Subject: Proposal for a Regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council establishing the 'AgoraEU' programme for the period 2028-2034, and repealing Regulations (EU) 2021/692 and (EU) 2021/818
- Partial general approach

I. INTRODUCTION

1. On 16 July 2025, the European Commission adopted a proposal for the Multiannual Financial Framework for the period 2028-2034, including a proposal for a Regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council establishing the 'AgoraEU' programme.

2. The AgoraEU programme aims to reinforce culture, media and civic participation in order to ensure the resilience of European democracies. It builds on the achievements of the Creative Europe and Citizens, Equality, Rights and Values (CERV) programmes from the current financing period.
3. The proposal is structured on three main strands, each pertaining to a different objective:
 - Creative Europe – Culture would contribute to cross-border cultural creation and cooperation;
 - MEDIA+ would enhance the diversity and competitiveness of the audiovisual and video games industries; as well as support free and independent journalism and news media;
 - CERV+ would promote fundamental rights and equality; prevent discrimination, enhance democratic participation, and uphold the rule of law.

II. WORK AT OTHER INSTITUTIONS

4. In the European Parliament, the proposal is being examined jointly by the Culture and Education (CULT) and Civil Liberties, Justice and Home Affairs (LIBE) Committees. The Rapporteurs are Emma Rafowicz (S&D) for CULT and Alice Kuhnke (Greens/EFA) for LIBE.
5. The European Economic and Social Committee adopted its opinion on the proposal on 4 December 2025¹.
6. The Committee of the Regions is expected to adopt its opinion on 4-5 May 2026.

III. WORK WITHIN THE COUNCIL AND ITS PREPARATORY BODIES

7. In the Council, the examination of the proposal has been carried out in the Cultural Affairs Committee (CAC), in close cooperation with members of the Audiovisual and Media Working Party and of the Working Party on Fundamental Rights, Citizens' Rights and Free Movement of Persons.
8. The examination of the proposal started in September 2025 and was carried out during the Danish and Cyprus presidencies, in twelve CAC meetings. A progress report² was submitted by the Danish Presidency at the EYCS Council on 28 November.
9. The Cyprus Presidency produced five compromise texts, which were examined in CAC on 19-21 January, 16 February, 11 March, 27 and 31 March and 17 April 2026, with a final compromise found at CAC on 17 April. To facilitate negotiations, the Presidency also produced an explanatory note on the newly introduced definition of cultural and creative sectors.
10. On 29 April 2026, the Permanent Representatives Committee examined the compromise text as set out in the Annex to this note. All delegations were able to support the text, with the exception of one delegation who raised a reservation.

IV. MAIN ELEMENTS OF THE PRESIDENCY COMPROMISE

11. The Presidency considers that the text in Annex³ represents a finely balanced compromise reflecting the different positions of Member States.
12. Since the proposed Regulation is part of the package of proposals linked to the Multiannual Financial Framework (MFF), all the provisions in the text with budgetary implications or corresponding to the elements that form part of horizontal negotiations on the MFF have been bracketed and are therefore excluded from the partial general approach pending further progress on the MFF. These provisions, which appear between square brackets in the text, concern recital 4 (financial envelope), recital 30 (implementation in accordance with the European Competitiveness Fund InvestEU Instrument), recital 31 (budgetary guarantee or financial instrument), recital 35 (accordance with the Performance Regulation), recital 40 (duration), Article 1 (duration), Article 11 (budget) and Article 15 (budgetary guarantee or financial instrument). The opportunity of indicative allocations by programme strand was discussed in the Ad Hoc Working Party on the Multiannual Financial Framework (AHWP MFF) on 24 March 2026.
13. The structure of the Regulation was kept as in the Commission proposal, namely seven chapters and three main “strands” (Creative Europe – Culture, MEDIA+ and CERV+).

³ Changes in comparison to the Commission proposal are marked with bold underline for additions and ~~strikethrough~~ for deletions.

14. The key issues covered by the Presidency compromise are the following:

a) General provisions

A new definition was added for the ‘cultural and creative sectors’ in Article 2 (‘Definitions’), inspired by the corresponding definition from the Creative Europe Programme 2021 – 2027. This definition explains the main qualities of the sectors and provides a non-exhaustive list of sectors concerned. Several amendments were made throughout the whole text to align wording with this definition. New recitals 6a and 6b were added to explain the logic behind the definition and the distinction between the Creative Europe-Culture and MEDIA+ strands.

In Article 3 (‘Programme objectives’), a reference to the importance of protecting and promoting Union values was added in the introductory description of the CERV+ strand.

b) Creative Europe-Culture strand

For the Creative Europe- Culture strand, new recital 8a specifies that sectorial approaches should complement actions encompassing all covered sectors, providing for more targeted actions.

c) MEDIA+ strand

For the MEDIA+ strand, following requests by many delegations and intensive negotiations, a paragraph was added in relation to the notion of “level-playing field” in Article 5 (‘Audiovisual’), using almost identical language as in the current Creative Europe Programme. A corresponding reference was added to recital 12.

Also in Article 5, a reference was added on independent productions and co-productions, with corresponding language in recital 12.

For the ‘news’ specific objective, recital 13a was added to place more emphasis on media independence and sustainability, referencing Regulation (EU) 2024/1083 (European Media Freedom Act).

d) CERV+ strand

Regarding the CERV+ strand, in Article 8 ('Daphne'), following calls from many delegations, a reference was added to Directive (EU) 2024/1385 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 14 May 2024 on combating violence against women and domestic violence. A similar reference was added to Recital 18.

Recital 15, which builds on the treaty-based principles of equality and non-discrimination, was subject to intensive debate. While some delegations preferred to keep a detailed list of forms of discrimination in the text, along the lines of the Commission proposal, others wished to use more generic language, while also highlighting some specific forms of discrimination from the original list in the proposal. The compromise in the text in Annex was found after lengthy negotiations.

New recitals 16a and 16b were added to highlight the protection and promotion of the rights of the child (16a) and of persons with disabilities (16b).

e) Cross-cutting and horizontal priorities and activities

In Article 10 ('Cross-cutting and horizontal priorities and activities'), a new paragraph was added referring to 'AgoraEU Desks' and describing their main responsibilities. More details about the desks and their envisaged functioning were provided in recital 36.

f) Governance

Building on the compromise text proposed by the Danish Presidency in their Progress Report in November 2025, a new article 17a - with corresponding recital 38a - were added to the text, introducing a committee procedure. In article 17, it was specified that work programmes shall be adopted by the Commission by means of implementing acts, in accordance with the examination procedure.

g) Other issues

As the proposal did not include an Annex with a more detailed description of programme actions, references to specific actions which delegations considered needed highlighting were added throughout the text.

New recitals were also added to respond to delegations' request for more emphasis on the following matters: the specificities of outermost regions (recital 27a); user-friendly application and reporting procedure and possibility of regranting (recital 27b); impact, quality and relevance as key evaluation criteria for projects (recital 27c); respect for Union values relevant in the implementation of the budget (recital 33a); cross-cutting and horizontal activities tackling common challenges such as AI (recital 35a) and the use of digital technologies in cultural and creative sectors (recital 35b).

For those standard provisions that appear in several other MFF sectoral programmes (for AgoraEU: recitals 6, 33, 34, 36a, 37, 38a and 40, and articles 12 to 20), language was adjusted to reflect standard formulations.

V. CONCLUSION

The Council (EYCS) is invited to reach a partial general approach on the text as set out in the Annex to this note.

Whereas:

1. Pursuant to Article 2 of the Treaty on European Union (TEU), the Union is founded on the values of respect for human dignity, freedom, democracy, equality, the rule of law and the respect for human rights, including the rights of persons belonging to minorities, which are common to the Member States in a society in which pluralism, non-discrimination, tolerance, justice, solidarity and equality between women and men prevail ('Union values'). The Union values are reflected in the rights, freedoms and principles set out in the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union (the 'Charter'). Article 3 TEU further mandates the Union to promote peace, its values and the well-being of its peoples, to promote the protection of the rights of the child, to respect its rich cultural and linguistic diversity and to ensure that Europe's cultural heritage is safeguarded and enhanced. Article 10 TEU further states that the functioning of the Union shall be founded on representative democracy, that citizens are directly represented at Union level in the European Parliament and that citizens have the right to participate in the democratic life of the Union. Article 20 TFEU establishes Union citizenship and sets out important rights that citizens of the Union shall, inter alia, enjoy.

2. Culture, ~~and~~ media and promotion and respect of Union values are all key crucial components of a free, fair, diverse, inclusive and cohesive Union. Citizens' participation and engagement, in due respect of Union values, constitutes the basis of the democratic life of the Union, with culture and media playing a crucial role in shaping public opinion and free debate. Audiovisual works and all other forms of cultural and creative expressions, as well as including cultural heritage, are essential to Europe's diversity and to forging societal resilience and mutual understanding among European citizens and communities.

3. The 'AgoraEU' Programme (the 'Programme'), building on the achievements of the Creative Europe and Citizens, Equality, Rights and Values (CERV) programmes, will provide a significant contribution to the attainment and realisation of ~~these~~ those objectives, rights and values.

4. The Programme should succeed the Creative Europe Programme established by Regulation (EU) 2021/818 of the European Parliament and the Council⁶ and the Citizens, Equality, Rights and Values Programme, established by Regulation (EU) 2021/692 of the European Parliament and of the Council⁷. It should streamline various funding actions in support of media freedom and pluralism, fight against disinformation in support of the provision on information on Union affairs. Free and pluralistic media and civil society are among the key watchdogs of the Union’s democratic systems, playing a crucial role for democratic resilience, and should be supported. The Programme should also support the cultural, creative and media sectors, preserve and promote the intrinsic value of culture, harness the power of culture and cultural diversity, enhance the media and information space, and support the Union’s efforts to strengthen a rights-based, inclusive, equal and democratic society. [This Regulation lays down an indicative financial envelope for the ‘AgoraEU’ Programme⁸. For the purpose of this Regulation, current prices are calculated by applying a fixed 2% deflator.]

⁶ Regulation (EU) 2021/818 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 20 May 2021 establishing the Creative Europe Programme (2021 to 2027) and repealing Regulation (EU) No 1295/2013 (OJ L 189, 28.5.2021, p. 34, ELI: <http://data.europa.eu/eli/reg/2021/818/oj>).

5. To be effective, the Programme should take into account the specific nature and challenges of the different policy areas and sectors, their different target groups and their particular needs through targeted approaches.
6. In a fast changing economic, social and geopolitical environment, ~~the~~ recent experience has shown the need for a more flexible multiannual financial framework and its programmes. To that effect, and in line with the objectives of the ‘AgoraEU’ Programme, the funding will take due account of the evolving policy needs and Union’s priorities as identified in relevant documents published by the Commission, in Council conclusions and European Parliament resolutions, while ensuring sufficient predictability for the implementation.

6a. The cultural and creative sectors encompass all forms of expression and manifestation related to arts, culture, cultural heritage, as well as audiovisual and media. The Programme should take into account the dual nature of these sectors, recognising, on the one hand, the intrinsic and artistic value of culture and, on the other, the economic value of those sectors, including their broader contribution to growth, competitiveness, creativity and innovation. This is in line with the 2005 UNESCO Convention on the Protection and Promotion of the Diversity of Cultural Expressions, which entered into force on 18 March 2007 and to which the Union and its Member States are parties.

6b. For the purposes of implementation, the Programme should take into account the specific nature, challenges, policy frameworks and particular needs of the different cultural and creative sectors. Thus, these are addressed through a strand dedicated to the audiovisual and news media sectors (the ‘MEDIA+ strand’) and a strand dedicated to the other cultural and creative sectors (the ‘Creative Europe - Culture strand’).

7. The cultural and creative sectors covered by the Creative Europe – Culture strand should, including, inter alia, architecture, archives, libraries and museums, artistic crafts, tangible and intangible cultural heritage, design (including fashion design), festivals, music, literature, performing arts, books, publishing, and visual arts. performing arts (such as theatre and dance), literature and book publishing, music, visual arts, tangible and intangible cultural heritage, architecture, archives, libraries and museums, crafts and design (including fashion design). They are manifestations of culture serve as a ‘public good’, often rely on intellectual property rights, generating generate meaning, and embodying the values of the Union and contribute to the protection and promotion of cultural rights as a way to enhance access to and participation in culture. They are also a great asset for the Union and its regions, attracting sustainable tourism and projecting the image of a dynamic continent on the world stage.

7a. The Programme should fully recognise and emphasise these sectors’ intrinsic and artistic value. At the same time, it The Programme should acknowledge take into account, on the one hand, their intrinsic and artistic value, as well as, on the other hand, their extrinsic social and economic contributions, including to social and territorial cohesion, democratic values, well-being and health, EU’s resilience, sustainable growth, and job creation, competitiveness, creativity, and innovation and the green transition.

8. These ~~cultural and creative~~ sectors are ~~however~~ fragmented along national and linguistic lines within the Union. They also face multiple challenges, such as attacks on freedom of artistic expression, precarious working conditions, digital transformations with the increasing role of digital platforms and the rise of artificial intelligence (AI), and the need to mitigate and adapt to climate change. The Programme should help those sectors respond to such challenges, untap their full potential and project themselves resolutely into the future while ensuring the widest participation, including from local and regional actors, through various channels and formats.

8a. The Creative Europe - Culture Strand should include actions encompassing all the sectors it covers. To complement this horizontal approach, sectorial approaches should be supported for those sectors whose shared needs and specific challenges within the Union require a more targeted approach, such as music, book publishing and libraries. These more targeted actions may take various forms including cultural prizes, thematic activities, as well as capacity building and peer learning activities.

9. The ideals, principles and values embedded in Europe's cultural heritage constitute a shared source of remembrance, understanding, identity, dialogue, cohesion and creativity for Europe. Europe's cultural heritage, whether tangible or intangible, is a shared and priceless legacy facing budget constraints, natural and human-induced disasters, climate change, and regional conflicts. It is important to safeguard and preserve such a legacy, enhancing access and fostering a collective European identity. Ensuring open and inclusive access to cultural heritage is essential, including through appropriate training for heritage professionals. Digital preservation further ensures that future generations can learn from, appreciate, and draw inspiration from their cultural heritage.

10. The Programme should also give financial support to the European Heritage Label and the European Capitals of Culture actions, which that celebrate and ~~preserve~~ safeguard Europe's rich cultural diversity and heritage, connecting it to the local level and contributing to culture-driven development strategies.
11. The MEDIA+ strand covers media, including audiovisual and news media sectors. It supports, Europe's media sectors hold a unique position in our democracies, culture, and economies. They encompass, inter alia, content such as films, series, documentaries, animation, video games and immersive reality, news and information, ~~immersive reality and multimedia,~~ as well as services including theatrical exhibition, television and radio broadcasting, podcasts, print and online publishing, ~~advertising online videos and podcasts.~~ Media sectors hold a unique position in our democracies, culture and economies. These sectors often rely on intellectual property rights. The digital transformation, notably the rise of artificial intelligence, has accelerated media convergence, changed consumer behaviour, disrupted business and revenue models, as well as intellectual property management and exploitation. The Union should therefore support the sustainability and competitiveness of the media sectors and help the Union's media them thrive. The Union should foster creativity and innovation and enhance access to finance, promote synergies ~~cross fertilisation~~ between news, audiovisual and other media sectors and support collaborations between different types of media entities across the Union. Any type of media support or funding in participating countries should fully respect media freedom and independence.

12. The Union audiovisual sector faces persistent challenges stemming from limited cross-border circulation, shifting consumption habits and the dominance of non-Union players. Given these challenges, Union intervention should support the capacity of European audiovisual and video games sectors industries to create, finance, produce and disseminate European works, including heritage works on all platforms that are available and attractive to audiences within the Union and beyond. Support for creation encompasses, inter alia, support for scriptwriting, development, and production of audiovisual works, primarily support to coproductions and independent production. As market conditions and audiovisual operators continue to evolve, specific criteria for defining what constitutes an independent production company should be provided in the context of the implementation of the Programme. † Union intervention should further foster transmedia adaptations of intellectual property between different media formats, contribute to promoting collaboration among Member States with different market capacities, promote wider participation by entities from markets of different sizes and accompany the Union's audiovisual regulatory framework. The MEDIA+ strand should take into account differences across countries regarding the production, distribution, access to, and consumption of audiovisual works and content, thereby contributing to a more level playing field, broadening the participation of, and increasing collaboration among countries with different audiovisual capacities.

13. News media outlets and journalists across the Union are under increasing pressure, notably owing due to the rise of global online platforms and the impact of AI services, shifting consumption habits and the growing spread of disinformation. These challenges impact news revenues and distribution, undermining the viability and public trust in news media outlets, and limiting citizens' access to diverse, professionally produced European journalistic content. The Union should support a viable, reliable, independent and diverse information ecosystem, protect journalists under threat and promote their safety. It should, promote media freedom and pluralism, and reinforce the integrity of the media and information space, by. It should pursue these objectives by, inter alia, supporting modernisation of professional news media, including through innovative practices that enhance journalistic work and by reinforcing the role of local media in safeguarding democratic debate, in particular in news deserts. The Union should also promoting measures and enhancing cooperation aimed at tackling disinformation and supporting digital and media literacy for all citizens, across all age groups and vulnerable groups, including for young people. Support to news media should contribute to the promotion and protection of regulatory and recognised self-regulatory standards, thus advancing the role of professional journalism and trustworthy and reliable news content.

13a. Media in the Union increasingly operate on a cross-border basis and contribute to the functioning of the internal market. Recent Union initiatives, in particular Regulation (EU) 2024/1083 (European Media Freedom Act), aim to address obstacles to the free provision of media services and to enhance transparency, legal certainty and fair competition across the Union. The MEDIA+ objectives should be coherent with Directive No. 2010/13/EU and Regulation (EU) 2024/1083 and should place emphasis on media independence and sustainability.

14. Democracies in the Union are facing increasing challenges. Declining trust of citizens in democratic institutions and processes is exacerbated by disinformation, social polarisation and hatred impacting the electoral and other democratic processes. A whole of society rights-based approach is needed to make European democracy more resilient.

15. The protection and promotion of fundamental rights contributes to the construction of a more democratic Union. Non-discrimination and equality are is a core principles of the Union that are enshrined in Article 8, 10 and 19 TFEU and in Articles 21 and 23 of the Charter, and included in Article 2 TEU. Working towards an equal and discrimination-free society contributes to untapping the potential of individuals in their diversity and to cultural, economic and social growth. It also helps to address important root causes of gender-based violence and violence against vulnerable groups, as such violence which in turn is a frontal attack on equality. Accordingly, ~~Therefore,~~ the Programme should promote actions to address all forms of discrimination and intolerance, namely direct and indirect discrimination, offline and online. In so doing, it should, paying attention to the specific forms of structural and intersectional discrimination, with a view to advancing equality and non-discrimination mainstreaming and supporting relevant Union policy frameworks. In implementing the core principles of the Union, ~~t~~The Programme should support actions to prevent and combat antisemitism and all forms of racism and xenophobia ~~and racism,~~ ~~antisemitism~~ including but not limited to anti-Black racism, anti-Asian racism, and anti-Muslim hatred, intolerance towards persons belonging to minorities, including Roma, and other forms of intolerance and discrimination, as well as hate speech. It should also support actions to prevent and combat homophobia, biphobia, transphobia, interphobia and intolerance and discrimination based on gender identity, ~~intolerance~~ ~~towards persons belonging to minorities, including Roma, as well as hate speech.~~ The Programme should also contribute to enabling the Union to deliver on the commitment taken as party to the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities adopted on 13 December 2006⁹ to promote, protect and ensure the full and equal enjoyment of all human rights and fundamental freedoms by all persons with disabilities.

16. The rights to respect for private and family life ~~privacy~~ and the protection of personal data, enshrined ~~respectively~~ in Article 7 of the Charter and in Article 16 TFEU and Article 8 of the Charter respectively, are enforced through a dedicated Regulation¹⁰ and Directive¹¹. The Union's legal framework lays down provisions to ensure that the right to protection of personal data is effectively protected. These legal instruments entrust the national data protection supervisory authorities with the task of promoting public awareness and understanding of the risks, rules, safeguards and rights in relation to the processing of personal data. The Programme should contribute to raising awareness and, carry out studies and other relevant activities in this field. This should be done, for instance, ~~including~~ through the national data protection supervisory authorities, given the importance of the right to the protection of personal data in times of rapid technological developments.

16a. Children are fully-fledged holders of rights and protection and promotion of the rights of the child, including child participation, is a key objective of the European Union. Article 3 TEU requires the Union, inter alia, to promote the protection of the rights of the child, in line with Article 24 of the Charter and with the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child.

16b. The protection and promotion of the rights of persons with disabilities, as well as their full participation in society, constitute one of the key objectives of the European Union as enshrined in Article 10 of the TFEU and Article 26 of the Charter. The Programme should also contribute to enabling the Union and the Member States to deliver on the commitment taken as parties to the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (UNCRPD)¹² to promote, protect and ensure the full and equal enjoyment of all human rights and fundamental freedoms by all persons with disabilities.

17. Gender equality is a fundamental value right and an objective of the Union and should be ~~supported~~ promoted by the Programme. Despite many achievements, significant challenges remain, which require additional ~~to reinforce the Union's commitment~~ by the Union. This includes: working towards freedom from all types of gender-based violence, including domestic violence, sexual violence and cyberviolence; promoting the highest standards of health, including in particular sexual and reproductive health and rights; equal pay and economic empowerment; work-life balance and ~~care~~ the equal sharing of care responsibilities between women and men; equal participation in the labour market; ~~employment;~~ career opportunities and fair working conditions; quality, accessible and inclusive education; political participation and equal representation; effective institutional mechanisms that deliver on women's rights; actively tackling gender stereotypes; and addressing intersectional discrimination. The Programme should support the promotion of gender equality and gender mainstreaming, which is an objective of the Union in all its activities.

18. Gender-based violence and violence against women, children, young persons and other groups at risk, such as LGBTIQ persons and persons with disabilities, constitute a serious violation of fundamental rights and continue to persist throughout the Union, in all social and economic contexts. Preventing and addressing such violence requires sustained support for women's rights organisations, women's specialist services and other organisations supporting victims of violence, which serve as frontline responders across Member States and possess the specialised expertise necessary to tackle the root causes and manifestations of gender-based violence and other forms of violence. Violence against women and persons belonging to other groups at risk is a violation of human rights and a frontal attack on equality. Thus, preventing and addressing such violence is a societal imperative. This and contributes to tackling such discrimination as well as addressing the impacts of violence, including on health. At the same time, ensuring a discrimination-free society will also help address the root causes of violence against vulnerable groups, since they are intrinsically linked. Therefore, the Programme should continue the longstanding Union efforts ~~to in preventing, responding to and fighting~~ violence at all levels, including through preventive work with perpetrators of violence, as well as ~~in protecting and supporting all direct and indirect victims and survivors of~~ violence, building on the five consecutive generations of the Daphne programme and strand¹³. The Programme should support the achievement of the objectives of the Council of Europe Convention on preventing and combating violence against women and domestic violence adopted in Istanbul on 11 May 2011, and of the Directive (EU) 2024/1385, as well as the implementation of the Commission Recommendation on developing and strengthening integrated child protection systems in the best interests of the child¹⁴, which protects children from any form of violence. It should also help, ~~as well as contribute to enabling~~ the Union to deliver on the commitment taken as ~~a P~~ party to the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities, which protects persons with disabilities against any form of exploitation, violence and abuse.

19. In accordance with Union acquis on equal treatment, the Member States have set up independent bodies for the promotion of equal treatment ('equality bodies'), which play a key role in promoting equality and ensuring the effective application of equal treatment legislation. In addition ~~Further~~, the Programme should support the European Network of Equality Bodies (Equinet) composed of the national equality bodies as provided for by Council Directive (EU) 2024/1499¹⁵ and Directive (EU) 2024/1500 of the European Parliament and of the Council¹⁶. This is due to the fact that ~~since~~ Equinet is the only entity which ensures cooperation and promotes capacity-building and the coordination of activities between equality bodies. This is of key importance for the effective implementation of Union anti-discrimination law in the Member States.
20. Citizens throughout the Union, many of whom regularly or at least occasionally travel to, live, study, work or do voluntary work ~~volunteer~~ in another Member State, should feel able to enjoy and exercise their citizenship rights and to place their trust in equal access, full enforceability and protection of their rights without any discrimination, no matter where in the Union they happen to be. Citizens should be more aware of their rights deriving from citizenship of the Union, namely their right to move and reside freely in the Union, their voting rights when residing in another Member State, their right to petition the European Parliament in any of the official languages, their right to submit citizens' initiatives and their right to lodge complaints with the European ombudsman against institutional maladministration.

21. Encouraging citizens to play a more active role in democracy at Union level will strengthen European civil society and foster the development of a European identity. Civil society, including small and grassroots civil society organisations, therefore needs to be supported and empowered in promoting, safeguarding and raising awareness of Union values and in contributing to the effective enjoyment of rights under Union law. When Union citizens participate in the democratic life of the Union, they contribute to making a ~~reality~~ representative democracy, a reality. This is a principle on which the functioning of the Union is founded and which gives concrete expression to the value of democracy enshrined in Article 2 TEU.
22. In order to bring the Union closer to its citizens and to encourage ~~foster~~ democratic participation, a variety of actions and coordinated efforts are necessary. There is a need to encourage citizens' understanding of the policy-making process so as to promote a greater understanding and awareness of European citizenship and European identity, ~~should be developed and advanced by encouraging citizens' understanding of the policy-making process, and by~~ Equally there is a need to ~~promoting~~ civic engagement in the actions of the Union. Activities focused on R~~emembrance activities~~ and critical reflection on Europe's historical memory, raising, for instance, greater awareness of the impact of authoritarian and totalitarian regimes, are necessary in order to make citizens aware of the common European history. Such activities also help, ~~and to~~ lay the foundation for a common future and shared values. Furthermore, supporting and empowering civil society organisations at local, regional, national and transnational level in the areas covered by the Programme will contribute to increasing citizens' engagement in society and ultimately to their active involvement in the democratic life of the Union. At the same time, supporting activities such as town-twinning and network of towns that promote mutual understanding, intercultural dialogue, cultural and linguistic diversity, social inclusion and respect for others promotes ~~fosters~~ a sense of belonging to the Union and a sense of a common citizenship under a European identity, based on a shared understanding of our common European values, culture, history and heritage.

23. Civil society organisations, and other civic space actors, such as independent human rights bodies, equality bodies and Ombudspersons institutions, play a vital role in contributing to the implementation of policy, encouraging people’s participation, holding institutions accountable, and driving positive change, including through advocacy, strategic litigation, campaigning, communication and other watchdog activities. The Programme should help ensure sufficient resources for such actors, contributing to and an enabling environment in which they can for them to operate independently, freely, safely, effectively, and support a thriving civic space. To this end, Union funding should complement efforts at national level by supporting, protecting, empowering and building their capacity, as emphasised in the European Parliament resolution of 19 April 2018¹⁷, as well as Council conclusions of 10 March 2023¹⁸ and 7 March 2025¹⁹. Civil society also plays an important role in ensuring an effective implementation of Directive (EU) 2019/1937 of the European Parliament and of the Council²⁰ by encouraging fostering a “speak-up” culture and a favourable environment for whistleblowers. The Programme should also ensure an open, safe and enabling civic space by providing support and protection to civil society organisations, including support for actions designed to prevent and address strategic lawsuits against public participation (SLAPPs), in full complementarity with the Justice Programme. The Programme should also support structured and continuous dialogue with civil society organisations.

24. The Court of Justice of the European Union has confirmed that the Union is a legal structure that is based on the fundamental premise that each Member State shares with all the other Member States, and recognises that they share with it, the common values contained in Article 2 TEU, on which the Union is founded²¹. That premise is based on the specific and essential characteristics of Union law, including the autonomy it enjoys in relation to the laws of the Member States and to international law. That premise implies and justifies the existence of mutual trust between the Member States that those values will be recognised and, therefore, that the Union law that implements them will be respected. It follows that compliance by a Member State with the values contained in Article 2 TEU is a condition for the enjoyment of all the rights deriving from the application of the Treaties to that Member State. The Court of Justice of the European Union has therefore confirmed that, as a matter of principle, in the areas for which the Union is competent, it can take action to ensure respect for the values set out in Article 2 TEU.
25. ~~At a time when~~ European societies face challenges that affect democracies, such as rise of extremisms and intolerance, disinformation and foreign information manipulation and interference by hostile actors, ~~It is~~ therefore crucial that Union values such as respect for fundamental rights, equality, including gender equality and democracy, continue to be actively cultivated, protected, promoted, enforced, and shared among citizens and peoples as well as structured civil society dialogue, so that those values remain at the heart of the Union project. A deterioration in their protection in any Member State can have detrimental effects on the Union as a whole. It is therefore crucial that this Programme contributes to protecting Union values, including respect for fundamental rights, equality, ~~and~~ democracy and the rule of law.

26. There are ~~In light of increasing~~ risks linked to natural hazards, climate and environmental disasters, health emergencies, technological accidents, evolving security threats, and other disruptions.⁵ Accordingly, it is essential to enhance the Union's and Member States' capability to anticipate, prepare for, and respond to crises. The Programme should therefore support citizens' education and engagement on crisis preparedness, including in the cultural and creative sectors, thus enhancing societal resilience.
27. In view of the above ~~Hence,~~ the Programme should ~~also~~ support actions ~~to aiming at~~ safeguarding and strengthening democracy in the Union, including local democracy initiatives and community building. It can do so by reinforcing public trust in democracy and democratic institutions, strengthening democratic preparedness and resilience, and encouraging ~~fostering~~ citizens' engagement, and participation. The Programme should also promote ~~and~~ Europe's historical memory, awareness of common history and values, ~~thereby supporting~~ and encourage citizens' ~~to~~ exercise of their rights, including their electoral rights, in full respect of Member States' competences in the organisation of elections. Additionally, it ~~The Programme should~~ encourage ~~also contribute to fostering~~ critical thinking, civic participation and democracy through education as a lifelong effort, so that all citizens develop ~~have~~ the skills to better recognise foreign information, manipulation and interference and disinformation.
- 27a. The Programme should allow for a broad participation of organisations. The specificities of the outermost regions referred to in Article 349 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (TFEU) should be taken into account.

27b. The Programme should be implemented in a user-friendly way, including through a user-friendly application and reporting procedure. Particular attention should be paid to the accessibility of the Programme for organisations, including local grassroots civil society organisations at local, regional, national and transnational level, as well as to the capacity of beneficiaries. When considering the accessibility of the programme for organisations, consideration should be given to the provision of financial support to third parties as set out in Article 207 of Regulation (EU, Euratom) 2024/2509 ('regranting'), where appropriate.

27c. Impact, quality and relevance should constitute key evaluation criteria for the selection of the projects under the Programme.

28. The Programme should promote foster synergies and complementarity with Global Europe as ~~it~~ this will contribute to the advancement of the Union's international cultural relations and help achieve the Union's external action objectives through cultural cooperation.

29. The Programme should also support the financing of technical and organisational support for the implementation of Regulation (EU)2019/788 of the European Parliament and of the Council²², thereby underpinning the exercise by citizens of the right to launch and support European citizens' initiatives. Together with the other rights set out in Article 24 TFEU, that right ensures citizens' direct participation in the democratic life of the Union.

30. [To ensure consistency, the budgetary guarantee and financial instruments under the Programme, including when combined with other forms of non-repayable support in blending operations, should be implemented in accordance with the applicable rules of the European Competitiveness Fund (ECF) InvestEU Instrument through agreements concluded for that type of support under the ECF InvestEU Instrument.]

31. [Where Union support under the Programme is to be provided in the form of a budgetary guarantee or a financial instrument, including where combined with non-repayable support in a blending operation, it is necessary that such support is provided exclusively through the ECF InvestEU Instrument in accordance with the applicable rules of the ECF InvestEU Instrument.]
32. The Commission should be able to divide budgetary commitments into annual instalments. In that case, the Commission should commit the annual instalments during the implementation of the Programme, taking into account the progress of the actions that receive financial assistance, their estimated needs and the budget available.
33. Regulation (EU, Euratom) 2024/2509 of the European Parliament and of the Council²³ applies to the Programme. It lays down the rules on the establishment and the implementation of the general budget of the Union, including the rules on grants, prizes, non-financial donations, procurement, indirect implementation, financial assistance, financial instruments and budgetary guarantees.

34. In accordance with Regulation (EU, Euratom) 2024/2509, Regulation (EU, Euratom) No 883/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council²⁴, Council Regulation (EC, Euratom) No 2988/95²⁵, Council Regulation (Euratom, EC) No 2185/96²⁶ and Council Regulation (EU) 2017/1939²⁷, the financial interests of the Union are to be protected through proportionate measures, including the prevention, detection, correction and investigation of irregularities and fraud, the recovery of funds lost, wrongly paid or incorrectly used and, where appropriate, the imposition of administrative sanctions. In particular, in accordance with Regulations (EU, Euratom) No 883/2013 and (Euratom, EC) No 2185/96, the European Anti-Fraud Office ('OLAF') may carry out investigations, including on-the-spot checks and inspections, with a view to establishing whether there has been fraud, corruption or any other illegal activity affecting the financial interests of the Union. In accordance with Regulation (EU) 2017/1939, the European Public Prosecutor's Office (EPPO) may investigate and prosecute fraud and other illegal activities affecting the financial interests of the Union as provided for in Directive (EU) 2017/1371 of the European Parliament and of the Council²⁸. In accordance with Regulation (EU, Euratom) 2024/2509, any person or entity receiving Union funds is to fully cooperate in the protection of the Union's financial interests, to grant the necessary rights and access to the Commission, OLAF, EPPO and the European Court of Auditors and to ensure that any third parties involved in the implementation of Union funds grant equivalent rights.

²⁴ Regulation (EU, Euratom) No 883/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 11 September 2013 concerning investigations conducted by the European Anti-Fraud Office (OLAF) and repealing Regulation (EC) No 1073/1999 of the European Parliament and of the Council and Council Regulation (Euratom) No 1074/1999 (OJ L248, 18.9.2013, p. 1, ELI: <http://data.europa.eu/eli/reg/2013/883/oj>).

Third countries participating in the Programme are to grant the necessary rights and access required for the authorising officer responsible, OLAF and the Court of Auditors to comprehensively exercise their respective competences.

35. [The Programme is to be implemented in accordance with Regulation (EU) [XXX]* of the European Parliament and of the Council [Performance] which establishes the rules for the expenditure tracking and the performance framework for the budget, including rules for ensuring a uniform application of the principles of ‘do no significant harm’ and gender equality referred to in Article 33(2), points (d) and (f), of Regulation (EU, Euratom) 2024/2509 respectively, rules for monitoring and reporting on the performance of Union programmes and activities, rules for establishing a Union funding portal, rules for the evaluation of the programmes, as well as other horizontal provisions applicable to all Union programmes such as those on information, communication and visibility, while taking into account the scope and nature of the activities and priorities.]

35a. The Programme should also promote cross-sectoral cooperation and synergies between culture, media and civil society. The cross-cutting and horizontal activities shall address common challenges, including those deriving from the use of AI. In the age of artificial intelligence, human creativity remains irreplaceable. In this context, the ethical, sustainable and responsible use of innovative tools and content technologies, notably artificial intelligence, should be promoted, for example by encouraging the protection and valorisation of cultural and creative data, in full respect of intellectual property rights.

35b. The Programme should support the use of digital technologies in cultural and creative sectors, including the development of audiovisual and media platforms and technologies promoting cultural and linguistic diversity and democracy, in full complementarity with the European Competitiveness Fund (ECF).

36. The Programme should also support, with appropriate resourcing, the role and functioning of Programme AgoraEU Desks. which Member States have the possibility to establish and which should provide guidance and assistance to applicants on funding opportunities and cross-border collaborations, Participating countries should be able to choose the most appropriate way of managing such AgoraEU desks. AgoraEU Desks should promote the Programme, provide relevant information on the various types of financial support available under Union policy, and assist operators to apply for support under the Programme. To this end, the AgoraEU Desks should support potential beneficiaries with respect to aspects related to the application procedure, dissemination of user-friendly information and Programme results, inquiries for partners, training and formalities. In addition, AgoraEU Desks should stimulate cross-border cooperation and the exchange of good practices within the sectors covered by the Programme. AgoraEU Desks should contributing to the Programme's outreach, visibility and dissemination in accordance with Regulation (EU) [XXX]* of the European Parliament and of the Council [Performance]²⁹. Programme AgoraEU Desks should carry out their functions independently and without interference from public authorities in their decision making, and ought not to have any responsibility regarding the management of the programme³⁰.

²⁹ Regulation (EU) [XXX]* of the European Parliament and of the Council [Performance] establishes the rules for the expenditure tracking and the performance framework for the budget, including the rules applicable to all Union programmes regarding information, communication and visibility obligations, including obligations for beneficiaries and implementing partners.

36a. The Programme should be open for participation of third countries where this is in the interest of the Union. To this extent, the Union may allow for full or partial association to the Programme of third countries to the constituent actions of the Programme where relevant international agreements are in force with that state and in accordance with the conditions laid down therein. The third countries should also include the category of European micro-states (the Principality of Andorra, the Principality of Monaco, the Republic of San Marino and the Vatican City State). Association to the programme should be subject to a fair balance of contribution and benefits of the third country and ensure the protection of the financial and security interests of the Union. When deciding on the participation of third countries, the respective prerogatives of the European Parliament, the Council and the Commission under Article 218 TFEU are to be observed.

37. Pursuant to Article 85(1) of Council Decision (EU) 2021/1764³¹, persons and entities established in overseas countries and territories are eligible for funding subject to the ruled objectives of the Programme and possible arrangements applicable to the Member State to which the relevant overseas country or territory is linked.

38. ~~The P~~participation of third countries in the ‘Audiovisual’ specific objective requires a certain level of reciprocity and regulatory alignment. For this reason, the situation of their audiovisual markets, the proximity of their legal frameworks with the Union audiovisual media acquis, in particular Directive 2010/13/EU, and the access to their support schemes should be taken into consideration when concluding ~~Association~~ the relevant Agreements. This is of particular importance in relation to ~~concerning~~ other European countries, whose audiovisual works benefit from the provisions of Directive 2010/13/EU that promote European works, notably the quotas system. In the specific case of acceding countries, candidate countries and potential candidates, the requirement to align their national legislations with Directive 2010/13/EU ~~was already included in Regulation (EU) 2021/818 establishing the Creative Europe Programme. This condition has been~~ may be an efficient incentive to accelerate their work on the overall alignment with the EU acquis ~~in view of~~ accession.

38a. In order to ensure uniform conditions for the implementation of the Programme through work programmes, implementing powers should be conferred on the Commission. Those powers should be exercised in accordance with Regulation (EU) No 182/2011 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 16 February 2011 laying down the rules and general principles concerning mechanisms for control by the Member States of the Commission's exercise of implementing powers.

39. Since the objectives of this Regulation cannot be sufficiently achieved by the Member States but can rather, by reason of the transnational nature of the challenges, be better achieved at Union level, the Union may adopt measures, in accordance with the principle of subsidiarity, as set out in Article 5 TEU. In accordance with the principle of proportionality, as set out in that Article, this Regulation does not go beyond what is necessary in order to achieve those objectives.
40. This Regulation establishes the Programme [for 2028 to 2034], which succeeds to the Programmes established by Regulations (EU) 2021/692 and (EU) 2021/818 for 2021 to 2027. Regulations (EU) 2021/692 and (EU) 2021/818 should therefore be repealed,
