Dear DELETED,

Thank you for your request for access to documents of the Council of the European Union.<sup>1</sup>

You requested any “documents related to the agenda point ‘Presentation of Swedish Presidency priorities in the Working Party on the Staff Regulations’ from the 19 April 2023 Working Party on the Staff Regulations meeting”.

In this regard, please be informed that the Presidency only gave an oral presentation under that agenda item, and no documents were transmitted.

Therefore, the Council does not hold any documents covered by your request.

Yours sincerely,

Fernando FLORINDO

Subject: Internal review of access to documents request - Presentation of Swedish Presidency priorities in the Working Party on the Staff Regulations

Dear Madam, Sir,

Please pass this on to the person who reviews confirmatory applications.

I am filing the following confirmatory application with regards to my access to documents request registered on 24 April 2023 under Ref. 23/1226-ws/ns, and the reply dated 25 April 2023.

While I thank you for the extremely swift reply, I am surprised to hear that "the Council does not hold any documents covered by your request". You explained that "the Presidency only gave an oral presentation under that agenda item, and no documents were transmitted". But even if the Presidency only gave an oral presentation, surely a staff member of the Council would have taken notes of such a presentation? My initial request obviously also included any notes taken regarding the presentation. I find it hard to believe that there is no written record of the presentation.

Sincerely

DELETED
