Statement for the minutes by the Federal Republic of Germany

Germany agrees with the Council Decision on a European Union action to support the evacuation of certain particularly vulnerable persons from Afghanistan (5134/22). The Decision regulates the refinancing of costs incurred by EU member states to support and enable the evacuation of local Afghan forces of the EU. The assessment of individual cases remains the responsibility of individual Member States, which will continue to apply their national criteria for the reception of persons at risk for this purpose. The decision to provide financial support from the EU budget does not entail any legal obligation to identify and host local forces in accordance with the EU criteria. Each Member State is free to apply its own criteria or the criteria of the Council Decision.

Council Decision concerning the accession of the European Union to the Convention on the Conservation and Management of High Seas Fisheries Resources in the North Pacific Ocean Council Decision (EU) 2022/314 of 15 February 2022 concerning the accession of the European Union to the Convention on the Conservation and Management of High Seas Fisheries Resources in the North Pacific Ocean OJ L 55, 28.2.2022, p. 12–13	12617/21 + ADD 1

Statement by the Council

The Council is committed to seek the inclusion of provisions on the protection of personal data to be processed in the framework of the Convention in relevant Union legislative acts and to pursue the adoption of further rules on such processing by the North Pacific Fisheries Commission and calls on the Commission to include such provisions in its relevant proposals.

Statements by the Commission

Statement 1:

By its judgement in joined cases C-103/12 and C-165/12 (European Parliament and Commission v. Council) the Court of Justice clearly confirmed that decisions relating to the conclusion of external fisheries agreements fall fully within the scope of Article 43(2) TFEU (in conjunction with the applicable procedure of Article 218 TFEU, i.e. Article 218(6)(a)(v) for the decisions on the conclusion of the agreements) and rejected the position that such decisions could fall within the scope of Article 43(3) TFEU. The same applies for the accession to multilateral Conventions in the fisheries field.

In relation to the Decision on the accession of the European Union to the Convention on the Conservation and Management of High Seas Fisheries Resources in the North Pacific Ocean, the Commission regrets the Council's amendment replacing the substantive legal basis of Article 43(2) TFEU with Article 43 (without mentioning the paragraph).

While not opposing the adoption of the amendment by the Council by a qualified majority vote, the Commission reserves all its rights in this regard.

Statement 2:

The Commission considers that the Decision on depositing on behalf of the Union, the instrument of accession to the Convention on the Conservation and Management of High Seas Fisheries Resources in the North Pacific Ocean, should refer to the person designated by the negotiator. Therefore, the changes to Article 2 that provide for the Council to deposit the instrument on behalf of the Union are not in accordance with the Treaties.

The Decision on the accession to the Convention on the Conservation and Management of High Seas Fisheries Resources in the North Pacific Ocean should indicate that the Commission shall deposit on behalf of the Union the instrument of accession.

The act of the depositing of the accession instrument to an international agreement is an act of external representation of the Union, which, in accordance with Article 17(1) TEU, is the institutional prerogative of the Commission.

The Court of Justice has emphasized that consistent practice by Union institutions that is not in accordance with the EU Treaties 'cannot alter the rules of the Treaties that the institutions are obliged to respect' (Case C-687/15 Commission v Council, EU:C:2017:803, para. 42).

While not opposing the adoption of the amendment by the Council by a qualified majority vote, the Commission reserves all its rights in this regard.
