STATEMENTS

Statement by Spain

Spain looks forward to the presentation by the European Commission of a new proposal on flexibility.

Statement by Greece

We insist that the Commission must propose further amendments for all Regulations granting the necessary ability to Member States to use ESI funds as an effective and forceful response to the COVID-19 crisis by allowing, among other, transfers of money between all the Funds and between categories of regions, higher co-financing rates, more flexibility in thematic concentration requirements, allow eligibility also for completed operations that are implemented specifically for covid crisis, allow support irrespective of the size of the enterprise and provide for an extension of eligibility period for one more year.

Statement by the Commission

The Commission will do all that is necessary to mitigate the social and economic impact of the COVID-19 outbreak. Specifically, as the situation evolves, the Commission will examine carefully any additional needs identified by Member States, including with regard to Regulation (EU) No 1303/2013 and related fund-specific regulations.
