Working Party on Competition

Dear Colleagues,

We would like to invite you to the last meeting of the WP on Competition organised by the Czech Presidency. Before the meeting, there will be a family photo session at the podium on the floor 50 (5th floor) of Justus Lipsius. We would like to kindly ask the delegations to be there at 14:10. The meeting itself will start shortly after that at 14:30.

Working Party Meeting

- Monday 14 November (afternoon):

This meeting will be dedicated to an overview of various competition related initiatives. At the beginning, the Commission will provide an update on the Horizontal block exemption regulations (HBERs) and their guidelines followed by an update on the Market definition notice. Afterwards, the Commission will briefly present developments of Technology transfer block exemption regulation and then highlight recent changes of the Temporary Crisis Framework as well as provide an update of other State aid instruments which are currently going through a revision. The delegations will have an opportunity to comment on these developments.

Moreover, the Presidency will provide delegations with short update regarding the current status of the transport enabling regulation and foreign subsidies regulation.

Right after the meeting, the delegations are invited to a small reception with Czech wine, which should be held at Europa building - EB Salle Bar 09 CD.

We are looking forward to seeing you on 14 November!

Did you know?

Autumn is here and it brings cold and windy weather. After long WP meetings, it is perfect time to cozy up with some good movie and hot beverages.

But what you should watch?

What about movies filmed in the Czechia?
