITS funds are calculated as a percentage of their assets (see for example Articles 52 to 55, 58 and 83). In July 2012, ESMA has published an answer regarding Article 54 (ESMA/2012/429, question 3), claiming that the limits should be calculated as a percentage of net assets (net asset value). The Czech Republic considers it crucial to ensure a single interpretation of the UCITS Directive and a consistency between the interpretation and the wording of the UCITS Directive. Although this issue is not dealt with in the current proposal, we would like to discuss it during the trilogues negotiations with the European Parliament."

PL and NL made also a statement on the above mentioned item (UCITS) :

"Despite the acceptance of the proposed approach, Poland and the Netherlands remain concerned with the provisions relating to entities permitted to act as UCITS depositaries. In the opinion of Poland and the Netherlands it is important that in addition to banks and investment firms, other entities are entitled to act as UCITS depositaries under certain conditions. We consider that introducing restrictions based on CRD eligibility criteria is not an appropriate approach and could significantly limit the number of the UCITS depositaries. Harmonisation of the eligibility criteria of the UCITS depositary should be based on the operational risk and liability constraints associated with depositary activities. In the opinion of the Netherlands and Poland any institution which is subject to prudential regulation and ongoing supervision and were appointed as a depositary before entry into force of UCITS V should be able to act as a depositary for a UCITS fund.

Poland and the Netherlands expect that this subject can be revisited during the negotiations with the European Parliament to achieve a more effective and harmonised regime."

4. Proposal for a Directive of the European Parliament and of the Council on the freezing and confiscation of proceeds of crime in the European Union (First reading)

- Approval of the final compromise text
16861/13 DROIPEN 151 COPEN 217 CODEC 2716

The Committee examined the final compromise text of the draft Directive and the two accompanying declarations on the basis of document 16861/13 + COR 1 + ADD 1. A very large majority of Member States indicated that they could accept the texts as provisionally agreed; the PL delegation, however, stated that it would vote against this package, since in Article 3(2) of the Directive the criterion of the "seriousness" of the criminal offences had been deleted. The Presidency concluded that it had a mandate to inform the European Parliament by the habitual letter that the Council approves the final compromise text, including the two declarations.

The IT delegation requested that the declarations be published in the Official Journal, in order to ensure greater visibility, but there was no support for this request by other delegations. The Chair therefore concluded that the declarations would, as usual, be inserted in the minutes of the Council meeting at which the Directive will be finally adopted, but that they will not be published in the Official Journal.

5. Initiative of the Kingdom of Belgium, the Republic of Bulgaria, the Republic of Estonia, the Kingdom of Spain, the Republic of Austria, the Republic of Slovenia and the Kingdom of Sweden for a Directive of the European Parliament and of the Council regarding the European Investigation Order in criminal matters (First reading)

- Approval of the final compromise text
16674/13 COPEN 214 EUROJUST 128 EJM 71 CODEC 2683

The Committee confirmed the agreement reached by the Presidency with the European Parliament at the last trilogue on 26 November 2013 as set out in 16674/13 and mandated the Chairman of the Committee to inform the Chairman of the European Parliament LIBE Committee, by letter that, should the European Parliament adopt the amendments to the Commission proposal in the exact form, the Council would adopt the proposal thus amended in order to reach agreement at first reading.

The UK delegation entered a parliamentary scrutiny reservation.

The DK delegation stated that with the current wording of the text indicating that the EEW is replaced in relation to all MS which participated in the adoption of the EIO, the obligations of the EEW would remain applicable for DK but DK would have no one to cooperate with, which is an absurd situation and legally unclear.

The UK delegation said that the implications of the EEW for DK and IE needed further discussion and IE added that if IE would not opt in, which it is now considering doing, there were more solutions than Article 4a on inoperability in Protocol 21.

The CZ delegation would have preferred seeing the specific provisions to be replaced set out in an Annex and the AT delegation meant that to avoid legal difficulties it would have been better to say "repeal" and not "replace" in Article 29.2.

= Item 20.1 Proposed Technical Consultation on Low Levels of Genetically Modified Crops in International Food and Feed Trade

17233/13 AGRI 810 FAO 49

The Committee reached consensus with the Commission on the issue of competence and voting rights for item 20.1 of the FAO Council agenda namely "EU competence and EU vote on substance and Shared competence and Member State vote on procedural questions" on the understanding that this consensus was specific to this issue and did not constitute a precedent.

Moreover the Committee took note of the intention of the German delegation to submit the following statement for inclusion in the minutes of this meeting.

"The decision only refers to this specific point (TOP 20.1, 148th session of the FAO Council) and does not set any precedent for future decisions. DEU still considers the regulation of genetic modified organisms as falling under shared competence, which partly remains with Member States, since the area is not fully covered by Union law (e.g. competence of MS for coexistence and experimental releases)."

Several delegations joined the German statement : UK, AT, FR, BU.
