Subject:	Proposal for a REGULATION OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL on temporary trade-liberalisation measures supplementing trade concessions applicable to Ukrainian products under the Association Agreement between the European Union and the European Atomic Energy Community and their Member States, of the one part, and Ukraine, of the other part (First reading) - Confirmation of the final compromise text with a view to agreement

1. On 31 January 2024, the European Commission submitted the above-mentioned proposal (ST 5998/24) to the Council.

2. Regulation (EU) 2023/1077[1] entered into force on 6 June 2023 and applies until 5 June 2024. The above-mentioned proposal aims to renew the suspension of import duties and quotas on Ukrainian exports to the EU for another year, while reinforcing protection for some sensitive agricultural products.

3. The Trade Policy Committee (Deputies and Full Members) examined the proposal at its meetings on 5, 8 and 15 February 2024. During those discussions, a large number of delegations expressed their support for the proposal without any modifications and called for a rapid adoption of the legal act. Some delegations, however, expressed concerns and suggested certain modifications in respect of the proposal. Further to these discussions, the Presidency proposed to approve the proposal without any modifications.

4. On 21 February 2024, the Permanent Representatives Committee approved the text of the Commission's proposal without any modifications, with a view to reaching an agreement at first reading with the European Parliament (ST 6298/24).

5. On 7 March 2024, the European Parliament's Committee on International Trade (INTA) approved the Commission's proposal without any amendments. The European Parliament aims to adopt its position at first reading during the plenary session of 11-14 March 2024.

6. The Permanent Representatives Committee is therefore invited to:

   - confirm agreement on the text of the Commission's proposal without any modifications, with a view to reaching an agreement at first reading with the European Parliament; and

   - authorise the Chair of the Permanent Representatives Committee to send a letter to inform the Chair of the European Parliament's INTA Committee that, should the European Parliament adopt its position at first reading in the exact form as set out in the Commission's proposal, and subject to revision of that text by the lawyer-linguists of both institutions, the Council will approve the European Parliament's position and the act will be adopted in the wording which corresponds to the European Parliament's position.
