

Council of the European Union
General Secretariat

Interinstitutional files:
2020/0361 (COD)

Brussels, 06 April 2022

WK 5165/2022 INIT

LIMITE

COMPET
MI
JAI
TELECOM
CT

PI
AUDIO CONSOM
CODEC JUSTCIV

This is a paper intended for a specific community of recipients. Handling and further distribution are under the sole responsibility of community members.

MEETING DOCUMENT

From:	European Commission Services
To:	Delegations

Subject:	Digital Services Act: Compromise suggestions prepared by the Commission services for the two co-legislators on article 24b
----------	--

Article 24b
Y	337i		Article 24b Additional obligations for platforms primarily used for the dissemination of user-generated pornographic content	[article is deleted]	Y
Article 24b, first paragraph
Y	337j		Where an online platform is primarily used for the dissemination of user generated pornographic content, the platform shall take the necessary technical and organisational measures to ensure: (a) that users who disseminate content have verified themselves through a double opt-in e-mail and cell phone registration; (b) professional human content moderation, trained to identify image-based sexual abuse, including content having a high probability of being illegal; (c) the accessibility of a qualified notification procedure in the form that, additionally to the mechanism referred to in Article	[Addition in recital 58 of Article 26] [...] Providers of very large online platforms, in particular those primarily used for the dissemination of pornographic content, should also diligently meet all their obligations under this Regulation in respect of online content constituting cyber violence against women, as defined in Directive [..../.....] of the European Parliament and of the Council on combating violence against women and domestic violence, including ensuring that victims can effectively exercise their rights in relation to content representing non-consensual	Y

		14, individuals may notify the platform with the claim that image material depicting them or purporting to be depicting them is being disseminated without their consent and supply the platform with prima facie evidence of their physical identity; content notified through this procedure is to be suspended without undue delay.	sharing of intimate or manipulated material in a timely manner. [...]
--	--	--	--