Subject:	Implementation of Council Framework Decision 2009/829/JHA of 23 October 2009 on the application, between Member States of the European Union, of the principle of mutual recognition to decisions on supervision measures as an alternative to provisional detention - Information provided to the General Secretariat

Delegations will find attached revised information about the state of play concerning the implementation of Council Framework Decision 2009/829/JHA of 23 October 2009 on the application, between Member States of the European Union, of the principle of mutual recognition to decisions on supervision measures as an alternative to provisional detention (OJ L 294, 11 November 2009, p. 20).

The information is based on notifications by Member States to the Council General Secretariat, to which reference is made in the last column.

In accordance with its Article 27(1), the Framework Decision should have been implemented by 1 December 2012.

According to the information received so far, 23 Member States have implemented the Framework Decision (BG, CZ, DK, DE, EL, ES, EE, FR, HR, IT, CY, LV, LT, LU, HU, NL, AT, PL, RO, SI, SK, FI and SE) and have made the necessary notifications/declarations.¹ The UK has also implemented the Framework Decision.

The information in the table is a summary of the notified information: delegations are invited to consult the documents referred to in the last column in order to obtain more detailed information.

The information provided in the table is up-to-date as at 21 February 2020. Any comments or suggestions for improvement should be sent to steven.cras@consilium.europa.eu

Please note that all information relating to the implementation of the Framework Decision can also be found on the website of the European Judicial Network (EJN):
