Statement by Luxembourg

"Tout en reconnaissant l'importance que revêt le projet ITER, le Luxembourg reste, de manière générale, très critique en ce qui concerne le financement des activités de recherche nucléaire par l'Union européenne. Le Gouvernement luxembourgeois souhaiterait qu'une orientation des fonds européens, davantage axée sur les énergies renouvelables, soit exploitée à l'avenir. Les conclusions du Conseil sur un projet ITER réformé, ne préconisant pas une telle orientation, la position du Luxembourg reste inchangée. Malgré les réticences quant au contenu de ces conclusions, le Luxembourg, dans un esprit constructif, est cependant en mesure de lever sa réserve générale et d'approuver ce texte de conclusions."
