Subject: access to documents request - WhatsApp group message of Minister Plakolm

Dear Council of the European Union,

Under the right of access to documents in the EU treaties, as developed in Regulation 1049/2001, I am requesting at text messages sent by Austrian minister Claudia Plakolm to a WhatsApp group of ministers of EU affairs. The message deals with Austria's family reunion policy, according to an interview Plakolm gave in Austrian newspaper Der Standard:

<https://www.derstandard.at/story/3000000261383/familienministerin-plakolm-mein-leitbild-ist-das-von-vater-mutter-und-kindern>

I have reason to believe that members of the Council secretariat are part of this group, and the messages are therefore in the possession of the Council.

Yours faithfully,

Subject: Internal review of access to documents request - WhatsApp group message of Minister Plakolm

Dear Council of the European Union,

Please pass this on to the person who reviews confirmatory applications.

I am filing the following confirmatory application with regards to my access to documents request 'WhatsApp group message of Minister Plakolm'.

I note that I was able to confirm that the exchange in question exists through access requests in EU member states. For instance, the Swedish government confirmed the messages existence, see official reply here:

https://drive.google.com/file/d/1isyBHdVOEnMJtQh80fc\_QDRhh4QXT1hW/view?usp=sharing

Similarly, the Danish government acknowledged the message's existence:

https://drive.google.com/file/d/1Fry3iCb\_U8EBC06yY27Dc7AuOR\_AhnYk/view?usp=sharing

I therefore regard the existence of the message in question proved beyond reasonable doubt.

Furthermore, I wish to point to the recent General Court ruling in Stevi v Commission, T-36/23, in which the court held that "in the absence of a precise explanation of how the requested documents were sought, the institution concerned fails in its duty to provide plausible explanations for the non-possession of documents which existed in the past".

I therefore ask the Council to explain how specifically how it searched for the message, and whether any Council Secretariat have access to messages of said WhatsApp group.

Yours faithfully,
