Subject:	Proposal for a REGULATION OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL on the marketing and use of explosives precursors, amending Annex XVII to Regulation (EC) No 1907/2006 and repealing Regulation (EU) No 98/2013 on the marketing and use of explosives precursors - Analysis of the final compromise text with a view to agreement

I. INTRODUCTION

1. On 25 April 2018, the Commission submitted the above-mentioned proposal for a Regulation to the European Parliament and the Council¹. The proposal is based on Article 114 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (TFEU).

2. The Regulation aims to harmonise rules concerning the making available, introduction, possession and use of substances or mixtures that could be misused for the illicit manufacture of explosives, with a view to limiting their availability to the general public, and provides for appropriate reporting of suspicious transactions throughout the supply chain.
3. The European Economic and Social Committee provided its opinion on the proposal on 11 July 2018².
4. On 10 December 2018, the European Parliament Committee on Civil Liberties, Justice and Home Affairs (LIBE) voted on its report³.
5. On 12 December 2018, the Permanent Representatives Committee agreed on a text⁴ and mandated the Presidency to enter into informal trilogue meetings with the representatives of the European Commission and of the Council in order to explore the possibility of an agreement at first reading.
6. Following two trilogue meetings and several technical meetings with the representatives of the European Parliament and of the European Commission, provisional agreement was reached on 4 February 2019 on the text in annex.
7. The Permanent Representatives Committee is thus invited to endorse this text and to mandate the Presidency to inform the European Parliament that, should Parliament adopt the text of the Proposal in the exact form as set out in the Annex – subject to lawyer-linguist revision – at a forthcoming plenary meeting, the Council would adopt the proposed Regulation as amended.

REGULATION OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL

on the marketing and use of explosives precursors, amending Annex XVII to Regulation (EC) No 1907/2006 and repealing Regulation (EU) No 98/2013 on the marketing and use of explosives precursors

THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in particular Article 114 thereof,

Having regard to the proposal from the European Commission,

After transmission of the draft legislative act to the national parliaments,

Having regard to the opinion of the European Economic and Social Committee⁵,

Acting in accordance with the ordinary legislative procedure,

Whereas:

- (1) Regulation (EU) No 98/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council⁶ established harmonised rules concerning the making available, introduction, possession and use of substances or mixtures that could be misused for the illicit manufacture of explosives, with a view to limiting their availability to the general public, and ensuring the appropriate reporting of suspicious transactions throughout the supply chain.
- (2) Although Regulation (EU) No 98/2013 has contributed to reducing the threat posed by explosives precursors in the Union, it is necessary to strengthen the system of controls of precursors that can be used for manufacturing ~~around~~ homemade explosives. Given the number of changes needed, for the sake of clarity it is appropriate to replace Regulation (EU) No 98/2013.
- (3) Regulation (EU) No 98/2013 restricted access to and use of explosive precursors by members of the general public. Notwithstanding this prohibition, Member States could however decide to grant the general public access to those substances through a system of licences and registration. The restrictions and controls on explosives precursors in the Member States were therefore divergent and liable to cause barriers to trade within the Union, thus impeding the functioning of the internal market. Furthermore, the existing restrictions and controls were not ensuring sufficiently levels of public security, as they were not adequately preventing criminals from acquiring explosives precursors. The threat posed by homemade explosives remained high and continues to evolve.

- (4) The system to prevent the illicit manufacture of explosives should therefore be further strengthened and harmonised in view of the evolving threat to public security caused by terrorism and other serious criminal activities. This should also ensure the free movement of explosives precursors in the internal market, as well as promote competitiveness between economic operators and encourage innovation, by for example facilitating the development of safer chemicals to replace explosives precursors.
- (5) The criteria for determining which measures should apply to which explosives precursors include the level of threat associated with the explosives precursor concerned, the volume of trade in the explosives precursor concerned, and the possibility of establishing a concentration level below which the explosives precursor could still be used for the legitimate purposes for which it is made available and is significantly less likely to be able to be used for the illicit manufacture of explosives.
- (6) Members of the general public should not be ~~permitted able~~ to acquire, introduce, possess or use ~~these~~ certain explosives precursors in at concentrations ~~at or~~ above certain limit values in percent by weight (w/w). However, it is ~~appropriate to provide for~~ members of the general public should be permitted to be able to acquire, introduce, possess or use some explosives precursors in concentrations above ~~those at~~ limit values ~~concentration limit~~ for legitimate purposes, only if they hold a licence to do so. Where the applicant is a legal person, the competent authority of the Member State should take into account the background of the legal person and of any person, acting either individually or as part of an organ of the legal person, and having a leading position within the legal person, based on either a power of representation of the legal person, an authority to take decisions on behalf of the legal person or an authority to exercise control within the legal person.
- (7) For some restricted explosives precursors in concentrations above the limit value set out in this Regulation, there exists no legitimate use by members of the general public. Therefore, licensing should be discontinued for potassium chlorate, potassium perchlorate, sodium chlorate and sodium perchlorate. Licences Licensing should ~~may~~ only be permitted ~~provided for~~ a limited number of restricted explosives precursors ~~substances~~ in concentrations not exceeding the upper limit provided for set by this Regulation and for which there exists a legitimate use by members of the general public. Above that upper limit and in case licensing is not permitted, the risk in relation to the illicit manufacture of explosives outweighs the negligible legitimate use by the general public of ~~these~~ those explosives precursors, for ~~which~~ alternatives or lower concentrations can achieve the same effect. This Regulation should also determine the ~~which~~ circumstances which the competent authorities, should, as a minimum, take into account when considering whether to ~~grant~~ issue a licence. This should, together with the format of a licence annexed to this Regulation, facilitate the recognition of licences issued by ~~in~~ other Member States ~~that apply licensing regime.~~
- (7a) Mutual recognition of the licences issued by other Member States may be done bilaterally or multilaterally aiming at achieving the objectives of the single market

- (8) In order to apply the restrictions and controls of this Regulation, those economic operators selling to professional users or members of the general public holding with a licence should rely on information made available upstream in the supply chain. Each economic operator in the supply chain should therefore inform the recipient of that ~~restricted~~ regulated explosives precursor that the making available, introduction, possession or use of that ~~restricted~~ explosives precursor by members of the general public is subject to ~~a restriction as set out in~~ this Regulation, for instance by affixing an appropriate label or by verifying that an appropriate label is affixed or by including ~~that~~ is information in the safety data sheet compiled in accordance with Annex II to Regulation (EC) No 1907/2006 of European Parliament and of the Council⁷.
- (9) The difference between an economic operator and a professional user is that the economic operator makes a restricted explosives precursor available to another person, whereas a professional user acquires or introduces a restricted explosives precursor only for their own use. Economic operators selling to professional users, other economic operators or members of the general public with a licence should ensure that their personnel involved in the sale of the explosives precursors ~~is~~ are aware which of the products ~~that the economic operator it offers and that~~ contain explosives precursors, for instance by including ~~this~~ that information in the barcode of the product.
- (10) The distinction between a professional user, to ~~which~~ whom restricted explosives precursors can be made available and a member of the general public, to ~~which~~ whom they cannot, depends on whether the person intends to use that explosives precursor for purposes connected to their specific trade, ~~craft~~ business or profession, including forestry, horticultural and agricultural activity, either full time or part time and not necessarily related to the size of the land area. Economic operators, should therefore not make available a restricted explosives precursor, neither to a natural or legal person that is professionally active in an area where that specific restricted explosives precursor does not tend to be used for professional purposes, nor to natural or legal persons engaged in activities not connected to any professional purpose.
- (10aa) Staff involved in the making available of explosives precursors is subject to the same rules of the Regulation that apply to the general public, when using such explosives precursors for their personal aims.
- (10a) Transaction data retained by economic operators should provide information that will substantially assist the authorities in preventing, investigating, detecting and prosecuting serious crime committed with homemade explosive devices and in verifying compliance with this Regulation. The identification of all supply chain actors and customers is essential for this purpose, be it members of the general public, professional users or economic operators. As the illicit manufacture and use of home made explosives might occur only after some time, the data should be retained as long as necessary, proportionate and appropriate to take investigations forward and with a view to average inspection periods.

- (11) The obligations under of this Regulation should apply also to companies that operate online, including on online marketplaces. Therefore, online economic operators should also train their personnel staff and have in place appropriate procedures to detect suspicious transactions. Furthermore, they should not make available restricted explosives precursors to a member of the general public in Member States other than those that maintain or establish a licensing regime in line with this Regulation and only after verifying that that member of the general public has a licence. After having verified the identity of the prospective customer, for instance through mechanisms referred to in Regulation (EU) No 910/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council⁸, the economic operator should verify that a licence has been issued for the intended transaction, for instance through a physical inspection of the licence at the time of delivery of the precursor or, with the consent of the prospective customer, by contacting the competent authority of Member States that issued the licence. ~~enable to be consulted on the licenses they have issued~~. Companies operating online should also, like those operating offline, request end-use declarations of professional users.
- (12) Online market places act as mere intermediaries between economic operators on the one side ~~hand~~, and members of the general public, or professional users ~~or farmers~~ on the other side ~~hand~~. Therefore online marketplaces should not fall under the definition of an economic operator and should not be required to instruct their personnel involved in the sale of restricted explosives precursors or verify the identity and, where appropriate, the licence of the prospective customer or request other information from the prospective customer. However, given the central role which online marketplaces ~~that act as an intermediary~~ play in online ~~economic~~ transactions, including as regards the sales of regulated ~~restricted~~ explosives precursors, it is appropriate that they should inform, in a clear and effective manner, users who aim to make available regulated ~~restricted~~ explosives precursors through the use of their services of the obligations under this Regulation. In addition, ~~it is appropriate that online marketplaces that act as an intermediary~~ should take measures to help ensure that their users comply with their obligations regarding verification, for instance by offering tools to facilitate verification of licences. Given the increasing significance of online markets for all kinds of offers and the importance of this procurement channel, also for terroristic purposes, online marketplaces should be subject to the same detection and reporting obligations as economic operators, while procedures to detect suspicious transactions should be properly adapted to the specific online environment. All such obligations on online marketplaces that act as an intermediary under this Regulation should be without prejudice to Articles 14 and 15 of Directive 2000/31/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council.
- (12a) The obligation on online marketplaces under this Regulation should not amount to a general monitoring obligation. This Regulation should lay down only specific obligations for online marketplaces concerning the detection and reporting of suspicious transactions taking place on their website or using their computing services. Online marketplaces should not be held liable, on the basis of this Regulation, for transactions that were not detected despite the online marketplace having in place appropriate, reasonable and proportionate procedures to detect such a suspicious transaction.

⁸ Regulation (EU) No 910/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 July 2014 on electronic identification and trust services for electronic transactions in the internal market and repealing Directive 1999/93/EC (OJ L 257, 28.8.2014, p. 73).

(12b) This Regulation requires economic operators to report suspicious transactions, regardless of whether the prospective customer is a member of the general public, a professional user or an economic operator. The obligations relating to regulated explosives precursors, including that of reporting suspicious transactions, should apply to all substances listed in the respective column 1 of Annexes I and II, irrespective of their concentration. However, products that contain explosives precursors only to such a small extent and in such complex mixtures that the extraction of explosives precursors is impossible without complication are excluded from the scope of this Regulation.

(13) To improve the practical application of ~~this~~ Regulation, both economic operators and public authorities should provide for adequate training regarding the obligations of this Regulation. Member States should have in place inspection authorities and organise regular awareness-raising actions, targeted at the specificities of each different sector, and maintain a permanent dialogue with the supply chain, including those operating online.

(14) The choice of substances used by criminals for the illicit manufacture of explosives can change rapidly. It should, therefore, be possible to bring additional substances under the regime provided by this Regulation, where necessary as a matter of urgency. In order to accommodate possible developments in the misuse of substances as explosives precursors, the power to adopt acts in accordance with Article 290 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union should be delegated to the Commission in respect of ~~to list additional substances that are not to be made available to the general public, to amending the concentration~~ limit values above which certain substances restricted under this Regulation are not to be made available to the general public, and ~~to listing~~ of additional substances in respect of which suspicious transactions are to be reported. It is of particular importance that the Commission carry out appropriate consultations during its preparatory work, including at expert level, and that those consultations be conducted in accordance with the principles laid down in the Interinstitutional Agreement of 13 April 2016 on Better Law-Making⁹. In particular, to ensure equal participation in the preparation of delegated acts, the European Parliament and the Council receive all documents at the same time as Member States' experts, and their experts systematically have access to meetings of Commission expert groups dealing with the preparation of delegated acts.

(15) In order to deal with substances not already ~~restricted by this Regulation~~ listed in Annex I or II but in respect of which a Member State discovers reasonable grounds for believing that they could be used for the illicit manufacture of explosives, a safeguard clause for an adequate Union procedure ~~is~~ should be provided. Moreover, in view of the specific risks to be addressed in this Regulation, it is appropriate to allow Member States, in certain circumstances, to adopt safeguard measures, including in respect of substances already subject to measures under this Regulation. Furthermore, Member States should be allowed to maintain national measures, which they have already previously notified to the Commission in line with Article 13(6) of Regulation (EU) No. 98/2013.

⁹ OJ L123, 12.5. 2016, p1.

- (16) The regulatory framework would be simplified by ~~transferring~~ integrating the relevant security-oriented restrictions on making available ammonium nitrate from Regulation (EC) No 1907/2006 into ~~to~~ this Regulation. For that reason, paragraphs 2 and 3 of entry 58 to Annex XVII to Regulation (EC) No 1907/2006 should be deleted.
- (17) Regulation (EU) No 98/2013 should be repealed.
- (18) This Regulation requires the processing of personal data and their further disclosure to third parties in case of suspicious transactions. That processing and disclosure imply an interference with the fundamental rights to private life and the right to the protection of personal data. Accordingly, it should be ensured that the fundamental right to the protection of personal data of individuals whose personal data are processed in application of this Regulation is duly protected. Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council¹⁰ governs the processing of personal data carried out in the framework of this Regulation. Therefore, the processing of personal data that licensing and the reporting of suspicious transactions entail, should be carried out in accordance with Regulation (EU) 2016/679, including the general data protection principles of lawfulness, fairness and transparency, purpose limitation, data minimisation, accuracy, storage limitation, integrity and confidentiality and the requirement to show due respect for the data subject's rights.
- (19) The Commission should carry out an evaluation of this Regulation based on the five criteria of efficiency, effectiveness, relevance, coherence and EU value added and should provide the basis for impact assessments of possible further measures. Information should be collected regularly and in order to inform the evaluation of this Regulation.
- (20) Since the objective of this Regulation, namely limiting access by the general public to explosives precursors, cannot be sufficiently achieved by the Member States but ~~and~~ can rather therefore, by reason of the scale and effects of the limitation, be better achieved at Union level, the Union may adopt measures, in accordance with the principle of subsidiarity as set out in Article 5 of the Treaty on European Union. In accordance with the principle of proportionality, as set out in that Article, this Regulation does not go beyond what is necessary in order to achieve that objective,

HAVE ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

¹⁰ Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (OJ L 119, 4.5.2016, p. 1).

Article 5

Making available, introduction, possession and use

1. Restricted explosives precursors shall not be made available to, or introduced, possessed or used by members of the general public.
- 1a. The obligation under paragraph 1 also applies to mixtures containing chlorates or perchlorates listed in Annex I, if the overall concentration of those substances in the mixture exceeds the limit value of one of those substances set out in column (2) of the table in Annex I.
- ~~2. Paragraph 1 shall not apply to ammonium nitrate (CAS RN 6484-52-2) that is made available to, or introduced, possessed or used by farmers for agricultural activity, either full time or part time and not necessarily related to the size of the land area.~~
3. A Member State may maintain or establish a licensing regime allowing certain restricted explosives precursors in concentrations not higher than the corresponding limit values set out in column 3 of Annex I to be made available to, or to be introduced, possessed or used by, members of the general public.

Under such regime, a member of the general public shall obtain, and, if requested, present a licence for acquiring, introducing, possessing or using restricted explosives precursors; Such a licence shall be issued in accordance with Article 6 by a competent authority of the Member State where that restricted explosives precursor is ~~going~~ intended to be acquired, introduced, possessed or used.
4. Member States shall, without delay, notify to the Commission all measures they take in order to implement the licensing regime provided for in paragraph 3. The notification shall set out the restricted explosives precursors in respect of which the Member State provides for a licensing regime in accordance with paragraph 3.
5. The Commission shall make publicly available a list of measures notified by Member States in accordance with paragraph 4.

Article 6

Licences

1. Each Member State which issues licences to members of the general public with a legitimate interest to acquire, introduce, possess or use restricted explosives precursors shall lay down rules for issuing ~~granting~~ the licence provided for in Article 5(3). When considering whether to issue ~~grant~~ a licence, the competent authority of the Member State shall take into account all relevant circumstances, in particular:
 - (a) the demonstrable need for the restricted explosives precursor and the legitimacy of the intended use ~~of the substance~~;

- (b) the availability of lower concentrations or alternative substances that would achieve a similar effect;
 - (c) the background of the applicant including information on previous criminal convictions of the applicant anywhere within the Union;
 - (d) the proposed storage arrangements to ensure that the restricted explosives precursor is kept securely;
2. The licence shall be refused if there are reasonable grounds for doubting the legitimacy of the intended use or the intentions of the user to use the explosives precursor ~~it~~ for a legitimate purpose.
 3. The competent authority may choose how to limit the validity of the licence, through permitting single or multiple use for a period not exceeding three years. The competent authority may oblige the licence holder to demonstrate until the designated expiry of the licence that the conditions under which the licence was issued ~~granted~~ are still fulfilled. The licence shall mention the restricted explosives precursors in respect of which it is issued.
 4. The competent authority~~ies~~ may require applicants to pay a licence application fee. Such a fee shall not exceed the cost of processing the application.
 5. The competent authority may suspend or revoke the licence where there are reasonable grounds for believing that the conditions under which the licence was issued ~~granted~~ are no longer fulfilled. The competent authority shall inform licence holders of any suspension or revocation of their licences in due time, unless this would jeopardise current investigations.
 6. Appeals against any decision of the competent authority, and disputes concerning compliance with the conditions of the licence, shall be heard by an appropriate body responsible under national law.
 7. A Member State ~~with a licensing regime referred to in Article 5(3)~~ may recognise licences issued under this Regulation ~~granted~~ by other Member States.

Member States may use the format for ~~issuing~~ a licence provided for in Annex III.

8. The competent authority shall obtain the information on previous criminal convictions of the applicant in other Member States as referred to in point (c) of paragraph 1, ~~point (e) shall be obtained~~ through the system established by Council Framework Decision 2009/315/JHA¹⁵. The central authorities referred to in Article 3 of that Framework Decision shall, within ~~20~~ 10 working days from the date the request was received ~~shall~~ provide responses to requests for such information.

¹⁵ Council Framework Decision 2009/315/JHA of 26 February 2009 on the organisation and content of the exchange of information extracted from the criminal record between Member States (OJ L 93, 7.4.2009, p. 23).

9. ~~Licences issued by a Member State in accordance with Article 7 of Regulation (EC) No 98/2013 which are still valid on [the day of entry into application of this Regulation] shall lose their validity on that date. Each Member State may decide, upon request of the licence holder, to confirm, renew or prolong such licences issued in that Member State if the restricted explosives precursors can be subject to a license in accordance with the limit values set out in column 3 of Annex I and if the competent authority considers that the requirements for granting the licence as referred to in paragraph 1 are met. Such confirmation, renewal or prolongation should respect the time limit set in paragraph 3 of this Article.~~

Article 7

Informing the supply chain

1. An economic operator who makes available a restricted explosives precursor to another economic operator shall inform that economic operator that the acquisition, possession or use of that restricted explosives precursor by members of the general public is subject to a restriction as set out in Article 5(1) and (3).

An economic operator who makes available a regulated explosives precursor to another economic operator shall inform that economic operator that the acquisition, possession or use of that regulated explosives precursor by members of the general public is subject to a reporting obligation as set out in Article 9.

2. An economic operator who makes available regulated explosives precursors to a professional user, ~~to a farmer~~ or to a member of the general public ~~in accordance with Article 5(3)~~ shall ensure and be able to demonstrate to the competent authorities referred to in Article 11 that ~~their~~ its personnel involved in the sale of regulated explosives precursors is:
- (a) aware which of the ~~fact that~~ products ~~that~~ it offers ~~and~~ contain regulated explosives precursors;
 - (b) instructed regarding the obligations pursuant to Articles 5 to 9 of this Regulation.
3. An online marketplace ~~that acts as an intermediary~~ shall take measures to ensure that its users, when making available regulated ~~restricted~~ explosives precursors through its services, are informed of their obligations pursuant to this Regulation.

Verification upon sale

1. An economic operator who makes available a restricted explosives precursor to a member of the general public in accordance with Article 5(3) shall for each transaction verify the proof of identity and licence of that member of the general public in compliance with the licensing regime established by the Member State where the restricted explosives precursor is made available: and record the amount of the restricted explosives precursor on the licence.
