Article 1 Subject matter
This Regulation establishes the Connecting Europe Facility (the ‘Programme’) and lays down the objectives of the Programme, its budget [for the period 2028-2034], the forms of Union funding and the rules for providing such funding.
Article 2 Definitions
For the purpose of this Regulation, the following definitions apply:

1a. ‘beneficiary’ means an entity with legal personality with which a grant agreement has been signed;
2. ‘trans-European transport network’ means the trans-European transport network referred to in Regulation (EU) 2024/1679;

3. ‘project of common interest’ means a project of common interest as defined in Article 3, point (1), of Regulation (EU) 2024/1679 or Article 2, point (5), of Regulation (EU) 2022/869;

7a. ‘dual-use of the transport infrastructure’ means a transport network infrastructure that addresses both civilian and military mobility;	7a. ‘dual-use of the transport infrastructure’ means a transport network infrastructure that addresses both civilian and military mobility, incl. energy infrastructure which integrates transport functions;	Certain cross-border projects in the field of renewable energy, such as run-of-the-river dams, combine energy and transport functions. On the energy side, they provide renewable generation and strengthen energy security, which is critical in crisis and military contexts. On the transport side, their associated road and rail crossings enable the dual use of infrastructure for civilian and military mobility. Such projects should therefore be recognised as eligible under the dual-use and synergy provisions of this Regulation, as they – simultaneously, enable the transport connectivity, generate RES and contribute to resilience.
8. ‘studies’ means activities needed to prepare project implementation, such as preparatory, mapping, feasibility, evaluation, testing and validation studies, including in the form of software, and any other technical support measure, including prior action to define and develop a project and decide on its financing, such as reconnaissance of the sites concerned and preparation of the financial package;
9. ‘works’ means the purchase, supply and deployment of components, systems and services including software, the carrying out of development and construction and installation activities relating to a project, the acceptance of installations and the launching of a project;

11. ‘cross-border project in the field of renewable energy’ means any of the following:
(a) a project for the production of renewable energy which is included in a cooperation agreement within the meaning of Articles 8, 9, 11 or 13 of Directive (EU) 2018/2001;
(b) a storage project, including co-located energy storage within the meaning of Article 2, point (44d), of Directive (EU) 2018/2001, that supports the integration of renewable energy into the energy system of the Union, except for energy storage facilities within the meaning of Annex II, point (1)(c), of Regulation (EU) 2022/869 and that is included in a similar arrangement between two or more Member States, or between one or more Member States and one or more third countries.

Article 3 Programme objectives
1. The general objectives of the Programme are to build, develop, secure, modernise and complete the trans-European networks in the transport and energy sectors, with the intention of supporting a functioning, competitive single market and fostering cohesion; to facilitate military mobility on the trans-European transport networks; to facilitate cross-border cooperation in the field of renewable energy; and to facilitate synergies among the transport and energy sectors.	The general objectives of the Programme are to build, develop, secure, modernise and complete the trans-European networks in the transport and energy sectors, whilst promoting synergies between the sectors, with the intention of supporting a functioning, competitive single market and fostering cohesion; to facilitate military mobility on the trans-European transport networks; to facilitate cross-border cooperation in the field of renewable energy; and to facilitate synergies among the transport and energy sectors.	The Programme should explicitly acknowledge projects that combine energy and transport functions. For example, cross-border hydroelectric infrastructure may provide renewable generation while at the same time enabling bridges, rail links, or navigation, thus serving both energy security and civilian–military mobility. Recognising such synergies ensures that EU financing supports infrastructure that delivers multiple benefits with one investment.
2. The Programme has the following specific objectives:
(a) in the transport sector:
(i) to contribute to the development of projects of common interest relating to efficient, interconnected, interoperable, decarbonised, smart, safe, sustainable, resilient, secure and multimodal transport networks in accordance with Regulation (EU) 2024/1679, in particular through:

Presidency compromise	Drafting Suggestions	Comments
(1) actions relating to the projects of common interest with cross-border dimension implementing the trans-European transport network, including actions on the indicative sections listed in the Annex to this Regulation;
(2) actions relating to the projects of common interest with Union dimension relating to the completion of a smart, resilient, decarbonised and sustainable trans-European transport network;
(3) actions relating to the projects of common interest with cross-border dimension with third countries implementing the trans-European transport network in accordance with Article 9 of Regulation (EU) 2024/1679;
(ii) to adapt parts of the trans-European transport network for the dual use of the transport infrastructure with a view to improving both civilian and military mobility, focusing on the four EU Priority Military Mobility Corridors identified by Member States in Annex II to the ‘Military Requirements for Military Mobility within and beyond the EU’Union, as approved by the Council on 178 March 2025 and in any subsequent document revising those requirements approved thereafterwith reference ST 6728/25 ADD1;

(i) to contribute to the development of projects of common interest and projects of mutual interest as set out in Article 18 of Regulation (EU) 2022/869, with a view to promoting the completion of the Energy Union, the integration of an efficient and competitive internal energy market, and the interoperability of networks across borders and sectors, to facilitating decarbonisation of the economy, to promoting energy efficiency and to ensuring resilience and security of supply;	to contribute to the development of projects of common interest and projects of mutual interest as set out in Article 18 of Regulation (EU) 2022/869, with a view to promoting the completion of the Energy Union, the integration of an efficient and competitive internal energy market, and the interoperability of networks across borders and sectors, and to support the development of long-duration energy storage (LDES) as a means to enhance system adequacy and flexibility, to facilitating decarbonisation of the economy, to promoting energy efficiency and to ensuring resilience and security of supply;	The rapid growth of renewable energy in South-East Europe and across the Union requires complementary storage to safeguard system adequacy, flexibility, and resilience. By including LDES, including pumped-storage hydropower, as a specific programme objective, the Regulation would send a clear signal that the EU is committed to enabling the integration of large shares of renewables while ensuring security of supply.
(ii) to facilitate cross-border cooperation in the field of renewable energy, through the support of cross-border projects in the field of renewable energy or through competitive bidding for new renewable energy projects under the Union renewable energy financing mechanism established by Article 33 of Regulation (EU) 2018/1999, where the conditions referred to in of Article 11(5) of this Regulation are met, with a view to achieving the Union’s objectives in terms of decarbonisation, competitiveness, completion of the internal energy market, resilience and security of supply in a cost-efficient manner.
