COUNCIL DECISION (CFSP) 2025/...

of ...

amending Decision 2014/512/CFSP concerning restrictive measures in view of Russia's actions destabilising the situation in Ukraine

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

Having regard to the Treaty on European Union, and in particular Article 29 thereof,

Having regard to the proposal from the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy,

Whereas:

- (1) On 31 July 2014, the Council adopted Decision 2014/512/CFSP<sup>1</sup>.
- (2) The Union remains unwavering in its support for Ukraine's sovereignty and territorial integrity.
- (3) In its conclusions of 19 December 2024, the European Council reiterated its resolute condemnation of Russia's war of aggression against Ukraine, which constitutes a manifest violation of the Charter of the United Nations, and reaffirmed the Union's unwavering commitment to providing continued political, financial, economic, humanitarian, military and diplomatic support to Ukraine and its people.
- (4) As long as the illegal actions by the Russian Federation continue to violate fundamental rules of international law, including, in particular, the prohibition on the use of force enshrined in Article 2(4) of the Charter of the United Nations, or of international humanitarian law, it is appropriate to maintain in force all the measures imposed by the Union and to take additional measures, if necessary.
- (5) In view of the gravity of the situation, it is appropriate to adopt further restrictive measures.

- (6) In particular, 26 entities should be added to the list of legal persons, entities or bodies set out in Annex IV to Decision 2014/512/CFSP, namely the list of persons, entities and bodies supporting Russia's military and industrial complex in its war of aggression against Ukraine, on which tighter export restrictions regarding dual-use goods and technology, as well as goods and technology which might contribute to the technological enhancement of Russia's defence and security sector, are imposed. Those entities include certain entities in third countries other than Russia that indirectly contribute to Russia's military and technological enhancement thereby enabling the circumvention of export restrictions, including on unmanned aerial vehicles.
- (7) It is appropriate to expand the list of items which might contribute to Russia's military and technological enhancement or to the development of its defence and security sector, by listing items which have been used by Russia in its war of aggression against Ukraine and items which contribute to the development or production of its military systems, including additional computer numerical control machines and constituent chemicals for propellants.

- (8) In order to strengthen the effectiveness of the restrictive measures imposed in response to Russia's war of aggression against Ukraine, it is necessary to address the risk of circumvention of those measures through indirect exports via third countries. Goods and technology listed in Annex VII to Council Regulation (EU) No 833/2014<sup>2</sup> might contribute to Russia's military and technological enhancement or to the development of its defence and security sector, including when exported under the guise of being intended for civilian end-use. The prohibition on indirect exports covers the export of items that are listed in the Annexes to Regulation (EU) No 833/2014, including via a third country. Competent authorities should take timely preventive action where there is a credible risk that such items exported to third countries might ultimately be diverted to Russia. Therefore, it is appropriate to introduce an optional administrative mechanism that enables national competent authorities to require prior authorisation for exports of items listed in Annex VII to Regulation (EU) No 833/2014 to any third country, where the exporter has been informed that there is sufficient reason to suspect that the end destination of the items may be in Russia or that the end-use of the items may be for Russian entities. That measure is not intended to impose a new blanket restriction but to equip Member States with an effective and proportionate tool to investigate and prevent possible circumvention of restrictive measures, while ensuring a harmonised interpretation and legal clarity for exporters. The scope of the indirect export prohibition clause should not be affected by that measure. It is at the discretion of Member States to decide whether that measure or the indirect export prohibition clause is to be applied as a mechanism of enforcement in cases in which the end destination of the items may be in Russia or the end-use of the items may be for Russian entities.

- (9) It is pertinent to impose further restrictions on exports of goods which might contribute to the enhancement of Russian industrial capacities, such as machinery, chemicals, some metals and plastics. In order to minimise the risk of circumvention of restrictive measures, it is also appropriate to further extend the list of goods and technology subject to the prohibition on transit via the territory of Russia.
- (10) Council Decision (CFSP) 2022/884<sup>3</sup> and Council Regulation (EU) 2022/879<sup>4</sup> provide that Member States are to take all necessary measures to obtain supplies which are alternative to imports by pipeline of crude oil from Russia, so that those imports are made subject to the prohibitions as soon as possible. In line with that objective, the temporary derogation granted to Czechia for the supply of crude oil by pipeline from Russia should end.

- (11) It is appropriate to impose a prohibition on the purchase, import, or transfer, directly or indirectly into the Union, of petroleum products obtained in a third country from Russian crude oil, as well as on the provision of related technical or financial assistance. It is also appropriate to introduce a list of partner countries which have a set of restrictive measures that are substantially equivalent to those imposed by the Union on imports of Russian oil and petroleum products. Petroleum products imported from net exporters of crude oil should be considered to have been obtained from domestic crude oil and not from crude oil originating in Russia. The Commission should issue guidance on the implementation of this prohibition, in particular as regards the evidence which should be provided by operators engaged in the import of refined petroleum products.
- (12) It is prohibited to import Russian LNG through Union LNG terminals that are not connected to the interconnected natural gas system. It is appropriate to introduce a derogation from the prohibition that can be granted by a Member State that is not directly connected to the interconnected natural gas system of any other Member State and that receives the first commercial supply of its first long-term natural gas supply contract after ... [date of entry into force of this amending Decision] in order to ensure its energy supply. This is without prejudice to any legislative measure impacting energy imports into the Union from Russia.

- (13) Given the importance of the transaction ban in Article 1aa(1) of, and the legal persons, entities and bodies listed in Annex X to, Decision 2014/512/CFSP, it is necessary to apply strict criteria when a public trusteeship or a similar firewall measure is imposed. To ensure the continued functioning of, and compliance with restrictive measures by, subsidiaries acting on behalf of or at the direction of entities referred to in Article 1aa(1), point (a) or (b), of Decision 2014/512/CFSP, it is appropriate to introduce an exemption from the transaction ban, provided that a competent authority has imposed a public trusteeship or similar public firewall measure or the competent authority has authorised a similar firewall measure. This should be without prejudice to other restrictive measures.
- (14) In order to clarify certain provisions, it is appropriate to provide for an exemption from the transaction ban on certain ports for Kazakh coal based on the Union's commitment to prevent negative impacts on energy security of third countries around the globe. Additionally, it is appropriate to provide for an exemption from the transaction ban on certain airports with regard to civil nuclear capabilities and facilities.

- (15) The pipelines Nord Stream and Nord Stream 2 have been designed to transmit natural gas from Russia to the Union. They are controlled by the Russian Government via state-owned enterprises. Both pipelines were damaged in September 2022 and are currently non-operational. Nord Stream had supplied Russian natural gas to Europe, while Nord Stream 2 never started operations. Russia has repeatedly, unilaterally and, by the end of August 2022, completely disrupted supplies of natural gas, through Nord Stream, in order to coerce the Union and its Member States and undermine their support for Ukraine. Moreover, supplying natural gas through those pipelines in the future could generate revenues for Russia, thereby enabling the continuation of its war of aggression against Ukraine. In order to prevent the resumption or the establishment of natural gas supplies through those pipelines, it is appropriate to introduce restrictive measures banning any transaction that is directly or indirectly connected to the natural gas pipelines Nord Stream and Nord Stream 2 and that concerns the completion, operation, maintenance or use of the pipelines or parts of the pipelines. The transaction ban should also cover the purchase of natural gas transported via either pipeline. Targeted exemptions and derogations should apply to ensure that existing control mechanisms over the pipelines via restructuring mechanisms, in particular in connection with Nord Stream AG and Nord Stream 2 AG, remain in place, in order to ensure that the pipelines will not be used.

- (16) It is also appropriate to amend the conditions for imposing a transaction ban on persons, entities or bodies established outside Russia that use the System for Transfer of Financial Messages (SPFS) of the Central Bank of Russia or equivalent specialised financial messaging services set up by the Central Bank of Russia. This is due to the fact that SPFS was set up by Russia as an alternative to a specialised financial messaging service established in the Union and to shield its banks from the impact of restrictive measures that the Union and its allies have adopted since 2014 in response to Russian actions undermining the territorial integrity of Ukraine. The Council considers that, by expanding the use of SPFS outside its territory, Russia seeks to further pursue that strategy and to protect its international trade from the impact of Union restrictive measures, thereby increasing its financial resilience and providing opportunities to facilitate the circumvention of the prohibitions in Council Decisions 2014/512/CFSP and 2014/145/CFSP<sup>5</sup>, and in Council Regulations (EU) No 833/2014 and (EU) No 269/2014<sup>6</sup>.

<sup>5</sup> Council Decision 2014/145/CFSP of 17 March 2014 concerning restrictive measures in respect of actions undermining or threatening the territorial integrity, sovereignty and independence of Ukraine (OJ L 78, 17.3.2014, p.16, ELI: http://data.europa.eu/eli/dec/2014/145\(1\)/oj/oj)).

<sup>6</sup> Council Regulation (EU) No 269/2014 of 17 March 2014 concerning restrictive measures in respect of actions undermining or threatening the territorial integrity, sovereignty and independence of Ukraine (OJ L 78, 17.3.2014, p. 6, ELI: <http://data.europa.eu/eli/reg/2014/269/oj>).

- (17) It is pertinent to expand the transaction ban on third-country credit and financial institutions and crypto assets services providers to include entities that are significantly frustrating the purpose of the prohibitions in Decisions 2014/512/CFSP and 2014/145/CFSP, and Regulations (EU) No 833/2014 and (EU) No 269/2014. The expansion of the transaction ban also covers third-country financial institutions and crypto assets services providers that support Russia's war of aggression against Ukraine, including by processing transactions or providing export financing for trade operations that frustrate the purposes of Decision 2014/512/CFSP and Regulation (EU) No 833/2014. The Council considers that two entities should be added to the list of third country financial institutions subject to that ban. Finally, the transaction ban also covers any third-country legal person, entity or body that is not a credit or financial institution or an entity providing crypto assets services, including oil traders, that is significantly frustrating the purpose of the prohibitions set out in Articles 4o, 4p and 4x of Decision 2014/512/CFSP.

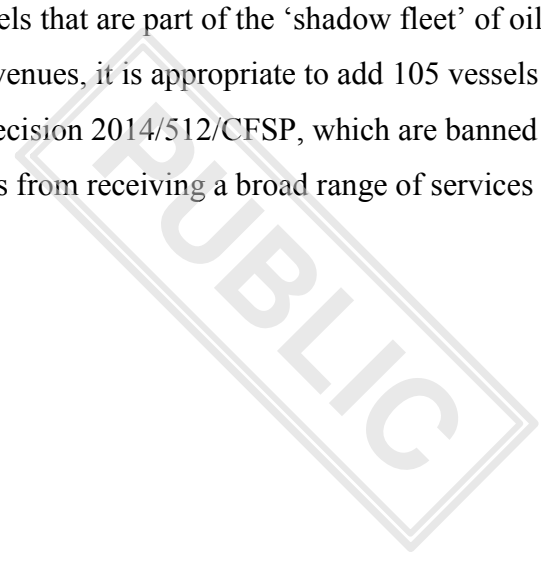

(18) It is justified to expand into a transaction ban the existing prohibition on the provision of specialised financial messaging services to certain Russian credit or financial institutions or other entities subscribing to financial messaging services or to Russian subsidiaries of third-country credit or financial institutions, which are relevant for the Russian financial and banking system, and are either large and important regional banks, which consequently facilitate regional and federal finances and business, or banks which facilitate significant cross-border payments, thereby bolstering the Russian economy and its industry, banks which undermine Ukraine territorial integrity by operating in the occupied territories, or banks which are already the subject of restrictive measures imposed by the Union or by partner countries. The Council considers that 22 credit or financial institutions and other entities should be added to the list of legal persons, entities or bodies subject to that transaction ban. Finally, it is pertinent to add exemptions related to the functioning of diplomatic and consular representations of the Union and of the Member States or of partner countries in Russia and to transactions made by nationals of a Member State who are residents in Russia. It is also pertinent to add a derogation for transactions which are strictly necessary for divestment from Russia or for the wind-down of business activities in Russia. It is recalled that Union restrictive measures do not have extra-territorial effect and do not bind operators incorporated under the laws of third countries, including those of Russia. Therefore, without prejudice to Article 8a of Regulation (EU) No 833/2014, transactions between legal persons, entities or bodies incorporated or constituted under the law of a Member State and their subsidiaries in third countries do not qualify as a violation of that prohibition, including if credit or financial institutions subject to the ban are involved in such transactions. The exemptions and the derogation in Article 1e of Decision 2014/512/CFSP are without prejudice to the prohibition on operators in the Union to provide financial messaging services to the entities listed in Annex VIII to Decision 2014/512/CFSP.

- (19) In order to increase the effectiveness of the oil price cap mechanism, it is appropriate to introduce an automatic procedure to modify the price cap for Russian crude oil depending on the average market price of Russian crude oil. In view of the current global oil prices, a lower cap on the price of Russian crude oil should already be adopted in order to bring the price cap closer to the production costs of oil and thus further reduce Russia's revenues from oil exports. Each time the price cap is amended, prior contracts that are compliant with the existing price cap should benefit from a transition period of 90 days for maritime transport and for the provision, direct or indirect, of technical assistance, brokering services or financing or financial assistance related to the maritime transport of Russian crude oil to third countries. That transition period is necessary to ensure consistent implementation of the price cap by all operators.

In addition, the existing review mechanism should be strengthened, and the functioning of the oil price cap should be monitored and reported to the Council every six months. The functioning of the price cap mechanism, including the level of the price cap as well as the relevant prohibitions, should be subject to regular review by the Council.

- (20) The Russian Direct Investment Fund (RDIF) remains an instrument used by Russia to channel foreign currencies into its jurisdiction, to seek access to funds in order to sustain its war effort and to increase the resilience of its economy. The RDIF uses complex investment structures to hide its activities and co-financed projects and insulate them from the consequences of Russia's war of aggression against Ukraine. Therefore, it is pertinent to introduce a transaction ban targeting the RDIF, its subsidiaries, its significant investments and anyone providing those entities with investment services or other financial services. An investment is to be considered as 'significant' if it appears to be underpinned by a governmental economic policy or strategy or if it concerns a sector that is relevant for Russia's long-term geopolitical manoeuvrability, in particular finance and banking, transport, telecommunications, defence, industrial manufacturing, advanced technology, energy, or the prospection, exploration and production of oil, gas and mineral resources, including related intellectual property or research and development. The Council considers that four entities should be added to the list of legal persons, entities and bodies set out in Annex IV to Decision 2014/512/CFSP, in which RDIF has made significant investments, that are subject to the transaction ban.
- (21) The Russian banking and financial sector is key to Russia's war effort. With the aim of preventing its further development, it is appropriate to impose a prohibition on the provision of software with certain uses in the banking and financial sector.

- (22) In order to further constrain the activity of vessels that are part of the ‘shadow fleet’ of oil tankers or that contribute to Russia’s energy revenues, it is appropriate to add 105 vessels to the list of vessels set out in Annex XVI to Decision 2014/512/CFSP, which are banned from Member States’ ports and locks, as well as from receiving a broad range of services related to maritime transport.

- (23) Member States should, with due respect for their applicable international obligations, not recognise or enforce any injunction, order, relief, judgment of a court other than a court of a Member State or other court, arbitral or administrative decision issued in proceedings other than those in the Member States pursuant to or derived from investor-State dispute settlement proceedings in connection with measures imposed under Decision 2014/512/CFSP or 2014/145/CFSP, or Regulation (EU) No 833/2014 or Regulation (EU) No 269/2014. The effective implementation of the no claims clause should be regarded as the public policy of the Union and the Member States for the purposes of the recognition and enforcement of arbitral awards or judicial or administrative decisions. As a result, the recognition or enforcement by Member States of an injunction, order, relief, judgment of a court other than a court of a Member State or other court, arbitral or administrative decision issued in proceedings other than those in the Member States pursuant to or derived from investor-State dispute settlement proceedings which could lead to the satisfaction of any claims in connection with measures imposed under Decisions 2014/512/CFSP and 2014/145/CFSP, and Regulations (EU) No 833/2014 and (EU) No 269/2014 should be regarded as violating the public policy of the Union and the Member States. That provision should be without prejudice to the obligation of a Member State to participate and to defend itself in proceedings initiated against it and to ask for the recognition and enforcement of an award that grants it the reimbursement of costs.

- (24) Where Member States are confronted with arbitral awards rendered against them in investor-State dispute settlement proceedings in connection with measures imposed under Decision 2014/512/CFSP or 2014/145/CFSP, or Regulation (EU) No 833/2014 or (EU) No 269/2014, they should invoke any objection available to them in domestic or foreign proceedings for the recognition and enforcement of such awards. This includes raising the objection that the recognition or enforcement of the award would be contrary to the public policy of the country where recognition and enforcement is sought, pursuant to the Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards of 1958.
- (25) With regard to the Paks II project, the prohibitions in Decision 2014/512/CFSP are not to apply to the activities referred to in Article 5c thereof or Article 12h of Regulation (EU) No 833/2014. The transaction ban in Article 1e of Decision 2014/512/CFSP or Article 5h of Regulation (EU) No 833/2014 relating to the entities listed in Annex VIII to Decision 2014/512/CFSP should be one of the prohibitions that is covered by that provision.
- (26) Those measures fall within the scope of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union and therefore, in particular with a view to ensuring their uniform application in all Member States, regulatory action at the level of the Union is necessary.
- (27) Further action by the Union is needed in order to implement certain measures.
- (28) Decision 2014/512/CFSP should therefore be amended accordingly,

HAS ADOPTED THIS DECISION:

(a) the following paragraph is inserted:

(b) the following paragraph is inserted:

‘6a. Where an authorisation is required in accordance with paragraph 1aa, the competent authorities shall proceed in accordance with the rules and procedures laid down in Article 4 of Regulation (EU) 2021/821, which shall apply mutatis mutandis.’;

(10) Article 4m is amended as follows:

(a) the following paragraphs are inserted:

‘3ah. With regard to goods falling under certain CN codes, the prohibitions in paragraphs 1 and 2 shall not apply to the execution until ... [three months from the date of entry into force of this amending Decision] of contracts concluded before ... The amended price cap shall apply as of the first day of the month following the month of entry into force of each such amendment to Annex XXVIII to Regulation (EU) No 833/2014.

The functioning of the price cap mechanism, including Annex XXVIII to Regulation (EU) No 833/2014 as well as the prohibitions in paragraphs 1 and 4 of this Article shall be assessed by 15 April 2026 and every six months thereafter, on the basis of, inter alia, coordination with the Price Cap Coalition. The assessment shall be submitted to the Council, along with the proposals to amend as appropriate.

That assessment may be carried out at an earlier point in time where duly justified by developments in the oil market, geopolitical circumstances, or other relevant considerations.

That assessment shall take into account the effectiveness of the measure in terms of its expected results, its implementation, international adherence to and informal alignment with the price cap mechanism, and its potential impact on the Union and its Member States. It shall respond to developments in the market, including possible turbulences.

On the basis of that report, the functioning of the price cap mechanism, including Annex XXVIII to Regulation (EU) No 833/2014 as well as the prohibitions in paragraphs 1 and 4 of this Article, shall be reviewed by the Council.
