'I' ITEM NOTE

From:	General Secretariat of the Council
To:	Permanent Representatives Committee
No. Cion doc.:	COM(2023) 124
No. prev. doc.:	ST 6931/23 INIT ST 6931/23 ADD 1
Subject:	Proposal for REGULATION OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL on specific rules relating to the entry into Northern Ireland from other parts of the United Kingdom of certain consignments of retail goods, plants for planting, seed potatoes, machinery and certain vehicles operated for agricultural or forestry purposes, as well as non-commercial movements of certain pet animals into Northern Ireland

1. On 27 February 2023, the Commission submitted to the Council a proposal for a Regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council on specific rules relating to the entry into Northern Ireland from other parts of the United Kingdom of certain consignments of retail goods, plants for planting, seed potatoes, machinery and certain vehicles operated for agricultural or forestry purposes, as well as non-commercial movements of certain pet animals into Northern Ireland (ST6931/23+COR 1+ADD 1+ADD1 COR 1).

2. This proposal forms part of a wider package referred to as the ‘Windsor Framework’. Other acts forming part of the package include:
- a. Council Decision on the position to be taken on behalf of the European Union in the Joint Committee established by the Agreement on the withdrawal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland from the European Union and the European Atomic Energy Community as regards a decision to be adopted, and recommendations and joint and unilateral declarations to be made. This Council Decision was adopted on 21 March and is contained in document ST 7099/23 + ADD 1. The subsequent Joint Committee Decision 1/2023 was adopted and the Recommendations and Declarations were made on 24 March 2023 in this Joint Committee.
 - b. Council Decision on the position to be taken on behalf of the European Union in the Joint Consultative Working Group established by the Agreement on the withdrawal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland from the European Union and the European Atomic Energy Community as regards the amendment of its rules of procedure. This Council Decision was adopted on 21 March 2023 and is contained in document ST 7098 + ADD1.
 - c. Proposal for a Regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council amending Regulation (EU) 2020/2170 as regards the application of Union tariff rate quotas and other import quotas to certain products transferred to Northern Ireland (ST 6932/23 + COR 1+ADD 1 + ADD1 COR 1).
 - d. Proposal for a Regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council on specific rules relating to medicinal products for human use intended to be placed on the market of Northern Ireland (ST 6928/23+COR1, compromise proposal contained in document ST 7470 2023).

3. This Proposal for a Regulation aims at addressing the United Kingdom's concerns that the Withdrawal Agreement imposes a disproportionately high administrative burden on the entry into Northern Ireland from other parts of the United Kingdom of certain goods subject to sanitary and phytosanitary (SPS) measures, where the goods are destined for final consumers in Northern Ireland, so that it undermines unnecessarily the place of Northern Ireland within the United Kingdom's internal market.
4. The Commission presented the proposal on 28 February 2023 to the Working Party on the United Kingdom, where it was discussed again on 17 March 2023. The text was then discussed by agricultural Attachés on 21 March and the delegates of the Working Party on Fisheries were invited to give written comments by 23 March 2023.
5. On 28 March 2023 the Working Party on the United Kingdom found an agreement on the text with one technical modification. The agreed text is contained in ST 7730 2023 + ADD 1.
6. The services of the General Secretariat of the Council and of the European Parliament have worked together to ensure that the proposal is adopted in the same wording in both institutions.
7. In light of the agreement in substance between both institutions, the Permanent Representatives Committee is invited to:
 - Confirm its agreement on the text as set out in the Annex I to this note with a view to reaching an agreement at first reading with the European Parliament; and to

- authorise the Chair of the Permanent Representatives Committee to send the letter contained in the Annex II to the European Parliament confirming that, should the European Parliament adopt its position at first reading according to Article 294(3) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (TFEU) in the form as set out in the Annex I to this note, subject to revision by the lawyer-linguists of both institutions, the Council will approve the European Parliament's position according to Article 294(4) TFEU and the act will be adopted in the wording which corresponds to the European Parliament's position at first reading.

THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in particular Article 43(2), Article 114, and Article 168(4), point (b), thereof,

Having regard to the proposal from the European Commission,

After transmission of the draft legislative act to the national parliaments,

Having regard to the opinion of the European Economic and Social Committee¹,

Having regard to the opinion of the Committee of the Regions², acting in accordance with the ordinary legislative procedure,

Whereas:

- (1) The Agreement on the withdrawal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland from the European Union and the European Atomic Energy Community¹ (the Withdrawal Agreement) was concluded on behalf of the Union by Council Decision (EU) 2020/135² and entered into force on 1 February 2020. The transition period referred to in Article 126 of the Withdrawal Agreement, during which Union law continued to apply to and in the United Kingdom, in accordance with Article 127 of the Withdrawal Agreement, ended on 31 December 2020.
- (2) The Protocol on Ireland/Northern Ireland (the Protocol) forms an integral part of the Withdrawal Agreement.
- (3) By virtue of the Protocol, certain Union acts referred to in Annex 2 thereto, lay down rules applicable, in particular, to the entry into Northern Ireland from other parts of the United Kingdom of consignments of retail goods, plants for planting, seed potatoes, machinery and vehicles which have been operated for agricultural or forestry purposes, as well as non-commercial movements of pet animals into Northern Ireland.
- (4) More specifically, certain Union acts referred to in Annex 2 to the Protocol lay down rules, which apply to the entry into Northern Ireland from other parts of the United Kingdom of consignments of certain retail goods for the purpose of public health and consumer protection, including prohibitions on imports of certain products.

² Council Decision (EU) 2020/135 of 30 January 2020 on the conclusion of the Agreement on the withdrawal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland from the European Union and the European Atomic Energy Community (OJ L 29, 31.1.2020, p. 1).

- (5) Furthermore, Regulations (EC) No 1069/2009¹, (EU) 2016/429², (EU) 2016/2031³ of the European Parliament and of the Council lay down rules which apply to the entry into Northern Ireland from other parts of the United Kingdom of consignments of certain retail goods of animal or plant origin, composite products, plants for planting, seed potatoes, and machinery and vehicles which have been operated for agricultural or forestry purposes, for the purpose of protecting public, animal and plant health in the internal market, including requirements for individual official certificates, rates of official controls and prohibitions on imports of certain products.

² Regulation (EU) 2016/429 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 9 March 2016 on transmissible animal diseases and amending and repealing certain acts in the area of animal health ('Animal Health Law') (OJ L 84, 31.3.2016, p. 1).

³ Regulation (EU) 2016/2031 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 October 2016 on protective measures against pests of plants, amending Regulations (EU) No 228/2013, (EU) No 652/2014 and (EU) No 1143/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council and repealing Council Directives 69/464/EEC, 74/647/EEC, 93/85/EEC, 98/57/EC, 2000/29/EC, 2006/91/EC and 2007/33/EC (OJ L 317, 23.11.2016, p. 4).

- (6) In addition, Regulation (EU) 2017/625 of the European Parliament and of the Council¹ lays down rules for official controls on all consignments of goods entering the Union from third countries to ensure that they comply with the rules referred to in Article 1(2) thereof. More particularly, Article 47 of that Regulation requires certain categories of goods to be subject to official controls at border control posts when entering the Union. In this case, by virtue of the Protocol, the rules laid down in Regulation (EU) 2017/625 apply to the entry into Northern Ireland from other parts of the United Kingdom of those consignments.
- (7) Furthermore, Council Regulation (EC) No 1005/2008² prohibits the importation into the Union of fishery products obtained from illegal, unreported and unregulated fishing. To ensure the effectiveness of that prohibition, fishery products may only be imported into the Union when accompanied by a catch certificate and subject to appropriate checks and verifications.

1 Regulation (EU) 2017/625 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 15 March 2017 on official controls and other official activities performed to ensure the application of food and feed law, rules on animal health and welfare, plant health and plant protection products, amending Regulations (EC) No 999/2001, (EC) No 396/2005, (EC) No 1069/2009, (EC) No 1107/2009, (EU) No 1151/2012, (EU) No 652/2014, (EU) 2016/429 and (EU) 2016/2031 of the European Parliament and of the Council, Council Regulations (EC) No 1/2005 and (EC) No 1099/2009 and Council Directives 98/58/EC, 1999/74/EC, 2007/43/EC, 2008/119/EC and 2008/120/EC, and repealing Regulations (EC) No 854/2004 and (EC) No 882/2004 of the European Parliament and of the Council, Council Directives 89/608/EEC, 89/662/EEC, 90/425/EEC, 91/496/EEC, 96/23/EC, 96/93/EC and 97/78/EC and Council Decision 92/438/EEC (Official Controls Regulation) (O J L 95, 7.4.2017, p. 1).

2 Council Regulation (EC) No 1005/2008 of 29 September 2008 establishing a Community system to prevent, deter and eliminate illegal, unreported and unregulated fishing, amending Regulations (EEC) No 2847/93, (EC) No 1936/2001 and (EC) No 601/2004 and repealing Regulations (EC) No 1093/94 and (EC) No 1447/1999 (OJ L 286, 29.10.2008, p. 1).

- (8) In addition, Regulation (EU) No 576/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council¹ lays down the animal health requirements applicable to the non-commercial movement of pet dogs, cats and ferrets into Northern Ireland from other parts of the United Kingdom, as well as rules for compliance checks and the requirement for an identification document, in the form of an animal health certificate, which is to be controlled at a traveller's point of entry.
- (9) In order to take account of the specific situation of Northern Ireland, it is appropriate to adopt specific rules.
- (10) More particularly, it is appropriate to adopt specific rules relating to the entry into Northern Ireland from other parts of the United Kingdom of certain consignments of prepacked retail goods for final consumers, and of certain consignments of plants for planting, other than seed potatoes, of machinery and vehicles which have been operated for agricultural or forestry purposes, and of seed potatoes for placing on the market and use in Northern Ireland, as well as non-commercial movements of pet dogs, cats and ferrets.
- (11) Those specific rules should take into account the responsibility of the United Kingdom to protect public health and consumers in Northern Ireland in respect of retail goods entering into Northern Ireland from other parts of the United Kingdom. It is therefore appropriate to lay down specific rules derogating from the rules laid down in certain Union acts or parts thereof listed in Annex 2 to the Protocol and listed in Annex I to this Regulation, that are exclusively for the protection of public health and consumers, so that those rules do not apply in respect of consignments of retail goods entering into Northern Ireland from other parts of the United Kingdom with a view to being placed on the market in Northern Ireland. Those Union acts or parts thereof should continue, however, to fully apply to such retail goods directly imported into Northern Ireland from third countries other than the United Kingdom, and their production and further processing in Northern Ireland, as they fall outside the scope of the specific rules laid down in this Regulation.

- (12) It is appropriate to clarify that the provisions listed in Annex 2 to the Protocol other than those listed in Annex I to this Regulation apply in respect of consignments of retail goods entering into Northern Ireland from other parts of the United Kingdom unless specific provisions are laid down by this Regulation. Where the specific provisions of this Regulation apply, and in the event of any inconsistencies between those specific provisions and the Union acts, those specific provisions should take precedence.
- (13) Furthermore, this Regulation should lay down rules on written guarantees to be provided by the United Kingdom to ensure that the application of the specific rules laid down in this Regulation does not lead to an increased risk to animal or plant health on the island of Ireland, does not adversely affect the sanitary and phytosanitary (SPS) status of the island of Ireland, does not lead to an increased risk to public, animal or plant health in the internal market, does not lead to an increased risk that fishery products obtained from illegal, unreported or unregulated fishing are placed on the internal market, and does not adversely affect the level of consumer protection in the internal market or its integrity (written guarantees).

- (14) The specific rules should include special rates of official controls to be carried out on consignments of retail goods upon arrival at the SPS Inspection Facilities in Northern Ireland, and a requirement that such consignments be accompanied by a general certificate, once the United Kingdom has provided the written guarantees. Such specific rules should only apply once certain conditions are fulfilled, including compliance by those retail goods with the rules laid down in Regulations (EU) 1069/2009, (EU) 2016/429, (EU) 2016/2031 and (EU) 2017/625, a specific marking of the retail goods, and the listing of establishments for the dispatch and reception of those retail goods, as well as the construction of SPS Inspection Facilities in Northern Ireland in accordance with the time period laid down in this Regulation, and, in relation to fishery products, the respect of the notion of illegal, unreported and unregulated fishing as defined by the Union in its application of Regulation (EC) No 1005/2008, without imposing on the United Kingdom an obligation to apply the same certification requirements and related procedures laid down in that Regulation.
- (15) Furthermore, it is appropriate to also lay down specific rules for the entry into Northern Ireland from other parts of the United Kingdom of consignments of retail goods consisting of food, other than products of animal or plant origin or composite products, and food contact material, so that such consignments are not subject to the same certification requirements as the consignments of retail goods of animal or plant origin or composite products.

- (16) In the cases falling within the scope of this Regulation, where official controls involving certification and checks on retail goods entering Northern Ireland from other parts of the United Kingdom are reduced, and where it is therefore necessary to ensure that those retail goods remain in Northern Ireland and do not undermine public health and consumer protection on the internal market or its integrity, by providing information to consumers concerning those retail goods, it is appropriate that specific marking rules are in place. These specific rules should ensure the information for the consumers and the traceability of those retail goods. They should provide for different requirements for marking at box, shelf or individual product levels. The application of these specific rules should recognise the need for appropriate timeframes for the marking requirements that minimise burdens and difficulties for supply chains, as well as the importance of the continued movement of retail goods within the United Kingdom consistent with Northern Ireland's position as part of the United Kingdom.
- (17) It is appropriate to provide for bespoke mechanisms, for the sole purpose of allowing retail goods consisting of commodities coming from third countries other than the United Kingdom ('rest of the world retail goods') of animal or plant origin, composite products and fishery products to benefit from the specific rules laid down in this Regulation. Firstly, in the case of rest of the world retail goods of animal or plant origin or composite products, the appropriate mechanism would operate where the United Kingdom decides to adapt its rules within its internal legal order and in accordance with its constitutional requirements. To this end, it is necessary to lay down procedures concerning the adaptation of these rules, should the United Kingdom decide to use that possibility, through a listing of commodities and their delisting mechanism, as well as other necessary safeguards. Where the United Kingdom decides to adapt its rules, it remains free to add more stringent conditions. Secondly, for fishery products, it is appropriate to take into account the rules of the United Kingdom ensuring that fishery products obtained from illegal, unreported and unregulated fishing are not imported into the United Kingdom.

- (18) It is necessary that consignments of plants for planting, other than seed potatoes, and machinery and vehicles which have been operated for agricultural or forestry purposes before entering into Northern Ireland, and which are dispatched by professional operators in other parts of the United Kingdom for reception by professional operators in Northern Ireland or for immediate sale in the United Kingdom after their reception in Northern Ireland by professional operators do not present an unacceptable risk to plant health on the island of Ireland and for the internal market. Therefore, the entry of those consignments into Northern Ireland from other parts of the United Kingdom should be subject to specific rules in order to ensure that those consignments do not increase the risk to plant health on the island of Ireland, do not adversely affect the phytosanitary status of the island of Ireland or increase the risk to plant health in the internal market or affect its integrity.
- (19) It is necessary that the entry into Northern Ireland from other parts of the United Kingdom of consignments of tubers of Solanum tuberosum L. for planting (seed potatoes), dispatched by professional operators in other parts of the United Kingdom for reception by professional operators in Northern Ireland or for immediate sale in the United Kingdom after their reception in Northern Ireland by professional operators, do not present an unacceptable risk to plant health on the island of Ireland and for the internal market. Therefore, the entry of those consignments into Northern Ireland from other parts of the United Kingdom, should be subject to certain specific rules in order to ensure that those consignments do not increase the risk to plant health on the island of Ireland, do not adversely affect the phytosanitary status of the island of Ireland or increase the risk to plant health in the internal market or affect its integrity.

- (20) Due to the long history of the absence of rabies and of strict surveillance of Echinococcus multilocularis infection in the United Kingdom, and the stringent requirements on movements of dogs, cats and ferrets on and into its territory laid down in national law, the non-commercial movement of pet dogs, cats and ferrets, entering into Northern Ireland from other parts of the United Kingdom should not increase the level of risk to animal health in Northern Ireland and on the island of Ireland, should not adversely affect the sanitary status of the island of Ireland, and should not increase the risk to public and animal health on the internal market, if such movements were subject to specific rules. Those specific rules should include the provision of a simplified identification document and a written declaration by the owner or an authorised person that those animals will not be moved subsequently to a Member State. Additionally, it is appropriate to provide that pet dogs, cats and ferrets from Northern Ireland, which travel to other parts of the United Kingdom and then return directly to Northern Ireland should only be identified by a transponder.
- (21) At the same time, appropriate safeguards for the Union should be in place in order to ensure that the application of the specific rules laid down in this Regulation does not increase risks to animal or plant health on the island of Ireland, does not adversely affect the SPS status of the island of Ireland, does not increase the risk to public, animal and plant health in the internal market or increase the risk that fishery products originating from illegal, unreported or unregulated fishing are put on the internal market, and does not adversely affect the level of consumer protection in the internal market or its integrity.
- (22) Therefore, it is appropriate to provide that the specific rules on consignments of retail goods, plants for planting, seed potatoes, machinery and vehicles which have been operated for agricultural or forestry purposes, and the specific rules on the non-commercial movement of pet dogs, cats and ferrets, only start to apply once the Commission has received appropriate written guarantees from the United Kingdom and has examined whether the conditions for applying the specific rules have been met. In that event, the Commission should be empowered to adopt implementing acts in order to lay down the operational rules necessary for the implementation of the specific rules, including the frequency of checks, model forms of certificates and plant health labels, and requirements for markings.

- (23) In addition, it is appropriate to require the Commission to adopt implementing acts laying down safeguard measures to address specific problems arising in the context of the operation of the rules laid down in this Regulation where there is evidence that the United Kingdom does not take appropriate measures to tackle serious or repeated infringements of the conditions laid down in this Regulation.
- (24) Furthermore, it is appropriate to require the Commission to adopt delegated acts to suspend the application of some or all of the specific rules laid down in this Regulation where an essential precondition for the operation of those specific rules is not or no longer fulfilled, such as the completion of the SPS Inspection Facilities, or in the case of systemic failure by the United Kingdom to comply with the specific rules laid down in this Regulation. In such an event, it is appropriate to provide for a formal information and consultation mechanism with clear time periods within which the Commission should act.
- (25) In the case of the suspension of the specific rules laid down in this Regulation on the entry of consignments of retail goods into Northern Ireland from other parts of the United Kingdom, the rules laid down in the Union acts or parts thereof listed in Annex 2 to the Protocol and listed in Annex I to this Regulation should apply again to such consignments.

- (26) In order to amend Annexes I to V to this Regulation, in particular, to adapt the list of Union acts or parts thereof the provisions of which the specific rules derogate from, to lay down further details regarding the operation of the specific rules concerning the SPS Inspection Facilities, the listing of establishments, the monitoring mechanisms, and the marking of retail goods in accordance with appropriate criteria and in order to allow the Commission to take suspension measures in the case of the systemic failure of the United Kingdom to comply with the rules laid down in this Regulation, the power to adopt acts in accordance with Article 290 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union should be delegated to the Commission. An urgency procedure should also be provided for in order to ensure an effective and quick reaction to the existence of an increased risk to animal, plant or public health. It is of particular importance that the Commission carry out appropriate consultations during its preparatory work, including at expert level, and that those consultations be conducted in accordance with the principles laid down in the Interinstitutional Agreement of 13 April 2016 on Better Law-Making¹. In particular to ensure equal participation in the preparation of delegated acts, the European Parliament and the Council should receive all documents at the same time as Member States' experts, and their experts systematically have access to meeting of Commission expert groups dealing with the preparation of delegated acts.

- (27) In order to ensure uniform conditions for the implementation of this Regulation, in particular regarding the special rates of official controls and the general certificate, including its model form, the list of commodities of animal or plant origin or composite products originating in third countries that may be used for the production of retail goods to which the specific rules laid down in this Regulation should apply, the list of flag States of the vessels which catch fishery products to which the specific rules should apply, the model form of the plant health label for plants for planting, machinery and vehicles which have been operated for agricultural or forestry purposes, and for seed potatoes, the information to be included in the pet travel document and appropriate special conditions and safeguard measures to address specific problems arising in the context of the operation of the rules laid down in this Regulation where there is evidence that the United Kingdom does not take appropriate measures to tackle serious or repeated infringements of the conditions laid down in this Regulation, implementing powers should be conferred on the Commission¹.
- (28) In order to ensure an effective and quick reaction to an increased risk to animal, plant or public health or consumer protection, implementing powers should be conferred on the Commission to lay down emergency measures. Those powers should be exercised in accordance with Council Regulation (EU) No 182/2011².
- (28a) Since the objectives of this Regulation cannot be sufficiently achieved by the Member States but can rather, by reason of the scale or effects of the action, be better achieved at Union level, the Union may adopt measures, in accordance with the principle of subsidiarity as set out in Article 5 of the Treaty on European Union. In accordance with the principle of proportionality, as set out in that Article, this Regulation does not go beyond what is necessary in order to achieve those objectives.

² Regulation (EU) No 182/2011 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 16 February 2011 laying down the rules and the general principles concerning the mechanisms for control by Member States of the Commission's exercise of implementing powers (OJ L 55, 28.2.2011, p. 13).

- (29) It is appropriate to provide for a transitional period for the application of marking requirements to retail goods which are already on the market.
