Subject:	Proposal for a Regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council laying down rules to prevent and combat child sexual abuse - Explanatory note

The text for a partial negotiation mandate by Coreper has been issued (15318/25). Delegations are informed that the following changes have been made to the compromise texts (14092/25) examined by the Law Enforcement Working Party (Police) to reflect the discussions at and following the meeting on 12 November 2025:

1. A new recital 17a has been added to clarify that no detection obligations on providers are introduced by this Regulation:

“Nothing in this Regulation should be understood as imposing any detection obligations on providers.”

2. In Articles 14a and 18aa on cross-border removal and delisting orders, the paragraph 5a has been deleted to address the concerns expressed by some Member States with regard to the specificities of their legal systems and traditions.
